Twenty Dollars Reward.

1) AN away from Padiworth Farm, on the 20th of April last, a mulatto girl named JENNY, about nineteen years of age, remarkably, ftout and handiome, with Grait black hair; had on when the went away, a fine white muslinet jacket and petticoat, a high crowned black beaver hat, with a narrow riband round it, blue fash, cotton stockings, and leather shoes, with high white calico jacket. I am informed she said, after she ply to left home, that she had leave from her mistress to hire herself, and that she was then looking for a place, and it seems she crossed. Patapico river a sew days afterwards and went to Baltimore-town in the stage. As she was raised in that place and has relations there, it is probable she is harboured among them. She is entirely unacquainted with all kinds of house work, and is subject to a hoarse cough, and has some scars on her back and shoulders, occasioned by her being scalded when a child. Whoever will apprehend faid girl, and bring her to the subscriber, living about one mile from Queen-Anne, or secure her so that she may be had state, if out of it THIRTY DOLLARS, and all reafonable charges.
