July 4. Yesterday arrived the brig Fortune, captain Mandeville, in tourteen days from St. Eustatius. Captain Mandeville fays that the French naval force lately arrived in the West-Indies, consists of one line of battle ship and five trigates, with 4000 troops, who were landed at Point-Petre, the fort of which they carried fword in shand, upon which the ships went into the harbour. They have also possession of St. Anne's. Captain Mandeville adds, that the inhabitants of St. Kitt's and Antigua, were much alarmed at the arrival of the French, and many of them had sed to St. Eustatius for safet!

BALTIMORE, July 4. Extract of a letter from, Philadelphia to a gentleman in this town, dated July 2, 1794.

"Yesterday arrived here two vessels from France, one from L'Orient, and the other from Bourdeaux. The latter came in 44 days, and brings the flattering intelligence of a most bloody action having been fought in Roullillon; the battle was general, and the Sans Culottes triumphed completely, and took from the Spaniards from two to three hundred pieces of artil-

IVI waiting man, negro DICK, ran away from me last Saturday; he crossed the bay from Annapolis to Kent Island on Sunday about nine o'clock, and stole and took with him my gray mare. He wore a green cloth coatee and jacket, leather breeches, and boots, a round hat, and blue furtout, but took with him a variety of other cloaths. He is a very likely lad, well made, wears a queue, some little plaits in his wool, and dresses very fashionably; he is about twenty-five eyears of age, well fized, black colour, reads a little, and is a complete waiting man; he took the Philadelphia road.

I will give the above reward to any person who will apprehend and secure the said negro lad and mare, or TEN POUNDS for Dick, and FIVE POUNDS for the mare, and pay all reasonable charges.
