at the left hand side of the note.

The paper on which they are printed is more soft and tender, the strokes of the letters in the engraving are in general stronger, and have a darker appearance than in the true bills.

The fignature, Wm. Patterson, is badly done; the strokes of all the letters are stiff and laboured, and appear to be painted over with the pen, as well as the flourish under the name.

The value is left blank in the engraving, to be filled up in writing, so that the sum may be more or less, at

No true Post Notes of the alphabetical mark above lescribed, have been lately issued, and very few are now in circulation.

The above reward of ONE THOUSAND DOL-LARS will be paid to the person or persons who shall discover and prosecute to conviction the several offenders, or any of them, of the following description,

The person or persons who manusactured the paper on which the bills are printed.

The person or persons who engraved the plate.
