Annapolis, October 28, 1794. In CHANCERY, October 21, 1794. Gabriel Peterson Vanhorn,) THE complainant, Gabriel Peterson Vanhorn, applies to this court William Willett. THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, July, seventeen hundred and sorty-three, containing for a decree to record a deed indented, executed by William Willett, on the seventh day of October, 1791, for conveying unto him the faid Vanhorn, in fee, a tract of land, in Prince-George's county, called Scott's Fancy, containing 117 acres, for the confideration of two hundred pounds, and two horles with a stage waggon.

He states, that the said William Willett, hath removed from this state, out of the reach of the process of this court; and it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant cause a copy of this order to be inserted at least four weeks in the Maryland Gazette, before the twentieth day of December next, to the intent that public notice may be given of his application to this court, and that the faid William Willett, or his heirs, or representatives, or any person that may conceive himself interested in the premises, may be warned to appear in this court, on the third Tuesday in March, to shew cause, if any there be; wherefore a decree should not pass agreeably to the complainant's prayer.
