year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety four.

By order of the board, JOHN KILTY, Clerk of the council.

TO THE PUBLIC.

HE late editor of the MARYLAND JOURNAL and BALTIMORE ADVERTISER, having determined to go into a different line of business, takes this opportunity of returning his thanks to his friends and patrons, and informs them that he has declined any farther concern in the above-mentioned paper, in favour of Mr. FRANCIS BRUMFIELD, who will now continue to publish the same, under the firm of

BRUMFIELD and Co. As this gentleman has been regularly bred to the printing business, and has had some experience in compilation and in correcting for the press, I make no doubt of his conducting this old and established paper to the satisfaction of the public: With this persuasion, would recommend him to my former friends and correspondents, making no doubt of his assiduity and attention to preserve the circulation and reputation of the first and most useful advertising paper in the state of Maryland

I am, with much esteem, the public's obliged and very humble servant, JAMES ANGELL.

Baltimore, October 31, 1794.

To the Patrons and Friends of the MARYLAND JOUR-NAL and BALTIMORE ADVERTISER.

GENTLEMEN, TAVING been enabled, by the aid of some of my connexions, to obtain an interest in the MARY-LAND JOURNAL and BALTIMORE ADVERTISER, formerly conducted under the direction or Mr. WILLI-AM GODDARD, and lately by Mr. JAMES ANGELL, I have been induced to undertake the same: And as have now the materials for this work, and the affiftance of some excellent workmen, I flatter myself, I shall be enabled to preserve the reputation so justly due to this widely circulating and useful paper.

Nothing shall be wanting on my part, to make it acceptable to a discerning and generous public; and I hope it will yet fully answer the sentiments couched under the motto prefixed to it by its first editor: or Omne tulit punctum, qui miscuit utile dulci,

" Lectorem delectando, pariterque monendo" I propose to punlish as formerly, every Tuesday and Friday; and the price to subscribers will be twenty shillings per annum.

As there are near 2000 of these papers dispersed over this state, and every other state of America, every publishing day, the advantage of advertising in the Journal inuit be ovious to all mercantile characters, and the public in general: And it may be further observed to my friends and customers, that great precaution will be taken to display their advertisements in the taining about ninety acres; and part of a tract beit manner possible.

Happy in the patronage and friendship of the learned in every profession, their performances will be received with gratitude, and inserted in the most conspi- the Head of Rhode river, near South river church, cuous part of this work: But as I wish to defend and are adapted to the cultivation of corn and tobacco, and protect the reputation of my fellow-citizens, so I must have a great proportion of meadow ground. On the declare against the reception of any pieces tending to premises are a comfortable dwelling house, kitchen, the difgrace of religion and virtue, or the good name negro quarter, and a new tobacco house. Two years of individuals.

The Journal, as heretofore, shall contain news foreign and domestic, the congressional debates, and every other species of interesting intelligence: Being determined to use the most indesatigable endeavours to render it a vehicle of information, pleasure, and improvement, I trust the public will continue their kind fayour and indulgence, to their
