

RAN away from the subscribers, living near the Queen Tree, St. Mary's county, on the fifth day of the present month, being Easter Sunday, the following three negro men, viz.

GEORGE, the property of JOHN EDELEY, aged twenty-three years, of a dark complexion, about six feet high, fleshy, and well looking; had on when he went away, a blue great coat, a good ruffled shirt, a pair of country linen trousers, his other cloaths are uncertain.

DAVID, the property of NATHANIEL EWING, aged about twenty-one years, five feet seven inches high, of a dark complexion, well made, has a burn on one of his arms near the shoulder, a sharp nose; had on when he went away, a drab coloured cloth coat, whitish breeches, Irish linen shirt, old boots, a new hat with a black ribbon around the crown, other cloaths uncertain.

CHARLES, the property of CORNELIUS WILDMAN, aged about twenty-six years, five feet seven inches high, dark complexion, down looking fellow, thick lips; had on when he went away, a cotton and woollen country coat, a striped silk jacket, a pair of white breeches and stockings, a new wool hat with a ribbon around it. It is probable that these fellows will attempt to get to Pennsylvania, as David has once been there with his master; it is also apprehended that they may have supplied themselves with passes either from some ill designing white person, or that George has contrived to execute some kind of passes himself, as he can read writing, and also write some little. We are likewise of opinion they may endeavour to pass by the name of Butler, as George had some time in his possession before he went off a pass granted to CLEM BUTLER, who was a free negro, from which it is likely he might take copies. Whoever takes up and secures said negro slaves in any jail, so that their masters may get them again, shall receive TWENTY-FOUR DOLLARS, including what the law allows, for the three negroes, or the sum of EIGHT DOLLARS, also including what the law allows, for either of them.

JOHN EDELEY,
NATHANIEL EWING,
CORNELIUS WILDMAN.

LOFTY,

AN imported full bred hunter, will stand this season, to cover mares, at the subscriber's on Greenbury-point.

LOFTY is rising four years old, was imported from England this last winter, is full sixteen hands high, a beautiful sorrel, with a star and snip, and one hind foot white, free from blemish, with strength, bone, sinew, and action, superior to any horse of his age ever imported, (generally allowed) and from his powers, great size, symmetry, and elegance, promises fair to improve our much degenerate breed of horses. Lofty will cover mares to the last of July at two guineas the mare, and half a dollar to the groom, the money to be sent with the mares, or paid by the last of July, if longer credit, three guineas each mare, and half a dollar to the groom.
