CARROLL'S ISLAND,

At the mouth of Gunpowder river, between that and Middle river, in Baltimore county,
To be RENTED or LEASED,
With the Hands and some Stock,

TO a substantial tenant, of a fair character, who can give good security for the payment of the rent, and the performance of other conditions that may be required, particularly with respect to the support and treatment of the hands. Besides the profits of the land, (which in the grazing line may be very considerable, as there is not a foot of the upland but may be made, in a few years, with industry, excellent meadow in timothy and clover) there is a fishery, which, if well managed, will yield, at least, three hundred pounds per annum clear of expence—it has yielded much more—the large rock fish in the Baltimore market, at the breaking up of the ice, have testified this annually for some years past. It abounds with wild fowl in the proper seasons, and all kinds of fish that usually frequent our rivers. In the whole tract there are upwards of one thousand acres, a great proportion of it is of the first marsh, perhaps, in the state, both for grazing and hay. Black cattle, prefer the latter to fodder, and may be kept in fine order on it all the winter, after which, with the spring and summer grazing, they may be made excellent beef by the middle of August. A quantity may be cut, and easily cured, as the marsh is firm, to winter, if necessary, upwards of three hundred head of cattle.

A free current of air from all quarters renders this place very healthy. It may be entered on the 5th of November next; that being the expiration of the present tenant's lease.

Mr. Richard Grey, on Mr. Bowly's farm, at the mouth of Middle river, will shew the place, and give satisfactory information concerning the above particulars. Any person desirous of becoming a tenant, it is requested, will view the premises, and make the proper inquiries, before application be made for terms to NICHOLAS CARROLL.

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE, Annapolis, March 29, 1795. GENERAL ORDERS.

THE commander in chief of the militia of the State of Maryland orders, that there be a full and complete return of all the militia of this state, made and delivered to the adjutant-general, on or before the 20th day of June next, and that the said return shall be agreeable to the form directed by the adjutant-general.

J. KILTY (acting by deputation) for HENRY CARBERRY, Adj. Gen.

As regimental or battalion meetings cannot conveniently be obtained at this early season of the year, it is intended that company returns shall form the groundwork of the proposed operation. For these, as well as for regimental returns, blank forms, with every necessary instruction for filling them, will shortly be furnished from the office. They will be transmitted, (agreeably to a direction of the commander in chief annexed to the above order) to the commanding officers of divisions, under whose orders they will be distributed; together with such arrangements as those officers may think proper to form for a due and timely execution of the business.

JOHN KILTY, for HENRY CARBERRY, Adj. Gen.

Three Pounds Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, near SAMUEL RAWLINGS'S tavern, a negro man named JACK, dark complected, twenty-five years old, about five feet eight inches high, inclining to fat, with large eyes and pleasant countenance; had on when he went away, a dark farnothing jacket, with country cloth breeches mixed with yellow and black, white yarn stockings, and common negro shoes. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro, so that his mistress gets him again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home all reasonable charges, paid by RACHEL HARWOOD.

West river, near Samuel Rawling's tavern March 15, 1795. 9

RAN away from the subscribers, living near the Queen Tree, St. Mary's county, on the fifth day of the present month, being Easter Sunday, the following three negro men, viz.

GEORGE, the property of JOHN EDELEY, aged twenty-three years, of a dark complexion, about six feet high, fleshy, and well looking; had on when he went away, a blue great coat, a good ruffled shirt, a pair of country linen trousers, his other cloaths are uncertain.

DAVID, the property of NATHANIEL EWING, aged about twenty-one years, five feet seven inches high, of a dark complexion, well made, has a burn on one of his arms near the shoulder, a sharp nose; had on when he went away, a drab coloured cloth coat, whitish breeches, Irish linen shirt, old boots, a new hat with a black ribbon around the crown, other cloaths uncertain.

CHARLES, the property of CORNELIUS WILDMAN, aged about twenty-six years, five feet seven inches high, dark complexion, down looking fellow, thick lips; had on when he went away, a cotton and woollen country coat, a striped jacket, a pair of white breeches and stockings, a new wool hat with a ribbon around it. It is probable that these fellows will attempt to get to Pennsylvania, as David has once been there with his master; it is also apprehended that they may have supplied themselves with passes either from some ill designing white person, or that George has contrived to execute some kind of passes himself, as he can read writing, and also write some little. We are likewise of opinion they may endeavour to pass by the name of Butler, as George had some time in his possession before he went off a pass granted to CLEM BUTLER, who was a free negro, from which it is likely he might take copies. Whoever takes up and secures said negro slaves in any gaol, so that their masters may get them again, shall receive TWENTY-FOUR DOLLARS, including what the law allows, for the three negroes, or the sum of EIGHT DOLLARS, also including what the law allows, for either of them.

JOHN EDELEY, NATHANIEL EWING, CORNELIUS WILDMAN. April 11, 1795.

Lofty will cover mares to the last of July at two guineas the mare, and half a dollar to the groom, the money to be sent with the mares, or paid by the last of July, if longer credit; three guineas each mare, and half a dollar to the groom.
