Eight Dollars Reward.

W A N T E D,

Without Delay,

THE complainant, LEONARD STREIGHT, applies for a decree for recording an indenture executed by DAVID MORGAN, on the 29th day of July, 1791, for conveying unto him, the said Streight, and his heirs, a half lot of ground in Elizabeth-town, Washington county, distinguished by No. 209, and adjoining the alley 41 feet in breadth, and 240 feet in length; he states, that the said Morgan, at the time of executing the deed, was not, and has never since been, a resident of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant up on adjudge and ordered, that the complainant cause a copy of this order to be inserted, at least three weeks successively, in the Maryland Gazette, before the 17th day of July next, to the end, that the defendant David Morgan, or his heirs, or legal representatives, or any other person who may conceive himself interested, may have notice of the application aforesaid, and may be warned to appear here, on or before the first Tuesday in September next, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Elk-Ridge Landing, in Anne-Arundel county, a negro man named TOM, about twenty-six years of age, a stout strong built fellow, six feet high, of a dark yellowish complexion, flat nose, wide mouth, large teeth, and walks very clumsily; he has lately taken up the name of Tom Toocobb, and has petitioned the general court for freedom. At May term last his attorney, Gabriel Duvall, Esquire, ordered him home, informing him that nothing could be done at that court respecting his petition, but the said negro TOM hath not yet returned; he had on when he went from home an ofsnabrig shirt, black and white country cloth jacket, white kersey breeches, white yarn stockings, a pair of shoes, and a felt hat. Whoever takes up said negro and brings him home, or secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges, paid by JAMES WALKER.

A STRONG, stout, substantial, and faithfully seasoned white oak for the frame. The length of keel between 28 and 32 feet, the beam 12 or 13 feet, in the hold about three feet nine inches to four feet, and of a very handsome model. If the craft or boat be well apparelled it would be the more agreeable, but by no means an inadmissible objection. Inquire of the printers.

Twelve Pounds Reward.

Prince-George's county, May 1, 1795.

ABSENTED themselves from my service since the late Prince-George's and Anne-Arundel county courts, the following twelve NEGROES, calling themselves QUEENS; Simon, Billy, Jock, Lewis, Isaac, Paul, Matthew, and Tom; very black negroes, and Tom, Billy, Nick, and Fanny, of a brown complexion; they are all young, hearty, and well made negroes, and quitted me for no other reason but because they were not set free at the last court. As I have recognised for the said negroes I conceive that I do not forfeit their services, nor lose any share of my authority over them, before trial; I do therefore promise the above reward to any person who will inform me where the aforesaid negroes may be found, and be witness against such persons as harbour or employ them, or TWENTY SHILLINGS for each one. I likewise forewarn all persons from harbouring or employing the said negroes at their peril, as I am determined to prosecute every such person agreeably to law.

JOHN ASHTON.

LA FAYETTE

Is in high order, and will stand this season at the subscriber's stable, in Annapolis, two days in each week, Mondays and Tuesdays, and at Mr. THOMAS BICKNELL'S, near the Head of South river, on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays.

LA FAYETTE is a bright sorrel, handsomely marked with white in the face and legs, six years old this spring, fifteen and an half hands high, he is handsomely formed, and equal, as to bone, sinew and action, to most horses bred in America; he was got by the noted elegant horse VENETIAN, his dam was got by LITTLE FIGURE, out of a fine imported mare, whose pedigree is unknown.

La Fayette will cover mares at one guinea a single mare, if two mares, or more from the same person, four dollars per mare, and three shillings and ninepence to the groom, provided the money is paid by first of July; if the money is not paid by the first of July next six dollars per mare will be charged. Good pasturage, under good fencing, may be had for mares at Mr. Bicknell's.

JAMES WILLIAMS.

April 14, 1795.

A Latin School.

THE subscriber wishes to take the charge of eight or ten boys, without delay, and instruct them in the LATIN LANGUAGE, &c. at his own house, situate in St. Mary's county, in the vicinity of the Cool Springs. Punctual and diligent attention will be paid to the moral and literary improvement of such young gentlemen as may be put under my tuition. On Saturdays, I shall instruct them in reading English authors, arithmetic, writing Latin and English, &c. The price of tuition will be seven pounds per annum. Very good convenient board may be had in the neighbourhood for the above mentioned number of boys, at a moderate price. I will board a few boys myself.

E. C. decimo die Maii 1795.

COMMITTED to my custody, on the 8th inst. as a runaway, a negro man named ADAM, and says he belongs to WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Esquire, of Anne Arundel county, he is about five feet nine or ten inches high, and appears to be about forty years of age; had on an old brown broadcloth coat, blue waistcoat, an old pair of buckskin breeches, ofsnabrig shirt, old yarn stockings, and an old hat with a cover. The owner is desired to take him away and pay charges to

JOSEPH GREEN, Sheriff of Charles county.

May 24, 1795.

THERE is at the plantation of doctor MICHAEL PUE, on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a dark bay HORSE, about fifteen hands high, four or five years old, shod before, and has a narrow blaze down his forehead. The owner may have him again on paying property and paying charges.

BY an act of the legislature of Maryland, entitled, An act for erecting a bridge over Patowmack river, the subscribers are authorized and appointed to open books for receiving and entering subscriptions for the said undertaking, notice is hereby given, that BOOKS will be OPENED, at the house of Mrs. SUTER, in George town, on the first Monday in July next, to receive subscriptions to the number of four hundred SHARES, at two hundred dollars each share. Previous to any call for money there will be at least six weeks notice in all the news-papers of this state, and in the Alexandria and Philadelphia papers.

Fifth enacting clause of the law.

And be it enacted, That for and in consideration of their great risk, and the expences to be incurred by the said proprietors, not only for the building the said bridge, but for keeping the same in continual repairs, the said bridge, and all its profits, shall be and the same is hereby vested in the said proprietors, their heirs and assigns, for ever, as tenants in common, in proportion to their respective shares; and it shall and may be lawful for the said directors, at all times hereafter, for the term of fifty years, to demand and to receive such reasonable tax or toll as they may from time to time agree on and require; provided they shall not at any time demand more than two thirds of the present rates of ferriages to and from Georgetown; which rates or toll shall at all times be made public, and shall not be altered or changed oftener than once in each year; and at the expiration of the said term of fifty years, the said directors shall receive such toll as shall be regulated by the legislature of this state, or of the United States should the said bridge be erected within the jurisdiction of the United States.

WILLIAM DEAKINS, jun. JAMES M. LINGAN, URIAH PORREST.

George-town, 8th May, 1795. Timothy Palmer, an artist eminently distinguished by the bridges he has lately built over the rivers Merrimack, in the state of Massachusetts, and Piscataqua, in New-Hampshire, has undertaken the erection of the bridge, and engages its completion before the end of the next year.

In CHANCERY, May 14, 1795.

ON application to the Chancellor by a petition, in writing, of WILLIAM BRAWNER, junior, an insolvent debtor, praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and offering, agreeably to said act, to deliver up, to the use of his creditors, all his property, real, personal, and mixed, to which he is in any way entitled, and a list of his creditors, and a schedule of his property, so far as he can ascertain, on oath, being annexed to the said petition; it is thereupon by the chancellor adjudged and ordered, that the said William Brawler, appear before the chancellor, in the chancery-office, on the twenty-sixth of June next, for the purpose of taking, in the presence of such of his creditors, as shall attend in person, or by their agents or attorneys, the oath by said act prescribed for delivering up his property as aforesaid, and that in the mean time he give notice to his creditors, of his application aforesaid, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, at any time before the 30th instant, and continued therein three weeks successively.

SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

ELEAZAR DAVIS, D. P. M.

June 2, 1795.

TWO DOLLARS REWARD.

SUPPOSED to be lost, about the 13th May last, in Annapolis, or between said city and my house, a black leather POCKET BOOK, containing a number of papers, amongst which an inventory of the estate of ELIZABETH BASIL, deceased, with several receipts, accounts, &c. respecting said estate, and other papers that are of no use to any one but the owner. Any person delivering said pocket book, and the contents, to the printers hereof, or the subscriber, shall receive the above reward.

CHARLES STEWART, of CHARLES.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, near the Head of Severn, on Tuesday the 2d of June, a negro man named TOBY, of a black complexion, thirty years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, he is a stout boney fellow, has lost one of his eyes, and it is very much blood spotted; he is knockkneed, and has a large flat foot; this fellow has lately had the small-pox by inoculation, and is much scarified about the feet and hands with it; had on when he went away a tolerable good farnothing coat, only ripped in the sleeves, coarse ofsnabrig shirt, an indifferent pair kersey breeches, he has money with him, and it is likely will soon alter his dress. Whoever apprehends the said fellow, and secures him, so that I get him again, shall receive a reward of TEN DOLLARS, and if the distance exceeds thirty miles, the above reward, and all reasonable expences, if brought home.

BENJAMIN BROWN.

N. B. All masters of vessels are forewarned taking off the above negro at their peril.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Annapolis, on the 24th of May, a negro man named WILLIS BOWZER, about thirty-four years of age, a full faced well looking fellow, who had the small-pox in March last, and is much marked with it, he is very remarkable about the ancles and feet, his ancles look as if they had been hurt, they turn in and look swelled with knots on them, his feet are flat, or rather a round instead of a hollow; he is about five feet ten or eleven inches high, has a flat nose, and is a smooth spoken fellow; he appears to be religious, and I suppose will endeavour to pass for a free man, as he has money and a variety of cloaths. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow, so that I get him again, shall receive a REWARD of FORTY DOLLARS.

JOHN STEUART.

N. B. All masters of vessels, and others, are forbid carrying away, or in anywise harbouring, entertaining or employing the said negro at their peril.

NOTICE is hereby given,

THAT we, the subscribers, intend making application to Prince-George's county court, at next September term, for a commission to mark and bound a tract of land called LITTLE DEAN, lying and being in said county, under an act of assembly, entitled, An act for marking and bounding lands.

THOMAS COLE, JOHN COLE.
