August 31, 1795.

WHEREAS the subscriber, for and on account of the securities of the late THOMAS WILLIAMS, former collector of the taxes in Prince-George's county, did, in the month of December, 1789, by virtue of an order from the commissioners of the tax of said county, expose to public sale real property to a considerable amount, which was chargeable with, and liable for, the arrearages of taxes due in the years 1780, 1781 and 1782, and which was, in many instances, (to prevent injury to the owners) bought in, by a friend employed by the securities, at little more than the amount of the arrearages then due, under an impression and hope, that the proprietors would immediately come forward and discharge the respective claims, and take back their lands, but hitherto this friendly interposition has availed nothing in most instances the arrearages remain unpaid, and the securities left to the disagreeable alternative, of exposing the real property a second time to sale, or of instituting suits for the recovery of the lands; the latter case, although they have every assurance of success if adopted, is attended with such expence and delay, that they have determined upon the former: Whereupon notice is hereby given, that I shall EXPOSE to PUBLIC SALE, at the town of Upper-Marlborough, on Friday the 12th of September next, (being in Prince-George's county court week) all the REAL PROPERTY heretofore taken in execution by order of the commissioners of the tax of said county, and by me advertised for sale in December, 1789, where the arrearages of taxes still remain unpaid.
