

portion. Captain Lusher in particular was harshly treated. Protections avail nothing in this quarter.

We the subscribers, citizens of the United States, and spectators to the foregoing facts, conceive the treatment received of so gross a nature, that it is our intention to have it made known to the world. We conceive it hostile, and in direct violation to the laws of nations, abusive to our persons, and insulting to our flag and country, and that to a degree of eminence.

N. B. The ship Harriet fired on the vessels in the harbour during the attack of boats on the schooner Eliza; many vessels received shot in several parts.

March 23. The late gales which have been experienced, we are happy to find have done much less damage in the bay than could have been expected. We hear of nothing except a few vessels having been drove ashore between this and the tapes; two of them (sloops) were bound to this port, one of them laden with coal, and the other with wheat; their names we could not learn.

For a series of years past, it is observed, by some of the oldest inhabitants, that the docks never were clearer of water than they have seen them during the last north-west winds:—Indeed so completely dry were they, that the vessels were lying without any water, and in one of the docks at the Point, a number of base ball joes were found, which had been secreted there, as a place of all others, most likely never to be searched. A number of them have crept into circulation, and we sincerely hope for the public good, that those to whom they may be offered will prevent their going further.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At an entertainment given at Amsterdam, a few months since, the portrait of our beloved WASHINGTON was exhibited as the chief decoration of the room. When his health was drank, a Batavian rising up, in his native language made the following apostrophe; which an American gentleman present, requested might be translated. The gentleman has handed us a copy, which we here present. See here a true likeness of a great and gallant hero: Approach with due respect, O! human friend, and read in this republican, a Cato in council; a Caesar in the field; a second Solon, in his country's cause; a Hercules, in the political tempest; a compliant farmer, when olive branches blossom; the scourge and admiration of proud Albion. A hero who fought tremendous; but who knew by his care to prevent the spilling of human blood—Columbia's bulwark, and unclouded sun; a Mars, who by his knowledge and courage, separated a fourth part of the globe—the best friend to virtue, the GREAT WASHINGTON." A VALUABLE tract of LAND, lying in the county aforesaid, containing about nine hundred acres, the greater part of which abounds with heavy timber of every kind, about three hundred acres thereof is valuable meadow land; the improvements are, a neat and convenient dwelling house and kitchen, a milk, corn, and still house, several negro quarters, necessary out houses, and three tobacco houses, the most of the above improvements in good repair. There are also on the premises three apple orchards of good fruit. This valuable property lies within three miles of Chesapeake Bay, twenty-five from Annapolis, sixty from Baltimore-town, forty from the Federal city, and four from Lower Marlborough, on Patuxent river, where fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be easily had in their seasons, is situated in an agreeable neighbourhood, near to houses of worship, and convenient to mills. HAWTHORN RIDGE

For SALE.

To be SOLD, on the twenty-fifth day of April next, on the premises,

THAT valuable estate, containing a thousand and seventy-five acres of land, in Anne-Arundel county, and state of Maryland, distant twelve miles from Annapolis, twenty-four from the capitol in the city of Washington, thirty-five from Baltimore-town, one from Patuxent river, and six from the Chesapeake; the improvements are, a new handsome framed two story mansion house, forty-four feet in length and twenty-four in breadth, commanding an extensive and beautifully variegated prospect, cellar, kitchen, pantries, housekeeper's room, stable, overseer's house, tobacco houses, and negro quarters; there are a great number of streams of water running through said tract; it abounds with rich low grounds which may be watered at will, and converted into timothy meadow of the first quality, at least one hundred acres; upwards of four hundred acres of said estate are in rich woods, consisting of oak, hickory, poplar, mulberry, and black walnut, &c. &c. which must render it peculiarly valuable on a consideration of the scarcity of wood and timber in the adjacent country; the soil is rich, and as a part of it is adapted to the produce of small grain and part to tobacco and Indian corn, it presents an object well deserving the attention of the gentleman farmer, or planter. This estate can boast as many advantages as most in the United States; if elegance and locality of situation, salubrity of air, and fertility of soil are sufficient inducements to invite attention, Hawthorn Ridge unites them in a desirable degree. Terms of sale will be, a moiety of the purchase money to be paid on delivery of possession of seven hundred acres, including the dwelling house and its appertinances, which will be in ten days after the sale, and the balance in three equal yearly payments, with interest. Three hundred and seventy-five acres of said land are leased for a term of years, to reputable and industrious tenants, rendering a profitable rent. The purchaser must mortgage the premises as a security for the balance of the purchase money.
