

HIGH FLYER,

Will stand this season, to cover mares, at South river ferry, four miles from Annapolis, from the 15th of April to the 15th of July, at six guineas and one dollar for each mare, it credit is expected, but three guineas and one dollar will be taken and sent with the mare, or paid at the end of the season.

HIGH FLYER was bred by Richard Tattersall, got by his High Flyer, which covers now in England at thirty guineas a mare, and never was beat.

THISTLE, the dam of High Flyer, was got by Syphon, she was the dam of Mr. Hutchinson's Thistle, which was own brother to High Flyer, who was a good runner, his grand-dam by Cade, she was the dam of Mr. Shafto's hunter Omnium, Herald, Miss Barforth, &c. his great-grand-dam by Partner, she was the dam of Toy, Madam, the dam of Twig, Drowfy, Torismond, Alcides, the dam of Young Cade, the dam of Omnium Filly; by Cade, the dam of Privateer and Villager, all capital runners, his great-grand-dam by Makelefs, Brimmer, Places White Turk, great-grand dam of Carouch, Dodsworth, Layton Barb Mare.

JOHN CRAGGS.

A large lot will be enclosed for favourite mares at 3/9 per week, but not accountable for escape or accident.

RAN away, on the evening of the 18th instant, negro DANIEL, thirty-five years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, very black, his legs very small and feet remarkably long for one of his size; he has lost a part of one of his ears, his teeth are very long and remarkably yellow; had on when he made his escape a new cotton jacket and trousers of the same, an under waistcoat of brown cloth, patched with white, a round hat, a pair of negro shoes, cut down a small distance before to prevent them from pressing the upper part of his feet, with nails in the soles and heels, and an old pair of yarn stockings; his wool is short, having been not long since cut off. He has been several times on these trips, and has been in Baltimore, Frederick, Leesburgh and Alexandria gaols, and taken from the latter in July last. It is expected he will change his dress, and that he may have a pass, as he had when last out one, which he says he had from a person in the neighbourhood. A reward of TWENTY DOLLARS will be paid for securing him, so that he be had again, if thirty miles from home, or FIVE POUNDS, if a less distance.

HAWTHORN RIDGE For SALE.

To be SOLD, on the twenty-fifth day of April next, on the premises,

THAT valuable estate, containing a thousand and seventy-five acres of land, in Anne Arundel county, and state of Maryland, distant twelve miles from Annapolis, twenty-four from the capitol in the city of Washington, thirty-five from Baltimore-town, one from Patuxent river, and six from the Chesapeake; the improvements are, a new handsome framed two story mansion house, forty-four feet in length and twenty-four in breadth, commanding an extensive and beautifully variegated prospect, cellar, kitchen, pantries, housekeeper's room, stable, overseer's house, tobacco houses, and negro quarters; there are a great number of streams of water running through said tract; it abounds with rich low grounds, which may be watered at will, and converted into timothy meadow of the first quality, at least one hundred acres; upwards of four hundred acres of said estate are in rich woods, consisting of oak, hickory, poplar, mulberry, and black walnut, &c. &c. which must render it peculiarly valuable on a consideration of the scarcity of wood and timber in the adjacent country; the soil is rich, and as a part of it is adapted to the produce of small grain and part to tobacco and Indian corn, it presents an object well deserving the attention of the gentleman farmer, or planter. This estate can boast as many advantages as most in the United States; if elegance and locality of situation, salubrity of air, and fertility of soil are sufficient inducements to invite attention, Hawthorn Ridge unites them in a desirable degree. Terms of sale will be, a moiety of the purchase money to be paid on delivery of possession of seven hundred acres, including the dwelling house and its appertinances, which will be in ten days after the sale, and the balance in three equal yearly payments, with interest. Three hundred and seventy-five acres of said land are leased for a term of years, to reputable and industrious tenants, rendering a profitable rent. The purchaser must mortgage the premises as a security for the balance of the purchase money.

Chew's Farm, Washington county, Maryland,

March 7, 1796.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, in the month of May last, a mulatto woman named MARY, about twenty-one years of age, she took her only child with her, a handsome mulatto boy, about three years old; it is supposed she is in the city of Annapolis, or the neighbourhood thereof, as she has been seen about three weeks ago in company with a certain CHARLES CRAWFORD, a free black, who it is probable will claim her as his wife and pass her for a free woman. A reward of THREE POUNDS will be given for securing the said woman and child, and if brought home reasonable charges paid by

NOTICE.

To be SOLD, the following tracts of LAND,

THE tract whereon the late STEPHEN STEWARD, sen. lived, containing about 40 acres of land, situated on West river, the improvements consist of a good dwelling house, sufficient for a large family, a good kitchen, and every other necessary out houses; on the said tract is also the ship-yard, where the late Stephen Steward, sen. carried on his ship-building. Several other tracts of land, adjoining each other lying on Deep Creek, in the Swamp, containing upwards of 600 acres, with all necessary improvements thereon; one lot of land containing 49 acres, lying in the Swamp; one tract containing 87 acres; one tract containing 27 acres, the greatest part of it in timothy; two lots, part of Anne Arundel Manor, one of 83 acres, the other 96 acres, all the above parcels of land lying in the neighbourhood of West river, and are valuable. One tract of land, lying near Herring Bay, containing 100 acres; one lot of ground, lying in Lower Marlborough, on Patuxent river, whereon is a good dwelling house. All the above lands are sold for the benefit of the creditors of the late Stephen Steward, sen. A liberal credit will be given to the purchaser or purchasers, on giving bond with good security, but no conveyance to be executed until the purchase money is paid. The title is unquestionable, the lands being sold under deeds from the heirs at law, and with the consent of the judgment creditors, and the surplus to be applied to the discharge of the late Stephen Steward, sen. his debts.

STOP THIEVES.

Six Pounds Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, this day, two negro men, each named WILL, one about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, 22 years old, a slender, straight made, handsome fellow, light complexion; had on when he went away, a gray fearnought jacket, with blue cuffs, white halfbitch trousers, a felt hat, and gray store stockings; took with him an old blue turperfine cloth coat, with yellow metal buttons; and old silk waistcoat, &c. The other about 5 feet 3 inches high, 25 years old, a strong well made fellow, has a down surly look when spoken to, light complexion; had on when he went away, a country cloth jacket, waistcoat and breeches, much worn, white yarn stockings; but as they are artful cunning fellows, it is probable they may change their names and cloaths, and pass for free blacks, being well acquainted in Annapolis, but suppose they will make for Calvert county, as the first came from the mouth of Patuxent, St. Mary's, the other from Mr. John Ireland's, Bay side. Whoever takes up said negroes, and secures them, so that I get them again, shall be paid the reward above, or THREE POUNDS for either, and, if brought home, all reasonable charges, by

JOSEPH LEONARD.

N. B. These fellows may probably make for Baltimore.

Hill's Delight, February 9, 1796.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber's plantation, at Nanjemoy, in Charles county, on the 20th inst. a dark coloured mulatto lad, about twenty years old, slender made, and very likely; named BILL, or WILL, and commonly passes amongst those who know him by the nickname of McDANIEL, has a small scar on the upper part of his forehead, which may be discovered on close examination, and has several warts on one or both of his legs about the ankles, dresses himself remarkably neat, has a variety of good cloathing. This lad is well known to gentlemen of the turf, having rode for several years in Virginia and Maryland. He stole and carried off with him a four horse, about fourteen hands high, six years old last spring, with a narrow blaze down his face, both hind feet white, and branded with the letter B. There is some reason to believe he will attempt to get into Kent county, in the Delaware state, and pass himself as a free man. FIFTY DOLLARS shall be paid for the boy, and TEN for the horse, if secured so that I get them again.
