I have also some groceries, viz. rums, wines, and very excellent French brandy; brown and loaf sugar; fouchong and hyson tea; coffee; chocolate; raisins and currants; mustard; rice; black pepper, &c. also queen's ware, cutlery, and japanned ware; all which articles will be sold on the most reasonable terms the buyer can possibly expect, by

WILLIAM WELLS.

LOFTY,

A full bred imported hunter, in good health and high condition,

WILL cover mares this season, at the subscriber's, at three guineas a mare, and half a dollar to the groom, but if the money is paid when the mares are taken away, two guineas and half a dollar to the groom, will be taken in lieu thereof.

LOFTY is four years old this spring, perfectly sound and free from blemish, a beautiful chestnut sorrel, with a star and snip, one white foot behind, full seventeen hands high; with bone, finew, and symmetry, superior to any blooded horse of his age ever imported, and from his youth, superior form, great powers, and action, promises to get a useful stock fit for any service.

JOHN MITCHELL.

N. B. Good and convenient pasturage for mares (as any, in the state) at half a dollar per week, and all imaginable care taken of them, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.

Greenbury Point, April, 1796. 3

I WILL sell that corner LOT, in Upper Marlborough, which I lately occupied, with the improvements thereon, consisting of a dwelling house, containing three spacious rooms and passage on the first floor; two large chambers on the second, a large garden and yard, well pal'd, &c. Its vicinity to the court-house and public offices, renders it an eligible situation for a merchant or inn-keeper, the purchaser, on giving a bond with approved security, will be indulged with a year's credit. The terms, which will be moderate, may be known by applying to Mr. JOHNSON M. O'REILLY, near Upper Marlborough, or the subscriber, in Annapolis.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber's plantation, at Nanjemoy, in Charles county, on the 20th inst. a dark coloured mulatto lad, about twenty years old, slender made, and very likely, named BILL, or WILL, and commonly passes amongst those who know him by the nickname of M'DANIEL, has a small scar on the upper part of his forehead, which may be discovered on close examination, and has several warts on one or both of his legs about the ankles, dresses himself remarkably neat, has a variety of good clothing. This lad is well known to gentlemen of the turf, having rode for several purses in Virginia and Maryland. He stole and carried off with him a sorrel horse, about fourteen hands high, six years old last spring, with a narrow blaze down his face, both hind feet white, and branded with the letter B. There is some reason to believe he will attempt to get into Kent county, in the Delaware state, and pass himself as a free man. FORTY DOLLARS shall be paid for the boy, and TEN for the horse, if secured so that I get them again.
