THE

TRAVELS

Anacharsis the Younger.

IN

GREECE,

During the middle of the Faithful Century, before the Christian Era.

By the ABBE BARTHELEMY,
Keeper of the Medals in the Cabinet of the King of France, and member of the Royal Academy of Inscriptions, and Belles Lettres.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH.

IN FIVE VOLUMES.

The First, contains Maps, Plans, Views, and Coins, Illustrative of the Geography and Antiquities of Ancient Greece.

CONDITIONS:

I. This work will be published in 32 weekly numbers, at one quarter of a dollar each, payable on delivery.

II. It will be printed on a good type and paper, in a handsome octavo size; and each number will contain 80 pages of letter-press.

III. In the course of the work 36 plates will be delivered, together with critical observations on the maps of Ancient Greece, compiled for these travels, by M. Barbier du Bocage; the whole of which are intended to form the fifth volume.

IV. Should the work exceed 32 numbers, the remainder will be given gratis.

V. Those who procure twelve subscribers and become accountable for the money, shall receive one copy gratis.

VI. The price of the work, when finished, will be enhanced to non-subscribers.

To give a proper idea of the plan of this work, the following is extracted from the advertisement of the Author:

I imagine a Scythian, named Anacharsis, to arrive in Greece, some years before the birth of Alexander; and that from Athens, the usual place of his residence, he makes several excursions into the neighbouring provinces; every where observing the manners and customs of the inhabitants; being present at their festivals, and studying the nature of their governments; sometimes dedicating his leisure to inquiries relative to the progress of the human mind; and sometimes conversing with the great men who flourished at that time; with Epanionous, Phocion, Xenophon, Plato, Aristotle, Democritus, &c. As soon as he has seen Greece enslaved by Philip, the father of Alexander, he returns into Scythia, where he puts in order an account of his travels; and, to prevent any interruption in his narrative, relates in an introduction the memorable events which had passed in Greece before he left Scythia. "I have chosen to write a narrative of travels rather than a history, because in such a narrative all is scenery and action; and because circumstantial details may be entered into which are not permitted to the historian."

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber's plantation,

R. Nanjemoy, in Charles county, on the 20th inst., a dark coloured mulatto lad, about twenty years old, slender made, and very likely, named BILL, or WILL, and commonly passes amongst those who know him by the nickname of M'DANTZ, has a small scar on the upper part of his forehead, which may be discovered on close examination, and has several warts on one or both of his legs about the ankles, dresses himself neatly, and is well known to gentlemen of the turt, having rode for several parties in Virginia and Maryland. He stole and carried off with him a colt horse, about fourteen hands high, six years old last spring, with a narrow blaze down his face, with hind feet white, and braided with the tail. There is some reason to believe he will attempt to get into Kent country, in the Delaware state, and pass himself as a free man. FORTY DOLLARS shall be paid for the boy, and TEN for the horse, if secured so that I get them again.
