PHILADELPHIA, 20th March, 1796. PROPOSALS,

By J. M. Snowden & W. M. Corke, For Printing by Subscription,

THE TRAVELS

OF Anacharsis the Younger

IN GREECE,

During the middle of the Fourth Century, before the Christian Era.

By the ABBE BARTHELEMY, Keeper of the Medals in the Cabinet of the King of France, and member of the Royal Academy of Inscriptions and Belles Lettres.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH.

IN FIVE VOLUMES.

The FIFTH, contains Maps, Plans, Views, and Coins, illustrative of the Geography and Antiquities of Ancient Greece.

CONDITIONS:

I. This work will be published in 32 weekly numbers, at one quarter of a dollar each, payable on delivery.

II. It will be printed on a good type and paper, in a handsome octavo size; and each number will contain 80 pages of letter-press.

III. In the course of the work 31 plates will be delivered, together with critical observations on the maps of Ancient Greece, compiled for these travels, by M. Barbié du Bocage; the whole of which are intended to form the fifth volume.

IV. Should the work exceed 32 numbers, the remainder will be given gratis.

V. Those who procure twelve subscribers and become accountable for the money, shall receive one copy gratis.

VI. The price of the work, when finished, will be enhanced to non-subscribers.

To give a proper idea of the plan of this work, the following is extracted from the advertisement of the Author:

"I imagine a Scythian, named Anacharsis, to arrive in Greece, some years before the birth of Alexander; and that from Athens, the usual place of his residence, he makes several excursions into the neighbouring provinces; every where observing the manners and customs of the inhabitants, being present at their festivals, and studying the nature of their governments; sometimes dedicating his leisure to inquiries relative to the progress of the human mind; and sometimes conversing with the great men who flourished at that time; with Epaminondas, Phocion, Xenophon, Plato, Aristotle, Demosthenes, &c. As soon as he has seen Greece, enslaved by Philip, the father of Alexander, he returns into Scythia; where he puts in order an account of his travels; and, to prevent any interruption in his narrative; relates in an introduction the memorable events which had passed in Greece before he left Scythia." "I have chosen to write a narrative of travels rather than a history, because in such a narrative all is scenery and action; and because circumstantial details may be entered into which are not permitted to the historian."

List of the Plates which are annexed to this work.

It is proposed to give an elegant edition of this valuable work: The greatest care shall be taken to render it correctly executed; and the plates shall be engraved by the first American artists. As the work now presented forms a pleasing and instructive view of the antiquities, manners, customs, religion, laws, and literature of Greece, during the most interesting period of its history, the publishers make no doubt but it will meet the approbation of an enlightened public.

The London edition sells for 16 dollars. Subscriptions are received by the publishers in Philadelphia; by Messrs. F. and S. Green, Annapolis; and by the principal book-sellers throughout the United States.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD

RAN AWAY from the subscriber's plantation, at Nanjemoy, in Charles county, on the 20th inst. a dark coloured mulatto lad, about twenty years old, slender made, and very likely named BILL, or WILL, and commonly passes amongst those who know him by the nickname of M'DANIEL, has a small scar on the upper part of his forehead, which may be discovered on close examination; and has several warts on one or both of his legs about the ankles, dressed himself remarkably neat, has a variety of good cloathing. This lad is well known to gentlemen of the turf, having rode for several purses in Virginia and Maryland. He stole and carried off with him a sorrel horse, about fourteen hands high, six years old last spring, with a narrow blaze down his face, both hind feet white, and branded with the letter B. There is some reason to believe he will attempt to get into Kent county, in the Delaware state, and pass himself as a free man. FORTY DOLLARS shall be paid for the boy, and TEN for the horse, if secured so that I get them again.

JOHN THOMAS, Maryland Dec. 24, 1795.

To be sold,

A HEALTHY NEGRO WOMAN, about nine or ten, or twenty years of age, with a male child about seven months old; she has been accustomed both to domestic services and to the work of a farm, and will be sold for a term of eight years; the child for twenty-one years. Apply to the PRINTERS.

March 30, 1796.

LA FAYETTE,

is in high order, and will stand this season, at the subscriber's stable, in Annapolis, three days in each week, Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, and at Mr. Augulline Gambrell's tavern, about ten miles from Annapolis, on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

LA FAYETTE is seven years old this spring; fifteen hands and a half high, equal as to bone, firmness, and action, to most horses in America; he was got by the imported horse Venetian, his dam by Little Figure, out of a fine imported mare.

La Fayette will cover mares at eight dollars a single mare; if two or more mares from the same person six dollars per mare and 3/9 for each mare to the groom, provided the money is paid by the first of July next, if the money is not paid by the first of July next ten dollars for each mare will be charged.

April 20, 1796. JAMES WILLIAMS.

PIO MINGO,

A strong imported JACK-ASS, rising four years old.

COVERS mares and jennies this season, at Joseph LEONARD's farm, on South river, at four dollars a mare or jenny, and half a dollar to the groom; or one and a half barrels of corn if paid by the first of November, if longer credit is required five dollars will be demanded, on or before the 20th of December. Good pasturage at 3/6 per week for the mares, but not accountable for accidents or escapes.

Also for sale or barter for stock, several young JACK-ASSES, rising one and three years old, three jennies from three years old upward.

Also for sale, on the aforesaid farm, two full bred imported mares.

JOS. LEONARD.

P. S. No money will be demanded for covering the mares sent to Pio Mingo, except the groom's fee, where owners will oblige themselves to deliver his colts on the first of October, 1797, on my paying twelve dollars for each colt.

Hill's Delight, April 21, 1796. J. L.

HAVING suffered much loss by trespasses on my plantation near this city, I now give notice, that I will prosecute all those who commit the like in future.
