FERRY BOATS.

THE subscribers beg leave to inform the public in general, that they have built two large convenient FERRY BOATS, for the conveyance of gentlemen and their horses and carriages, &c. THOMAS TUCKER, on West river, in Anne-Arundel county, runs to Kent Island and Talbot county, on the Eastern shore; WILLIAM W. HADAWAY, on the bay side, in Talbot county, opposite to West river, runs to West river and thereabouts. As this is by far the most convenient route from the Federal city or Alexandria to Easton, Cambridge, or any of the adjacent towns or counties on the Eastern shore, and will be attended with much less expence than any other passage to the before-mentioned places, we are determined to pay the greatest attention, in order to give every satisfaction in our power to those that will please to favour us with their custom.

RAN away on the 26th instant, and was seen in Annapolis the same afternoon, a negro lad named DAVID, about seventeen years old; had on only an osabrig shirt and trousers, the trousers narrow and patched in the crotch and knees, his wool is neither long nor short, he is not so black as some, is rather mottled, has a small scar on his chin, and is a great liar; he may say he is free, but is not, when any one talks to him he is apt to turn himself sideways and look down; it is probable he may change his name. Whoever takes up the said lad, and secures him so that I get him again, shall have FOUR DOLLARS, and if brought home one shilling and sixpence per mile. I live near South river ferry.
