

Our grenadiers paid particular attention to her. She showed much interest for the French.
She was beautiful, and joined to the vivacity of the climate the melancholy air of misfortune.
Whenever any one entered, she appeared uneasy, because she dreaded the return of her tyrant. She begged the liberty of breathing the free air. They observed to her that the grape that poured around the boats. "Ah! said she to reward here, is to die!"

From the STAR.

BUONAPARTE, commander in chief of the French army of Italy, to the people of the Milanese.

The nobles, the priests, the agents of Austria, mislead the inhabitants of these beautiful countries; the French army, like generous and powerful, will treat the peaceable and tranquil inhabitants with fraternity: they will be terrible as the fire from heaven, to rebels, and to the villages which afford them protection.

Art. I. In consequence, the commander in chief declares all those villages in a state of rebellion, which have not conformed to the law of the 5th Prairial. The generals shall send against those villages the force necessary to restrain them, shall set fire to them, and put to death all who shall be found in arms. All the priests and nobles who shall be found in the rebellious companies shall be arrested as hostages and sent to France.

Art. II. All the villages in which the alarm bell shall be rung, shall be immediately reduced to ashes: The generals are responsible for the execution of this order.

Art. III. The villages in the territory of which any Frenchmen shall be assassinated, shall pay a fine of one third of the contribution which they are accustomed to pay to the archduke in one year, unless they point out, arrest, and deliver up the assassin to the army.

Art. IV. Every man found with a gun and ammunition shall be immediately shot, by order of the general of the district.

Art. V. Every country house in which arms shall be found concealed, shall pay a third of its rent, by way of fine; every house in which a gun shall be found shall be burnt, unless the landlord shall declare to whom it belongs.

Art. VI. All noble or opulent persons, who shall be convicted of having excited the people to revolt, either by dismissing their servants, or by censuring the French, shall be arrested as hostages, and conveyed to France; and half their property shall be confiscated.

WILLIAM HENRY HALL, Executor,
West river, August 27, 1796. 18713/12

JOHN HYDE,

RSPCETFULLY inform the public, and his customers, that he carries on the FANNING and CURRYING BUSINESS as usual, at the yard formerly occupied by Mr. Bayly, where he has for sale a quantity of upper and sole leather, of the best quality, which he will sell at the most reduced prices for cash. He continues to purchase hides and bark, for which he will give a generous price, and would willingly contract for a quantity of bark for the next season. He returns his sincere thanks to the public and others for their past favours, and solicits their continuance for the future.

Annapolis, 1795.

COMMITTED to my custody, on the 9th instant, a negro man, who calls himself ROGER, and say he belongs to BENJAMIN TRAVERS, of this county, which intelligence is false. I think it highly probable his master or mistress resides on the Eastern shore of Maryland, as he was seen crossing the bay in a canoe. If the aforesaid negro is not taken out of goal at the expiration of two months from the date hereof, he will then be sold for the fees arising on his commitment.

Valuable property for sale on credit.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC AUCTION, if not disposed of before at private sale, on Monday the 17th day of October next, if fair, if not the sale to begin the first fair day after, on the premises, the sale to begin at 11 o'clock, and continue from day to day until the whole is sold, the following property to wit:

THAT valuable and beautifully situated FARM, that has been occupied for a number of years last past by Rezin Rowles, deceased, lying on Kent Island, in Queen-Anne's county, situated on the Chesapeake Bay, opposite to and in full view of the city of Annapolis; its situation is equalled by few and surpassed by none in the State of Maryland, for its beauty and healthiness; the soil is fertile and well adapted to wheat, Indian corn, tobacco, and grass, it is conveniently situated between the waters of the Bay and Beaver Neck creek, so as to be formed into a peninsula, that a small proportion of fencing encloses the whole farm; it now stands divided into three fields, four lots, and an excellent apple orchard, with many other kind of fruit trees, it has other advantages of a small piece of salt marsh in each field, and abounds with good springs from one end of the farm to the other; its neighbouring waters afford the greatest abundance of the bell of fish, oysters and wild fowl, in their respective seasons, it is improved with a large and new dwelling house, with a brick front to the Bay, two story high, and 48 feet long, joined by a cross building with a south front of 46 feet long, with a commodious kitchen at the east end 28 feet long, a good negro quarter divided into proper lodging rooms, &c. a large barn, stable room for about 20 horses, and other necessary out buildings. The advantages arising to this farm from its vicinity to the city of Annapolis (it being only 7 measured miles) are too obvious to need mentioning, and its other advantages and conveniences are too numerous to be inserted in an advertisement; there will be a large crop of wheat sowed on this farm the ensuing fall, and possession will be given to the purchaser, if any, on the 1st day of January next, but should the said farm remain unsold after the 17th of October next, it will be to be rented for the ensuing year.

Will also be offered for sale, at the same time, 25 acres of valuable timber land, lying within a small distance of the aforesaid farm, and on a deep landing on Cox's creek, the waters of which run within three hundred yards of the said farm. Good titles will be given to the said lands.

Also will be sold, at the same time and place, all the valuable personal property that belonged to the said Rezin Rowles, deceased, consisting of a number of valuable negroes of both sexes and all ages, household furniture of all kinds, a large and valuable stock of horned cattle, horses, hogs and sheep, farming utensils of all kinds, Indian corn, pork, and many other articles too tedious to be enumerated here. The terms will be easy and particularly made known at the time of sale. The lands will be shewn to any person desirous to view them before the time of sale, by Mr. Levin Rowles, now living on the aforesaid farm, and negotiations may be entered into for any of the aforesaid property any time previous to the time of public sale with the subscriber.

JOHN ROWLES, Administrator of Rezin Rowles.

Forty Dollars Reward.

AN away on the night of the 15th inst. from the subscriber's house, near the turnpike gate on the Hook's-town road, a negro slave named EVE, she is a tall stout girl, about twenty years of age, her eyes, hands and feet remarkably large, walks very erect and with a quick gait, her complexion very black, her countenance sullen, and when sharply spoken to expressive of anger and hesitation in answering, with an appearance of her face being drawn away, her common apparel, a blue striped Holland jacket and petticoat, with an old under petticoat of light blue cloth, she usually wears a handkerchief round her head, when without one her wool appears to have hid much pain, in en-jith it; she carried with her a jacket of dark calico, and a jacket and petticoat of white cotton, pair of buck shoes, nearly new, stockings, handkerchiefs, aprons, ruffles, &c. her usual employment has been washing and ironing, at which though slow she rather excels; she can also cook in a plain way, and use her needle pretty well at common work. If she has left this neighbourhood, there must be some person or persons accompanying her, as without a guide she cannot find her way far.

she was born in Albemarle county, Virginia, on the estate of the late major Charles M'Carry, and brought to Baltimore about three years and a half ago. I will give ten dollars to any person that will take her to my house in the country, or bring her to me at No. 107, Market street, if taken in town; if ten miles from town fifteen dollars; if twenty miles twenty dollars; and if out of Baltimore county the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.

AUGUSTA MAINE,

Bonnet, Cloak, and Mantua-maker.

RSPCETFULLY inform her friends, and the public in general, that has removed from Mr. John Husk to Mr. James Mattison's, hatter, (opposite the store of Meliss, Ridgely & Evans,) where she will keep a general assortment of fuits, and all articles belonging to her line of business, and will carry it on in all its branches. Bonnets, ready made, may be had on the same terms on which they were formerly sold in the same place by Miss Sarah Owens; and all commands in that line shall be punctually attended to; and executed in the best manner and on the shortest notice. It is with pleasure she avails herself of the present opportunity to return his sincere thanks for past favours, and to solicit a continuance of their patronage, to deserve which no exertion on her part shall be wanting.

Annapolis, August 25, 1796. 2

To be SOLD, to the 15th day of September, on the premises, at 11 o'clock, for ready money, pursuant to the direction of the last will and testament of JAMES OWENS, sen. late of Anne Arundel county, deceased,

THREE valuable tracts of LAND, being part of Anne Arundel Manor, viz.

No. 1, A tract or parcel wherein the deceased lived, containing about 264 acres, whereon is a convenient dwelling house, tobacco house, and other out houses, a good meadow, in timothy, and two good apple orchards, with other fruit trees.

No. 2, One other tract, about a quarter of a mile from the above, containing about 136 acres, whereon is a good dwelling house, kitchen, two tobacco houses, a good apple orchard, with other fruit trees, and some very valuable meadow ground.

2 ANNE OWENS, Executrix.

Also will be offered for sale, the plantation whereon I now live, adjoining No. 2, containing 275 acres, whereon are a dwelling house, barn, tobacco house, quarter, with other convenient houses, an excellent apple orchard, with a variety of other fruit trees. Should the above land be sold I shall then sell the stock of cattle, hogs, sheep, household furniture, plantation utensils, and some valuable young negroes.

JAMES OWENS.

N. B. All this land lies within 4 miles of Pig-Point warehouse, 7 of West river, and 18 of the city of Annapolis.

Anne Arundel county, August 24, 1796.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the subscriber intends to petition the next September court of Anne Arundel county, for a commission to mark and bound the fifth line of a tract of land called Barwel's PURCHASE, also the fifth line of a tract of land called LOCKWOOD'S GREAT PARK, and the fourth line of a tract of land called LOCKWOOD'S PARK, they being contiguous and adjoining the land now the property of the minor heirs of Aaron Parish, deceased; all the other lines of the above lands are contiguous and adjoining the lands in the possession of the subscriber.
