

In virtue of the power vested in me by the honorable chancellor of Maryland, for the disposal of the residue of the real estate belonging to the late Edward Dinges, of Saint-Mary's county, will be EXPOSED to PUBLIC SALE, on the premises, on Thursday the 15th day of September next, if fair, if not the first fair day, on a credit of two equal annual payments; the purchaser passing bond with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale.

A TRACT of land on Great Pipe creek, in Frederick county, containing, by a late accurate survey, 354½ acres; this land lays adjacent to the seat and merchant mill of Col. NORMAND BRUCE; it is level, of an excellent quality for farming, and all covered with wood; its situation is very advantageous, being in the vicinity of several valuable merchant mills, and in the heart of a fine farming country. A plot of the land will be shewn, and attendance given on the day of sale, by

BERNARD O'NEILL, Administrator de bonis non of Edward Dinges.

Montgomery county, Aug. 8, 1796. 3

In CHANCERY, August 8, 1796.

William Somerville, { THE complainant applies for against Thomas Wherrett, } a decree for recording an indenture, executed by THOMAS WHERRITT, on the 26th day of November, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, for conveying unto WILLIAM SOMERVILLE, and his heirs, one half of a grist-mill, and a parcel of land adjoining thereto, lying and being in St. Mary's county; the bill states, that the said Thomas Wherrett hath departed this state to parts unknown; it is adjudged and ordered that the complainant cause a copy of this order to be instated, at least three weeks successively, in the Maryland Gazette, before the tenth day of September next, to the intent that the said Thomas Wherrett, if he be now alive, or his heirs, or legal representatives, or any other person interested, may have notice of the complainant's application, and be warned to appear here, on or before the first Tuesday in November next, to shew cause wherefore a decree as prayed should not be passed.

Test. 3 X SAMUEL H. HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

NOTICE is hereby given, to the creditors of Captain JONATHAN MORRIS, late of Frederick county, an insolvent debtor, that they bring in their claims against him, regularly authenticated, on or before the 20th day of September next; in order that a dividend may be made of the money in hand.

P. MANTZ, Trustee.
Frederick-town, Aug. 3, 1796. 3

Eight Dollars Reward.

R AN away from the subscriber, living in Charles county, near Newport, a likely black negro man named DSTEN, about thirty years old, five feet nine or ten inches high; it is probable he will push to George-town, he is acquainted with almost every negro and free mulatto of that town, he is likewise well acquainted with the free mulattoes and negroes of Charles and St. Mary's counties; he has a wife at Mr. Johnson's, on Patuxent, near the Queen Tree, is a great chewer of tobacco; and frequently takes snuff, has lately shaved the crown of his head; there is a very perceptible difference in the size of his legs, the largest is full of large lumps in his ham, which may be discovered upon the slightest examination; if his legs are examined there needs no further description of his person. Whoever brings him home shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable expenses paid.

BENEDICT BOARMAN.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

R AN AWAY on Sunday morning the 7th instant, a remarkable black negro lad named TIM; since called himself JAMES, and will no doubt change his name to evade detection; is about eighteen or twenty years of age; five feet nine or ten inches high, when spoken to has a side look of attention, well made, likely, artful, and complaisant; a dimple in his chin, and large white teeth; was seen going to Annapolis from Baltimore, dressed in a short brown outside jacket, with sleeves and no lining, and linen trousers. He took with him many other articles of wearing apparel, consisting of shirts, a dark blue cloth coat, striped cotton stockings, &c. and it is probable he will change his dress; he was raised in Annapolis by Benjamin Ogle, Esq; who has still his father and mother, the one a cook, the other his head waiter. Whoever secures said negro, so that the subscriber may have him again, shall have the above reward.

JOHN ROB. HOLIDAY.

NOTICE.

I SHALL attend at Mr. WHARF'S tavern, in Annapolis, on the 19th day of September next, at ELK-RIDGE LANDING on the 21st, at the CITY OF WASHINGTON on the 30th, and all other times in the month of September at my office in Upper Marlboro, for the purpose of receiving the taxes on carriages, and issuing licences to retailers of wines and foreign distilled spirituous liquors, agreeably to the laws of congress.

RICHARD MARSHALL, Collector of the revenue of Prince George's and Anne-Arundel counties.

August 10, 1796. 4

THIS is to give notice, That all persons who have claims against the estate of THOMAS TAL-BOT, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, are requested to bring them in, legally authenticated, and all those who are in any manner indebted to said estate are desired to make payment to the executrix hereof.

ELIZABETH TALBOT.

TAKEN up as a stray by the subscriber, living on Herring Bay, a small black MARE, about 3 hands high, 10 years old, with a hanging man and switch tail, and has no perceptible brand. The owner is desired to prove his property, pay charges, and take her away.

EDWARD JOURNEY.

June 25, 1796. 3 X

HAVING experienced for some years past, the many evils and inconveniences that arise from my servants carrying off all the choicest and best fruit of the Vineyard, under the pretence that they are allowed the privilege of so doing, I now expressly and openly forbid it, they have no right to sell any thing of that kind without my leave in writing. Men of virtuous principles will take notice of this advertisement, others will regard nothing but what the law ordains. I am determined to prevent it, if necessary, by legal prosecution, but I hope, after this publick notice nothing of that sort will be requisite.

J. HALL.

July 20, 1796. 4 X

R AN AWAY from the subscriber, living in South river neck, a negro man named GEORGE, about twenty-nine or thirty years of age, five feet ten inches high, large featured, especially the feet, a remarkable good set of teeth, with a simple smiling countenance when spoken to; had on and took with him two blue shirts, two white shirts, one pair trousers, one black coat, and red jacket; he has relations in and near Baltimore-town, and has once been to Philadelphia. It is therefore presumed he will make that way; it is probable, if apprehended, he may say he belongs to the estate of JAMES MARO, of Say-county, having formerly lived in that family. Whoever takes up and secures said runaway in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive SIX DOLLARS, and it brought home all reasonable charges.

RICHARD BATTEE.

FERRY BOATS.

THE subscribers beg leave to inform the public in general, that they have built two large convenient FERRY BOATS, for the conveyance of gentlemen and their horses and carriages, &c. Two are to run to Kent Island and Talbot county, on the Eastern shore; WILLIAM W. HADAWAY, on the bay side, in Talbot county, opposite to West river, runs to West river and there abouts. As this is by far the most convenient route from the Federal city of Alexandria to Easton, Cambridge, &c any of the adjacent towns or counties on the Eastern shore, and will be attended with much less expence than any other passage to the before-mentioned places we are determined to pay the greatest attention, in order to give every satisfaction in our power to those that will please to favour us with their custom.

Two Dollars Reward.

R AN away from George-town, without any proprietor, on Tuesday morning the 26th of July, 1796, an apprentice lad named WILLIAM KNOWLES, by trade a cabinet-maker, about five feet five or six inches high, round shoulders, down look, and knock-kneed; had on a dark coloured coat, blue overall and jacket, and other things rather tedious to mention; he is a very artful fellow, as he has been accustomed to run along away, and will persist in a lie, if attacked. Whoever secures said fellow in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward. All persons are forewarned harbouring said ungrateful fellow, at their peril; MIDDLETON and KING, N. B. It is supposed he will make for Baltimore, as he was formerly a sailor, and take shipping.
