The advantages arising to this farm from its vicinity to the city of Annapolis (it being only 7 measured miles) are too obvious to need mentioning, and its other advantages and conveniences are too numerous to be inserted in an advertisement; there will be a large crop of wheat seeded on this farm the ensuing fall, and possession will be given to the purchaser, if any, on the 1st day of January next, but should the said farm remain unsold after the 17th of October next, it will be to be rented for the ensuing year.

JOHN HYDE,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, and his customers, that he carries on the TANNING and CURRYING BUSINESS as usual, at the tanyard formerly occupied by Mr. HARRIS, where he has for sale a quantity of upper and sole leather of the first quality, which he will sell at the most reduced prices for cash. He continues to purchase hides and bark, for which he will give a generous price, and would willingly contract for a quantity of bark for the next season. He returns his sincere thanks to the public and others for their past favours, and solicits their continuance for the future.

Annapolis, 1796.

COMMITTED to my custody, on the 9th instant, a negro man who calls himself ROGER, and says he belongs to BENJAMIN TRAVERS, of this county, which intelligence is false. I think it highly probable his master or mistress resides on the Eastern shore of Maryland; as he was seen crossing the bay in a boat. If the aforesaid negro is not taken out of goal at the expiration of two months from the date hereof, he will then be sold for the fees arising on his commitment.

CHARLES WILLIAMSON, Sheriff of Calvert county, August 14, 1796.
