Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Montgomery county court-house, on the 27th of July last, a very likely negro man named PATRICK; he is about nineteen or twenty years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high; of a bright complexion, and has the first joint of one of his middle fingers very much contracted, supposed to be occasioned either by a cut or a burn; he had on and took with him when he went away, a blue broad-cloth coat with a red velvet cape, a pair of nankin breeches, with strings at the knees, one pair ditto gray casimer, much worn, and a pair of old boots and shoes. Mr. Henry Rizer, near Alexandria, raised him; and sold him last fall, and he is well-acquainted in that neighbourhood and Alexandria; he has been seen in the Federal City, and I believe passes as a free man, and says he obtained his freedom from Mr. H. Rizer. It is very probable he has changed his name and dress, and procured a pass or certificate of his being free. Whoever will deliver the said runaway to his master shall receive the above reward, or THIRTY DOLLARS for securing him in any gaol, so that his master gets him again.

JAMES BOWIE BROOKES.

September 8, 1796.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Prince-George's county, near Upper Marlborough, on Monday the 5th instant, a negro man named CHARLES, he is a very black fellow, about six feet high, he squints a good deal in one eye, and may be known by having half the nail of the third finger on the right hand cut off; he took with him a cotton jacket, a pair of brown corduroy overalls, linen trousers, an osnabrig shirt, and a pair of shoes and buckles. As he has filed a petition for his freedom in Prince-George's county court, he may probably attempt to pass as a free man. Whoever will secure negro Charles in any gaol, so that I get him again shall receive TEN DOLLARS; and all reasonable charges if brought home.

MICHAEL LOWE.

September 12, 1796.

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the night of the 15th inst. from the subscriber's house, near the turnpike gate on the Hook's-town road, a negro slave named EVE, she is a tall stout girl, about twenty years of age, her eyes, hands and feet remarkably large, walks very erect and with a quick gait, her complexion very black, her countenance sullen, and when sharply spoken to expressive of anger and hesitation in answering, with an appearance of her face being drawn away; her common apparel, a blue striped Holland jacket and petticoat; with an old under petticoat of light blue cloth; she usually wears a handkerchief round her head, when without one her wool appears to have had much pains taken with it; she carried with her a jacket of dark calico, and a jacket and petticoat of white cotton, a pair of stuff shoes, nearly new, stockings, handkerchiefs, aprons, shifts, &c. her usual employment has been washing and ironing, at which though slow she rather excels; she can also cook in a plain way, and use her needle pretty well at common work. If she has left this neighbourhood, there must be some person or persons accompanying her; as without a guide she cannot find her way far; she was born in Richmond county, Virginia, on the estate of the late major Charles McCarty, and brought to Baltimore about three years and a half ago. I will give ten dollars to any person that will take her to my house in the country, or bring her to me at No. 107, Market-street, if taken in town; if ten miles from town fifteen dollars; if twenty miles twenty dollars; and if out of Baltimore county the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.
