

he instructed. All those fatal consequences which were predicted by sagacity and foresight, and ridiculed by presumptuous and infatuated ignorance will, by that ruinous and ignominious treaty, be converted into history and record.

PHILADELPHIA, October 5.

The following letter from Mr. Donaldson, dated at Leghorn the 2d of July last, shows that the measures taken to effect a treaty between the United States and Tunis, had not then succeeded. It is published for the purpose expressed in the letter itself. It also to be noted, that no treaty has yet been made with Tripoli.

Copy of a letter from Joseph Donaldson, to Stephen Cathalan, consul of the United States at Marseilles, dated Leghorn July 3, 1796, and received at the Department of State.

Sir,
This moment I am informed by letter from Tunis, that the American schooner Eliza, Samuel Graves, has been sent in there by one of their privateers, contrary to an arrangement made by me in November last, and which will not expire until the 8th of this instant.

You will do well to caution my countrymen against the cruizers of Tunis and Tripoli.

Signed, JOSEPH DONALDSON, Jun.

Extract of a letter from Alicante, June 28.

The beginning of this month a most terrible and obstinate battle was fought near Corfica, between an Algerian rover and two Neapolitan frigates, joined by one of the Pope's guarda costas. The action was severe, long, and bloody; it lasted from ten o'clock in the morning till four in the afternoon, without intermission; the combatants were for a long time within pistol shot of each other. The pirate suffered much, being most of the time between an incessant and well directed fire, which cut away great part of their rigging, and made terrible havoc amongst the men; yet the ruffians fought with an uncommon degree of desperation, and attempted many times to board, but were as often repulsed with great loss. The captain and all the officers were killed in the heat of the action—the former had both his legs taken off by a chain-shot, as he was firing a blunderbuss, yet the Barbarian refused to be taken from the deck, and died whilst giving the word of command. This loss did not in the least intimidate the terrible crew, who fought like furies, swearing in various tongues they would not strike while a man or boy was left alive.—The Christians were equally obstinate, and fought like lions throughout the whole conflict and showed great bravery and skill—they were to a man fully determined to conquer or die. Unluckily one of the frigates, which bore the greatest stress in the action, took fire, and in spite of every exertion, soon blew up, when most of the crew perished. Another misfortune presented itself a short time after, which was the loss of the Pope's cruiser, which was sunk by the enemy's shot; after a gallant resistance. In this situation the other frigate was obliged to be towed away, leaving the Algerine like a log upon the water, having her fore and main-mast carried away by the board, and her hull so much pierced and shattered, that it was almost impossible she could ever fetch Algiers.—The pirate fought under the bloody flag, and mounted 34 guns, besides pateraroes; the frigates had 20 guns each, and the Pope's cruiser 10, and 8 swivels.

JOHN GALLOWAY.

October 7, 1796.

DEPENDING, as I do in my present situation, upon receiving punctual payment of interest due me on bond, and otherwise, I request the favour of all those who are indebted, and more especially those who owe interest from two to seven years and upwards, that they would take notice, that I desire payment of all arrears of interest, on or before the 10th day of November next, otherwise I shall be under the disagreeable necessity of compelling payment by every method in my power, not only of such interest but principal also. I greatly dislike the trouble of dunning gentlemen by repeated applications, and have therefore thought it best for those concerned, as well as myself, to give this general notice.

Not being constantly in Annapolis any payment of interest to Henry Hall, jun. who lives at my house in town, will be good, he is authorized to receive for me, his receipt shall be deemed and taken as payment for the sum therein specified.

JACOB PATTISON, Executor.

Anne-Arundel county, October 5, 1796.

THE subscriber wants to employ a person who is careful, industrious, and well-acquainted with farming, to take the management of a farm and a parcel of hands on Severn river the next ensuing year, for such a one liberal wages will be given. None need apply but those that can come well recommended.

FRANCIS THO CLEMENTS.

Annapolis, October 3, 1796.

A very valuable PLANTATION for SALE.

On Monday the 24th of October next, if fair, if not the first fair day, will be EXPOSED to PUBLIC SALE, on the premises,

THE subscriber's dwelling plantation; this plantation contains 581 acres of good land, in complete order, of which 200 acres are in wood, 25 acres of meadow may be made with very small expence; on it there is a dwelling house, three tobacco houses, and all other necessary out houses in good repair, three orchards, the soil well adapted to the culture of tobacco, wheat and corn; it is situate three miles from Nottingham, on Patuxent, six miles from Upper Marlborough, and one mile from Selby's Landing. A clear and perfect title will be made. The terms of sale will be bond with security, carrying interest, for the payment of one third part of the purchase money within six months, one third within twelve months, and the residue within eighteen months. The subscriber, dwelling on the land, will shew it to any one desirous of inspecting it.

EDWARD BOTELER.

Prince George's county, September 23, 1796.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Friday night the 16th instant, a dark muratto woman slave named NAN, about twenty-one years of age, stout made, fullen look, has no hair on the top of her head, and always wears her hat for fear of being discovered; had on country made cloaths; took with her a light coloured petticoat and jacket, French fashion; she was raised by JOHN FOXNES, Charles county, state of Maryland. I have reason to believe some evil person has took her away. For taking her up in town I will give eight dollars, if twenty miles twelve dollars, if forty miles fifteen, and if out of the county the above reward, and all reasonable charges on delivering her to me, No. 41, Howard-street.

JAMES SMITH.

Baltimore, September 26, 1796.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro woman who calls herself MINTA, and says she belongs to captain WALTER SMITH, of Calvert county, she appears to be about 18 or 19 years of age, and pretty tall. Her master is desired to take her away, or she will be sold agreeably to law to discharge her prison fees, and other charges.

JOSEPH GREEN, Sheriff

of Charles county.

September 15, 1796.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro man who calls himself GEORGE, and says he belongs to a Mr. PITNEY, of Charles-town, in the commonwealth of Virginia, and that he was sold by Mr. Robert C. Hall, of this county, to Mr. Pitney about twelve months ago, who at that time was a resident of Montgomery or Frederick county; his apparel appears to be his last winter's clothing, which is very much worn. His master is desired to take him away and pay charges, otherwise he will be sold agreeably to law.

JOSEPH GREEN, Sheriff

of Charles county.

September 22, 1796.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Anne-Arundel county Levy court will meet on the third Wednesday of October next, at the city of Annapolis, to appoint supervisors of the public roads; all persons inclined to execute that trust are requested to attend at Annapolis on that day.

JOHN HYDE,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, and his customers, that he carries on the TANNING and CURRYING BUSINESS as usual, at the tannery formerly occupied by Mr. BAKER, where he has for sale a quantity of upper and sole leather of the first quality, which he will sell at the most reduced prices for cash. He continues to purchase hides and bark, for which he will give a generous price, and would willingly contract for a quantity of bark for the next season. He returns his sincere thanks to the public and others for their past favours, and solicits their continuance for the future.

Annapolis, 1796.

N. B. An apprentice wanted at the above business.
