THE debtors to the State of Maryland for confiscated property purchased, and others who have installed their debts, will please to observe, that their next instalment becomes due on the first day of December next, and it is expected that the payments will be made at the Treasury of the Western Shore on or before that day, otherwise proceeds will certainly issue against every delinquent on the day following; it hath been a practice heretofore to delay issuing against the delinquents until after the 20th day of February following, as no such indulgence will be given for the ensuing instalment, I hope the debtors will be punctual in making their payments. In all cases where property is taken in execution for the use of the state, I shall fix a place and day of sale, where I shall attend in person to enforce the sale, unless payment be made.

The several county clerks will please to take notice, that agreeably to law their returns and payments should be made on the first day of November in each year, and as several of them have heretofore neglected to comply, I will certainly put the law in force against those who fail in making their returns and payments on the first day of November next.

The sheriffs are requested to pay up their respective balances on or before the first day of November next, otherwise I shall take immediate steps thereafter for the recovery of the same.

WILLIAM MARBURY, Agent for the State of Maryland.

THE subscriber, now in the custody of the sheriff of Prince George's county, intends to petition the next general assembly of the state of Maryland for an act to relieve him from all his debts, on his delivering his property to be divided among his creditors, and the overplus, if any, to be returned to him, or his order.

WANTED,

A FEW thousand CHESNUT RAILS, for which a good price will be given. Apply to the Printers.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, on the 26th of September, a negro man who called himself THOMAS BUTLER, but since says his name is TITUS; his clothing is a striped upper jacket with sleeves, and red waistcoat, an old ruffled shirt and canvas trousers, and says he did belong to JOSEPH KIRK, of St. Mary's county, but was sold to HENRY HILL, of Kentucky. His master is hereby requested to take him away in two months from the above date, or he will be sold according to law for his fees and other expenses.

RICHARD HARWOOD, Sheriff of Anne Arundel county.

October 4, 1796.

THE subscriber intends to petition the next general assembly of Maryland, for an act to empower him to dispose of a house and lots in the town of Nottingham, the property of the late house of Brown, Perkins, and Buchanan.

By order of the Vestry, JOHN HURTT, Register.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

WERE stolen from this city, on Sunday evening last, two bay HORSES, remarkably well matched, four years old last spring, about fourteen hands three inches high, hanging manes and switch tails, which are long; each of them has a small star in his forehead, and one of them a small white snip on the nose; one is branded S I the other branded Z on their buttocks; they have been newly shod, and are remarkably fat. Whoever will deliver to me the said horses shall receive Twenty Dollars, and whoever apprehends the thief or thieves, who stole them, shall receive Thirty, on their conviction.

J. H. STONE.

Annapolis, September 20, 1796.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Friday night the 16th instant, a dark mulatto woman slave named NAN, about twenty-one years of age, stout made, fullen look, has no hair on the top of her head, and always wears her hat for fear of being discovered; had on country made cloaths; took with her a light coloured petticoat and jacket, French fashion; she was raised by JOHN FORBES, Charles county, State of Maryland. I have reason to believe some evil person has took her away. For taking her up in town I will give eight dollars, and if out of the county the above reward, and all reasonable charges on delivering her to me, No. 41, Howard street.

JAMES SMITH.

Baltimore, September 26, 1796.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro woman who calls herself MINTA, and says she belongs to captain WALTER SMITH, of Calvert county, she appears to be about 18 or 19 years of age, and pretty tall. Her master is desired to take her away, or she will be sold agreeably to law to discharge her prison fees, and other charges.

JOSEPH GREEN, Sheriff of Charles county.

September 15, 1796.

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Montgomery county court-house, on the 27th of July last, a very likely negro man named PATRICK; he is about nineteen or twenty years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, of a bright complexion, and has the first joint of one of his middle fingers very much contracted, supposed to be occasioned either by a cut or a burn; he had on and took with him when he went away, a blue broad-cloth coat with a red velvet cape, a pair of nankin breeches, with strings at the knees, one pair ditto gray casimer, much worn, and a pair of old boots and shoes. Mr. Henry Rozer, near Alexandria, raised him, and sold him last fall, and he is well acquainted in that neighbourhood and Alexandria; he has been seen in the Federal City, and I believe passes as a free man, and says he obtained his freedom from Mr. H. Rozer. It is very probable he has changed his name and dress, and procured a pass or certificate of his being free. Whoever will deliver the said runaway to his master shall receive the above reward, or THIRTY DOLLARS for securing him in any goal, so that his master gets him again.

JAMES BOWIE BROOKES.
