ABOUT one hundred head of valuable high bred CATTLE; of the latest stock from England, and perhaps superior to any ever imported to this country, consisting of twenty-five steers from three to five years old, among which are eight pair broke oxen, and fit for immediate use, their size and power are calculated for the heaviest labour; twenty-five cows, all young and are in calf by a full bred bull; the excellence of this valuable stock cannot be excelled at the pail; fifty young cattle, among which are several bulls of one year old, and the remainder in heifers, highly formed, which are calculated for the perpetuation of this truly admired stock. Also, a high bred bull, now rising seven years old. It is unnecessary to comment on the value of this kind of property, the best recommendation that can be given tells very short of a true description, I must therefore refer those inclined to purchase to an examination, which emboldens me to say they cannot be equalled.
