Also sundry tracts of land, lying in Baltimore county, which will be more particularly described before that day. For any part, or the whole of the above-mentioned property, 6 per cent. 3 per cent. or deferred stock of the United States, stock in either of the banks in Maryland, Morris and Nicholson's paper, or bonds with approved security, with interest at one, two, and three years; will be received. Any person desirous of treating for those lands, will make application to the subscriber, living at Annapolis; where a more full description can be given, and good titles made, on payment being made, or satisfactorily secured to be paid. SAMUEL GODMAN. Annapolis, November 22, 1796.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Sunday the 20th November, a negro woman named NAN, about five feet two or three inches high, about thirty years of age, her wool very long before, round faced, large full eyes, very black; she carried with her a stamp'd cotton gown, a brown petticoat of Joan's spinning, a pair of high heeled shoes, and an old wool hat; she had with her also another suit which I do not recollect; she was purchased from the Eastern Shore, and probably may make that way. The above reward will be paid, if she is lodged in any goal in this State, so that the owner may get her again, and reasonable charges if brought home. HUGH DRUMMOND.

All persons are hereby warned from taking off said negro woman at their peril.

THE subscriber hath received, by the last arrivals from Europe, his full assortment of FALL and WINTER GOODS, among which are seins of 40, 45, and 50 fathoms, also sea twine, all of which he offers for sale on the best terms for cash, or the usual credit to punctual customers, and he earnestly requests all those indebted to him by bond, note, or open account, to come and discharge the same, as longer indulgence cannot be given to those who have been long in arrears, and neglected this notice. JAMES MACCUBBIN. October 18, 1796.

TREASURY of the UNITED STATES:

NOTICE is hereby given to all Persons who are or may be creditors of the United States, for any sum of the funded Debt, or Stock, bearing a preferred interest at six per centum per annum.

That pursuant to an Act of Congress passed on the 28th day of April, 1796, entitled, an Act in addition to an Act, entitled, "An act making further provision for the support of public credit, and for the redemption of the Public Debt," the said Debt of Stock will be reimbursed and paid in manner following; to wit: "First, by dividends to be made on the last days of March, June and September, for the present year, and from the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen inclusive; at the rate of one and one half per centum upon the original capital. Secondly, by dividends to be made on the last day of December for the present year, and from the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen inclusive; at the rate of six and one half per centum upon the original capital; and by a dividend to be made on the last day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, of such sum, as will be then adequately accruing to the contract, for the final redemption of the said Stock."

All distinction between payments on account of Interest and Principal being thus abolished by the establishment of the permanent rate of reimbursement above described; it has become necessary to vary accordingly the powers of attorney for receiving dividends; the public creditors will therefore observe that the following form is established for attestation of attorney which may be granted after the due promulgation of this notice, viz.
