THE subscriber hereby respectfully informs his friends, and the public in general, that he has again commenced business in the house where he formerly kept Rore, below the Stadt-house, in the city of Annapolis, where he has on hand a small but general assortment of GOODS, suitable to the present and approaching seasons; among which he has a very handsome assortment of fashionable superfine Spanish broad cloths, caimors, printed caimor and swandown jacket patterns, coatings, superfine ladies coating for cloaks, coarse cloths of various kinds and prices, chintzes, calicoes, shawls, coarse and fine linens, table cloths, modes and fatts, pelong for cloaks and bonnets; fancy cords and thicklets, flannels, blankets of different kinds and prices, bed bunts and ticking of the first quality, &c. He has also on hand, in the grocery line, soulong, padu soulong, and hyon teas of the first quality, mustard, pepper, allspice, brown sugar, spirit and Cognac brandy of the first quality, &c. all which he will sell at the most reasonable advance for cash or country produce. It is with pleasure that he embraces the present opportunity of returning his sincere thanks to his friends and former customers for their former favours, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their custom. He also embraces the present opportunity of assuring the public, that he has met with sundry heavy and grievous losses through insolvencies and other misfortunes, and therefore solicitously hopes for their generous patronage, and the more so, as they may have the pleasing satisfaction of contributing to the aid of misfortune without the least diminution of their purse, excepting purchasing such articles as they need, and must necessarily purchase some where, for the subscriber is satisfied he can furnish them with such articles as he has on so good terms as they can purchase them elsewhere, and he intends adding to his assortment in proportion to the encouragement given him by his friends and a generous public. In the mean-time he begs leave to subscribe himself their
Obliged humble servant,
ROBERT DUVALL.

Mrs. DUVALL also respectfully informs her friends and the public, that in future she intends making gowns, habits, bonnets, cloaks, &c. and will be thankful to those who shall please to favour her with their custom.

WILLIAM DEAKINS, junior, and Jane his wife, and John Threikeld and Elizabeth his wife, vs. Charles Beatty and George Frazer Hawkins, their heirs and devisees of George Frazer Hawkins, deceased.
THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the recording of a deed made by the said Charles Beatty and George Frazer Hawkins, deceased, to Nicholas Greenbury Ridgely, deceased, dated the 15th day of March, 1771, for lots No. 42 and 218, in the addition to George-town, called Hawkins and Beatty's Addition to George-town; the bill states, that Jane, wife of William Deakins, junior, and Elizabeth, the wife of John Threikeld, the complainants, are the devisees of the said Nicholas Greenbury Ridgely, and George Frazer Hawkins is the heir and devisee of George Frazer Hawkins, and that the said George Frazer Hawkins lives out of the State of Maryland; it is thereupon, on motion of the complainants, ordered and adjudged, that the complainants cause a copy of this order to be inserted, at least three weeks successively, in the Maryland Gazette before the 23d day of December next, to the intent that the said George Frazer Hawkins may have notice of the complainants application to this court, and may be warned to appear here, on or before the first Tuesday in March next, to shew cause, if any he hath, why a decree should not pass as prayed by the bill.
