

Fifty Dollars Reward,

TO any person apprehending and delivering at this place negro ISAAC, who left here yesterday morning, and is endeavouring to cross the Bay, you will be in the Delaware Bay, or Philadelphia, though a very timid fellow. It will be difficult to apprehend him, as he runs remarkably fast; he is black, and stoops a little, thin, and active, rather spare, but well proportioned, uncommonly slim, with his face and call of the leg, and a small space betwixt his two upper fore teeth, easily discovered when he laughs; generally wrinkles his forehead, and manifests confusion when charged with any kind of offence; he formerly belonged to a widow VICKERS, of Tuckahoe hundred, in Talbot county, where it is probable he will make some stay, as his relations are there, and in that neighbourhood; he is a noted runaway, and horse rider; I have had him about three years, and he has not been corrected for his misconduct since he belonged to me, having always been spared by his fair promises and amendment for some time after; but lately he has been much in the habit of stealing from his fellow servants, and twice in a short time has he broke my store-room, and apprehending that he could be spared no longer, he made his escape. The above reward, and a dollar per mile for all above fifty that he shall be taken from this place, will be paid by me, at Magothy, in Anne-Arundel county, near Annapolis.

JOHN GIBSON.

July 26, 1797.

Annapolis, in Council, July 18, 1797.

WHEREAS several applications have been made to the governor and council for the delivery of final settlement certificates due to soldiers who served in the late war, under power of attorney appearing to have been executed by such soldiers, and by virtue of letters of administration granted on the estates of soldiers alleged to be dead; and whereas it appears necessary for the purposes of justice, and in conformity to the resolutions of the legislature respecting certificates, that proof should be adduced that the person applying in person or by attorney is in reality the person entitled to the certificates, or (in the case of an administrator) that he is next of kin, or a real, not a pretended creditor of the deceased person:

It is therefore ordered, that no certificate shall be delivered to persons applying under either of the above descriptions, unless satisfactory evidence is produced as to the requisites above stated.

By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council of the State of Maryland.

DR. FENDALL

HAVING arrived in Annapolis, on his way to Baltimore, takes the liberty to intimate to the citizens, that he means to exercise his skill, in the line of his profession, for a week or two here, and may be spoke with at Mr. Wharfe's.

The doctor's knowledge of the natural history of the human teeth, their adjacent parts, and the disorders to which they are incident, acquired by assiduous attention and unintermitted study, and the experience of an extensive course and successful series of practice, for upwards of twenty-two years, will, he hopes, entitle him to the confidence of any, and all of those who wish to employ him. He fondly flatters himself he has it happily in his power to appeal, without fear, to such as have been his patients, in the states of Maryland, Virginia, &c. for that degree of reputation his conduct, as a dentist, may have merited, and given him just claim to. The doctor hopes, at least, he is considered as entitled to the highest grade amongst those of his profession in this country.

The doctor begs leave to offer to the public his Columbian antiseptic dentifrice, infinitely superior, he thinks, both in elegance and efficacy, to any thing hitherto used for the teeth and gums; it renders the breath sweet and agreeable, and is a powerful antiseptic, free from any corrosive preparation whatever. This invaluable preparation, which he avers to be truly efficacious, not only for remedying the disorders of the teeth and gums, but likewise, if possible, for preventing them, no family (and especially where there are children) should be without, is still sold, and only by the doctor at this time, for the moderate price of 7/6 a pot, with directions, and to prevent counterfeits and fraud, each pot is covered with a paper, on which is a circular flowery margin, and around the same is written (on the inside) "Dr. Fendall's Columbian Dentifrice," with the doctor's seal, B. F. impressed on wax, in the middle of the circle.

Annapolis, July 13, 1797.
