

upon which the decision was founded, be transmitted to the secretary of the treasury, who is empowered to over-rule the said decision, and direct the restitution, in whole or in part, of the duties collected in consequence of it; and if the person conceives himself aggrieved by the determination of the secretary of the treasury, he may within four months institute a suit in the district court, against the supervisor, in the maintaining of which he is, however, confined to the assignment and proof of such facts as shall have been set forth in his original statement.

LICENCE DUTIES.

The persons subject to duty as retailers under the laws of the United States, are those who deal in the selling of wines to be carried or sent out of their houses, buildings, &c. in a smaller quantity at any one time than thirty gallons, except in the original cask or package in which it was imported, and those who, in like manner, sell foreign spirits in a smaller quantity than 20 gallons. The duties payable by these persons, are five dollars yearly, for a licence for the sale of wines, and the like sum for a distinct and separate licence to sell spirituous liquors; and every person who retails wine or foreign spirits without such licence, unexpired and in force, incurs in each and either case a penalty of fifty dollars. A licence authorises the sale of liquors but at one place.

The month of September was also originally assigned for the receipt of those duties, and is, of course, the proper period for those whose licences expire in that month to procure new ones; but as this tax is, differently from that on carriages, always paid entire, and for a whole year, persons who commence the business of retailing at any time whatever must obtain licence before they begin to sell.

It remains to observe that these laws having been long since duly promulgated, and extraordinary steps taken repeatedly to excite attention to them, all penalties incurred under them will positively be exacted.

JOHN KILTY, Supervisor of the revenue, for the district of Maryland.

April 6, 1797.

For SALE,

On the second day of November next,

THAT valuable FARM on Kent Island, lately occupied by Dr. JONATHAN ROBERTS: It is situated immediately opposite to the city of Annapolis, is healthy, and commands a very extensive view of the Chesapeake. It contains about three hundred acres of land, and is in very high cultivation. The soil is well adapted to the production of wheat, corn and tobacco. The improvements consist of a good frame dwelling house, a large commodious brick quarter, two valuable tobacco houses, a very convenient cow house, two stables, a granary, carriage house, and every other necessary building that the accommodation of a family could possibly require. There is a very choice collection of every kind of fruit. The apple orchards have not yet reached maturity and now yield about thirty hogheads of cider, and several hundred bushels of excellent winter apples. The former proprietor of this place being a man of considerable industry and taste, has taken uncommon pains to procure not only valuable fruit, but every other tree that are calculated to beautify and adorn a farm. There are several acres covered with locust and black walnut trees, planted by him, and now in perfection. The houses are all in excellent repair, and the fences in good order. There will be seeded for the benefit of the purchaser from sixty to seventy bushels of wheat. The terms of sale will be, one fifth of the purchase money paid on the delivery of the place, which will be on the first of January, 1798, and the residue in four annual payments. Bonds, with approved security, will be exacted from the purchaser, and an indisputable title will be given him by the DEVEISEES under Dr. ROBERTS'S will.

On the same day will be offered for sale,

A very valuable stock belonging to the above farm. The stock consist of several good plough horses, two pair of oxen, a large herd of cattle, an extensive flock of sheep, and a number of hogs. Also will be sold, a variety of household furniture, and all the farming and planting utensils that were used in cultivating the above place. Cash will be expected for all purchases under ten pounds, and above that sum bonds with good security in all cases will be required, payable in six months from the day of sale. The property will be disposed of by the EXECUTORS under Dr. ROBERTS'S will.

August 16, 1797.

Ridgely and Evans,

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends, and the public in general, that they have an extensive assortment of DRY GOODS, selected in the most careful manner; also GROCERIES of various kinds, all which they offer for sale, at their store, on the most reasonable terms for cash, or on a short credit, to their punctual customers. They return their sincere thanks to the public in general, and particularly to their constant customers, for past favours, and hope by their strict attention to merit a continuance of them.

All those who are indebted to them by bond or note of considerable time standing, are requested to call and settle the same, and those who are in arrears on open account of more than twelve months standing, are hereby required to close them by paying up the same, or giving bond or note, with approved security, if required. Those who do not comply with this request may expect that suits will commence against them to the next county court.

Annapolis, June 20, 1797.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Calvert county, near the Ferris Landing, on Patuxent river, a negro man named BEN WATT, he is a likely well made negro, about forty-seven years of age, about five feet five or six inches high; had on when he went away, a pair of excellent white negro cotton trousers, a round blue jacket, and a straw hat, but as he is an artful designing fellow, and took a variety of other cloaths with him, it is probable he will change his dress; it is also supposed he will attempt to make his escape by getting on board of some vessel, as he has been accustomed to that mode of life. Whoever apprehends said negro, and secures him in any goal, so that I get him again, shall receive TWELVE DOLLARS REWARD, or TWENTY DOLLARS, if brought home.

DAVID GARCAUD.

P. S. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned harbouring said negro at their peril. Calvert county, September 5, 1797.

Caution,

IS hereby given to all those who may be interested, not to take any assignment of any account or accounts whatever that a certain JAMES BROWN, merchant, in Charles county, has, or any account or accounts he may have against me, as all and every of them have been long ago settled, which the subscriber will at any time be ready to shew.

JOHN MADDOX.

Piscowayen Charles county, August 20, 1797.

HERE is at the subscriber's plantation, on the Head of South river, a red COW, marked with a crop, upper and under bit in the left ear, and a swallow fork in the right ear. The owner may have her again by proving property and paying charges.
