WE, the subscribers, having suffered much injury from persons of different classes crossing over our fields on Patuxent with the pretence of hunting, there are therefore to forewarn all persons from hunting within our said enclosures, with either dog or gun; any person or persons hunting therein after this notice shall be dealt with as the law directs in such cases.

TAKE notice, that I also forewarn all persons hunting within my enclosures on the Head of Severn, and will give a reward of one guinea to any person that will inform me, and establish the fact, on any person or persons that may hunt therein without my permission, after the above notice.

Jewels Lost.

WHEN I left Broad Creek ferry on my way to Annapolis, about four weeks ago, I had in my sulkey box a bundle of trinkets, consisting of a gold locket, a stock-buckle of silver, set with Brister stone, a gold ring with a large oval stone set in white hair, and the letters AF worked therein, with the same, a mourning ring, much worn, with the device Anne Pitt, scarcely perceivable on the surface, two other rings, one plain and the other with a small red stone, a brooch, broken in two, set with garnet, a pair of best plated spurs, leathered, and some other articles not precisely recollected. I have the strongest presumption that those articles were robbed out of my chaise box at Mr. James Wharfe's tavern, after being delivered into the hands of his bar-keeper, from the circumstance of my having them when I left Kent Island ferry house, and no other opportunity afforded after that time for the perpetration of such a piece of villainy. Some of those articles being so remarkable the detection cannot be difficult. It is requested that all silver-smiths and jewellers will be particular in examining trinkets that may be offered them for sale; and any person finding and delivering those trinkets, &c. to Mr. John Beard, or the printers hereof, or securing them so that I get them again, shall receive TEN DOLLARS REWARD for their trouble.

Beard's Habitation, October 31, 1797.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from my plantation, on the north side of Severn river, on the 15th instant, a very dark mulatto or rather black man named GEORGE, who sometimes calls himself GEORGE ROGERS; he is about 5 feet 8 inches high, slim made, a little bandy legged, large mouth and red lips, shews his teeth when he speaks, and generally has a smiling countenance; he has a variety of cloathing, particularly a blue broad cloth coat with yellow metal buttons, striped jacket, and nankeen breeches. I will pay the above reward (which is to include all charges) to any person who will deliver the said George to me. I forbid all persons from harbouring or employing him, and all masters of vessels from carrying him away.

A Bargain Offered.

I will SELL, on moderate terms,

THAT valuable FARM on Kent Island, lately occupied by Dr. JONATHAN ROBERTS. It is situated immediately opposite to the city of Annapolis, is healthy and commands a very extensive view of the Chesapeake. It contains about three hundred acres of land, and is in very high cultivation. The soil is well adapted to the production of wheat, corn and tobacco. The improvements consist of a good frame dwelling house, a large commodious brick quarter, two valuable tobacco houses, a very convenient cow house, two stables, a granary, carriage house, and every other necessary building that the accommodation of a family could possibly require. There is a very choice collection of every kind of fruit. The apple orchards have not yet reached maturity and now yield about thirty hogheads of cider, and several hundred bushels of excellent winter apples. The former proprietor of this place being a man of considerable industry and taste has taken uncommon pains to procure not only valuable fruit, but every other tree that are calculated to beautify and adorn a farm. There are several acres covered with locust and black walnut trees, planted by him, and now in perfection. The houses are all in excellent repair, and the fences in good order. There is seeded for the benefit of the purchaser between seventy and eighty bushels of wheat. A small part of the purchase money must be paid on the delivery of the place, which will be on the first day of January next, and an extensive credit will be given for the residue. Bonds, with approved security, will be exacted from the purchaser; and an indisputable title will be given him by

JONATHAN R. WILMER.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne Arundel county, on Saturday the 15th of April last, a negro fellow named ANTHONY, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, inclining to be spare, thirty-six or thirty-seven years of age, but a young and rather pleasant countenance; he is somewhat of a yellowish complexion, with small glassy eyes, has lost one of his upper fore teeth, and is remarkably short bodied and long thighed; he has a wife at Stephen Steward's, on the Head of South river, and; as I am well informed, frequents said Stephen Steward's, and Charles Steward's, near London-town, and from there to Henry Clark's near Snowden's forge, he was likewise seen in Annapolis about three weeks ago; he more than probable may have a kind of pass; had on and took with him a dark kersey or plains coat, jacket and breeches, a very long blue broad cloth coat, black satin jacket, and a pair of white trousers, but probably may have changed his cloaths, as he has been hiring himself and got money. Any person taking said negro, and delivering him to the owner, or securing him in any gaol, so that the owner gets him again, shall, if taken twenty miles from home, be entitled to TWENTY DOLLARS, and if a further distance the above reward, with reasonable charges.

w 3 DINAH DORSEY.

All masters of vessels and others are forewarned from harbouring or carrying off said negro at their peril.

A VERY neat and perfectly good PHAETON, with harness for a pair of horses. Inquire of the Printer.

October 25, 1797.

Eighty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber's farm, about seven miles from Annapolis, on Wednesday, the 5th instant, two slaves, WILL and TOM; they are brothers. WILL, a freight, tall, well made fellow, upwards of six feet high, he is generally called black, but has rather a yellowish complexion, by trade a carpenter and cooper, and in general capable of the use of tools in almost any work; saws well at the whip saw, about thirty years of age, when he speaks quick he stammers a little in his speech. TOM, a stout well made fellow, a bright mulatto, twenty-four years of age; and about five feet nine or ten inches high; he is a complete hand at plantation work, and can handle tools pretty well. Their dress at home, upper jackets lined with flannel, and overallis of a drab colour, but they have a variety of other cloathing, and it is supposed they will not appear abroad in what they wear at home. Will writes pretty well, and if he and his brother are not furnished with passes from others, they will not be at a loss for them, but upon proper examination may be discovered to be forged. These people, it is imagined, are gone for Baltimore-town, as Tom has a wife living there, with Mr. Thomas Edwards. For taking up and securing the two fellows in the gaol of Baltimore-town, or any other gaol, so that I get them again, a reward of eighty dollars, and for either forty dollars.

THOMAS HARWOOD.

Annapolis, April 10, 1797.

Fifty Dollars Reward,

TO any person apprehending and delivering at this place negro ISAAC, who left here yesterday morning, and is endeavouring to cross the Bay, his rout will be to the Delaware state, or Philadelphia; though a very timid fellow it will be difficult to apprehend him, as he runs remarkably fast; he is very black, and stoops a little, brisk and active, rather spare, but well proportioned, uncommonly slim betwixt his knee and calf of the leg, and a small space betwixt his two upper fore teeth, easily discovered when he laughs; generally wrinkles his forehead and manifests confusion when charged with any kind of offence; he formerly belonged to a widow VICKERS, of Tuckahoe hundred, in Talbot county, where it is probable he will make some stay, as his relations are there; and in that neighbourhood; he is a noted rogue, runaway, and horse rider; I have had him about three years, and he has not been corrected for his misconduct since he belonged to me, having always been spared by his fair promises and amendment for some time after; but lately he has been much in the habit of stealing from his fellow servants, and twice in a short time has he broke my store-room, and apprehending that he could be spared no longer, has made his escape. The above reward, and a dollar per mile for all above fifty that he shall be taken from this place, will be paid by me, at Magothy, in Anne Arundel county, near Annapolis.

JOHN GIBSON.

July 26, 1797.

NOTICE is hereby given that I intend to petition the next general assembly of Maryland for an act of insolvency, to acquit me of debts which I am unable to pay.
