

By virtue of a decree of the court of Chancery the subscriber will SELL, at PUBLIC AUCTION, on Tuesday the 20th day of January, 1798, at 12 o'clock A. M. on the premises.

A TRACT of LAND, called CHARLES, lying in Prince George's county, the property of Mr. Horatio B. B. this tract contains by estimation eight hundred acres, but will probably on a survey be found to contain more. A plot of the land will be prepared, and it will, if necessary, be divided into two or more tenements. This land is situated in the forest of Prince George's county, near the Brick Church; it is distant about seven miles from Queen Anne, five from Upper Marlboro, and eleven from the city of Washington; it lies nearly in a square, is extremely level, and the soil is of the first quality, well adapted for the cultivation of tobacco, Indian corn, and small grain; there is a considerable quantity of meadow ground, and a sufficiency of timber; the improvements are valuable, consisting of a comfortable dwelling-house, with out-houses, and several tobacco-houses, and other buildings, suitable for a plantation, and there are on one extremity of the land a smaller dwelling, with out houses. A more particular description is not deemed necessary, as those who are inclined to purchase this valuable estate, or any part of it, will have an opportunity of viewing it before the sale. The terms of sale are as follow: The purchaser or purchasers of the whole or any part of the land shall pay down the purchase money at the time of the sale, or immediately after the ratification thereof by the chancellor; and on the ratification of the sale by the chancellor, and on the payment of the purchase money, the right, title, interest and estate of the said Humphrey B. and of the mortgagees, will be conveyed as directed by this decree.

WILLIAM KILTY, Trustee.

St. John's College,

December 11, 1797.

WHEREAS it appears to the trustees of the said college that there are considerable arrears on the books of the college, great part of which hath been long due from students who have quitted the same, this is therefore to inform the parent or guardian of such student from whom any arrear is due, that they are earnestly requested to make payment of their tuition accounts without delay, and unless the said request is complied with before the 10th day of February, the board will consider themselves under the disagreeable necessity of enforcing such payment.

By order of the board,
RICHARD OWEN, Collector.

ISIDORE HARDY, P. M.
October 1, 1797.

By virtue of an order from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, will be SOLD, at PUBLIC SALE, on Monday the 8th day of January next, if fair, if not the first fair day, at the subscriber's, about thirteen miles from Annapolis, and two from Rawlings Tavern.

About twenty valuable

N E G R O E S, consisting of men, women, and children; among the men there is a good rough carpenter, who is an excellent cooper, also a remarkable good cartman, and others who understand plantation business. They are sober, good negroes, and are sold for no other reason than the want of masters, and having more of them, they are profitable. The terms will be CASH only.

At the same time and place will be sold a fat flock all kinds.

JOHANNA PLUMMER.
Anne Arundel county, November 13, 1797.

COMMITTED to my custody, as a runaway, on November 13, 1797, a girl, who says her name is MARY POWER, of 18 or 19 years of age, stature, and chunky built, of light complexion, and short bushy hair, but commonly wears a braid; her cloathing is a striped cotton gown, 20d purple petticoat, cotton stockings, and stuff shoes, with gold lace bobs, gold ring, and fandry other things of that kind; she says she came from Baltimore, in the big Polly, a capital Delford, and was sold to Mr. Reister Seabrook, of Maryland, in the town of Bed St. James, who sold her to Mrs. Alder Smith. Her master is desired to come and take her away in two months from the above date, or the subscriber to pay him fees and other expences, according to law.

RICHARD HARWOOD, Sheriff
of Anne Arundel county.

November 13, 1797.

For SALE,

A FEW families of NEGROES, consisting of two women, and four children, all boys, two fit for service, one ditto, four ditto, one girl, three boys, two fit for service, one ditto, two ditto, both boys; one man, his wife and child, as likely negroes as any in America, they have all had the small-pox except a few small ones.

GEORGE SMITH.
Calvert county, Lyon's creek, Dec. 2, 1797.

THE subscriber hereby forewarns all persons from hunting with either dog or gun on his land, lying in Anne Arundel county, on Deep Creek, formerly the property of Stephen Steward, deceased.

JOHN GWINN.
Annapolis, October 22, 1797.

TAKEN up as strays by WILLIAM BRIAN, living on the Head of South river, near Jacob Water's mill, a pied COW, with a crop and under-bit in each ear, and a slit in the right ear, her left horn hangs over her eye, — and a black bull YEARLING, without mark. The owner or owners may have them again by proving property, paying charges, and applying at RICHARD RAWLINGS'S.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of JOHN ALLEN THOMAS, late of St. Mary's county, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment; and those having claims against said estate are requested to bring them in, legally authenticated, to Mr. John Welsh, at Leonardtown, or to the subscriber, at Annapolis. JAMES THOMAS, Executor.

April 6, 1797.

Fifty Dollars Reward,

TO any person apprehending and delivering at this place negroe ISAAC, who left here yesterday morning, and is endeavouring to cross the Bay, his rout will be to the Delaware state, or Philadelphia; though a very timid fellow it will be difficult to apprehend him, as he runs remarkably fast; he is very black, and stoops a little, brisk and active, rather spare, but well proportioned, uncommonly slim betwixt his knee and calf of the leg, and a small space betwixt his two upper front teeth, easily discovered when he laughs; generally wrinkles his forehead and manifests confusion when charged with any kind of offence; he formerly belonged to a widow VICKERS, of Tuckahoe hundred, in Talbot county, where it is probable he will make some stay, as his relations are there, and in that neighbourhood; he is a noted rogue, runaway, and horse rider; I have had him about three years, and he has not been corrected for his misconduct since he belonged to me, having always been spared by his fair promises and amendment for some time after; but lately he has been much in the habit of stealing from his fellow servants, and twice in a short time has he broke my store-room, and apprehending that he could be spared no longer, has made his escape. The above reward, and a dollar per mile for all above fifty that he shall be taken from this place, will be paid by me, at Magothy, in Anne Arundel county, near Annapolis.

JOHN GIBSON.

July 26, 1797.

COMMITTED to my custody, as runaways, two lads, one committed on the 21st of September, by the name of STEPHEN REDDIN, who says he was born free, and in Worcester county, he is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, and of a light yellow colour; his cloathing is a blue cloth short upper jacket, under jacket and trousers of the same, and has other cloathing with him, and has a scar on his knee, occasioned by a burn. The other by the name of BEN, committed on the 2d of October, a negro lad about 18 or 19 years of age, did formerly belong to parson MOSCAOR, over South river, but says he was sold to a Mr. JOHN MARTIN, tailor, in Baltimore town, he is about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high; his cloathing is a nankeen coat, crimson shirt and trousers. Their masters are desired to take them away in two months from their several dates, or they will be told for their prison fees and other expences, agreeably to law.

RICHARD HARWOOD, Sheriff
of Anne Arundel county.

October 2, 1797.

RAN AWAY,
Two young Negro Men,
ONE named SCOGIN, aged 20 or 22 years, about 5 feet 6 inches in height, rather bushy, his complexion very black, his face full and round, his eyes very large; he is apt to laugh when spoken to, and shews large teeth, generally uses his left hand, and wote away a full suit of light black cloaths, the coat long and full; he went away the 10th day of last September.

The other named MARSHAM, a carpenter and lawyer, about the same age and height with Scogin, but thin and of a lighter complexion; his cloathing is unknown, he went away about the 10th day of last September. Whoever brings the said negroes to the subscriber, at West river, in Anne Arundel county, or lodges them in jail, so that he may get them, shall receive for each, if apprehended within twenty miles TEN DOLLARS, if further from home TWENTY DOLLARS, and reasonable travelling expences.

RICHARD SPRIGG.
N. B. If the above negroes return directly to their own accord they shall be forgivn.

West river, October 23, 1797.

To be SOLD, agreeably to the last will and testament of captain ROBERT SANDERS, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, on Friday the 22d day of December next, for CASH,

THE late dwelling PLANTATION of the said deceased, containing about two hundred and twenty acres of land. Also will be sold, on the same day, all the personal property of said deceased, consisting of one negro woman and child, household and kitchen furniture, horses, hogs, cattle and sheep, plantation utensils, a quantity of Indian corn, rye, wheat, oats, corn fodder, straw, &c. &c. &c.

DAVID STEUART, Executor.

The sale to commence precisely at 10 o'clock.

N. B. All persons indebted to the above estate are once more desired to make payment, and those having claims to bring them in.

November 29, 1797.
