

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, living near Stafford county, Virginia, in the county of Stafford, about the middle of May last, a negro fellow named JACK, about five feet eight or nine inches high, nineteen years old, thick made and well set, brown in the shoulders, and his complexion black, has a remarkable scar on the top of one of his feet, but I forget whether right or left he carried with him the following cloths, a greenish coloured great coat of elastic cloth, with high cuffs and cape, a white calico vest and breeches, a brown cloth vest, and a calico vest, but these he may change for other cloths; this negro later belonged to the estate of Mr. THOMAS STONE, in Charles county, Maryland, and may pass himself for one of the Thomas family of negroes belonging to the said estate, who make pretension to their freedom, but the fallacy of the attempt may be easily detected, as he is quite black, whereas the Thomas family are all of the mulatto color; he can also read a little. I suspect he is lurking about Baltimore or Annapolis; his mother is in the former city, who is also a runaway, and named RACHEL. I will give the above reward of fifty dollars to any person who will deliver him to me at my place of residence, or FORTY DOLLARS for securing him in any goal, so that I get him again.

TRAVERS DANIEL, jun.
 Stafford county, Virginia, October 24, 1797.

Six Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, about five miles above Montgomery county court-house, in the state of Maryland, on the 16th day of December, a negro girl named JENNEY, about 17 or 18 years old, about 5 feet, 6 or 7 inches high, of a yellow complexion, with a scar on the back of her neck about an inch long, she combs her hair and ties it in several places on her head, tolerable likely; she had on when she went away, one tow linen shift, one old green petticoat and jacket of kersey, one country tow linen petticoat, one country striped linsley jacket, one pair of coarse white yarn stockings, one of the stockings feet about one half of gray yarn; one felt hat about half worn, and one pair of coarse shoes; no doubt but she will change her name and cloths, and endeavour to pass as free, as she ran away last June and got into Calvert county, where she formerly lived with Mr. James Stone, of Lower Marlborough. From the best information I can get she went towards Snowden's iron-works. I will give the above reward to any person who will take her up, and secure her in any goal, so that I get her again, and reasonable charges if brought home, paid by JOHN RAWLINGS.
