

In COUNCIL, Annapolis, April 9, 1798.

County Clerks take notice,

AGREABLY to an act, entitled, An act to secure the collection of the duties imposed on marriage licenses, passed at the last session of assembly, blank marriage licenses are deposited with the treasurers of the western and eastern shores, to be distributed amongst the county clerks throughout the state, who, on or before the first day of May next, must apply for the same, under the penalty of one hundred dollars.

By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Governor and Council.

To be SOLD, on credit,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, situated on the Chesapeake Bay, on the north side of Severn river, containing between three and four hundred acres; this land lies within about eighteen miles from the city of Baltimore, and five from the city of Annapolis, it abounds with timber of every kind, a large proportion of which is calculated for ships; the soil is fertile and level, and well adapted for grazing and farming, having a quantity of salt marsh; it abounds with fish, oysters, and wild fowl, in their proper seasons. This tract of land is situated on the Chesapeake Bay, and a navigable creek on the other side, from its situation it can be enclosed with one hundred and fifty pannels of fence; the improvements are, a dwelling-house and two apple orchards. From the advantageous situation of this property it must be an object to persons inclinable to purchase. For terms of sale apply to LEMUEL WARFIELD, Baltimore, or to the subscriber on the Head of Severn, Anne Arundel county.

By order of LANCELOT WARFIELD.

April 7, 1798.

Annapolis, April 9, 1798.

NOTICE.

ALL persons having demands against the estates of THOMAS FOWLER, of John, NINIAN RIGGS, and JOSEPH WILLIAMS, blacksmith, all of Anne Arundel county, deceased, are once more, and for the last time, desired to bring them in to the subscribers by the 15th day of May next, that they may be paid, and those any way indebted are requested to make immediate payment, as no longer indulgence can possibly be given, as final accounts may be passed by the time above-mentioned.

THOMAS BICKNELL, Administrator of Ninian Riggs and Joseph Williams. VACHEL GAITHER, Administrators and de bonis non of THOMAS BICKNELL, Thos. Fowler. March 29, 1798.

BELSIZE,

A fine bay colt, rising five years old, fifteen hands high,

STANDS this season at Mr. SPRIGG'S farm on West river, and covers six dollars a mare, and 7/6 to the groom, provided the money is paid when the mare is first covered, or ten dollars and 7/6 to the groom if the money is not sent with the mare. Excellent pasturage at 3/9 per week, under a good fence, but will not be answerable for escapes or any other accidents.

BELSIZE was got by the high bred imported horse Paymaster, his dam by Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esq's. well known horse Badger, his grand dam by col. Lloyd's Traveller, his great grand dam by col. Taffer's imported horse Othello, his great great grand dam by the famous imported horse Old Spark, out of the high bred imported mare Queen Mab.

The mares and money will be received and attended to by the overseer on the farm.

Also covers on the said farm,

DON PEDRO,

A Jack-Ass, (got by Royal Gift) at five dollars—money sent with the mare, or ten dollars credit, and 3/9 to the groom.

West river, March 20, 1798.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne Arundel county, on the Head of South river, negro NELL; a bright mulatto slave, about thirty-eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high, with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work, she is a very good spinner, and, in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house; her cloaths are uncertain, as she took with her more than one suit; she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely, but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I get her again.

WILLIAM HALL, 3d.

February 8, 1798.

In CHANCERY, April 31, 1798.

ON application to the chancellor, by petition in writing, of WILLIAM CHEW, of Calvert county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned; and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said William Chew is, and at the time of passing the said act was, a citizen of the United States, and of this state; and the said William Chew, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act; it is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the said William Chew, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette during the present month, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery office, at one o'clock, on the tenth day of May next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said William Chew's then and there taking the oath prescribed for delivering up his property.

None of the above letter will be delivered without the money. April 1, 1798.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Cedar Point Neck, Charles county, on the third of December last, a likely negro man named BILL, 25 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, of a yellow complexion, he is quick spoken, and has a small scar on one side of his face; this fellow has contended for his freedom in the general court by the name of WILLIAM SHORTER, and was condemned; he likely may have a pass with him, as he is a very artful fellow; his cloathing I think it unnecessary to mention, as he is very fond of changing his dress, and given to gaming. Any person or persons that will apprehend the said fellow, or secure him in gaol so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home all reasonable charges paid, by

ALEXIUS TIAR.

JUST PUBLISHED, And to be sold at the Printing-Office, Price, Two Dollars.

The LAWS

OF MARYLAND, Passed November Session, 1797.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscribers, living in Frederick county, about four miles from Fredericktown, on the 31st of January last, two negroes, DANIEL, the property of PETER STILLEY, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; 25 years of age, very black, has a down look when spoken to, with a high or bow nose, and has but little to say; he formerly belonged to major WILLIAM BROGREN, in the neighbourhood of Annapolis; had on and took with him, two full lined coats, waistcoat and overalls of a light colour, and a long blue broad cloth coat. PRISS, alias PHILLIS, the property of JACOB SMITH, of John, about 27 years of age, very black, 5 feet high, well made, of a bold rough countenance, and fond of talking; had on when she went away a striped lincey dress, the colours brown, yellow and white, but took with her sundry other cloaths; she formerly belonged to a Mr. MITCHELL, of Charles county. Whoever will secure the above described negroes in any gaol, so that they are recovered again, shall be entitled to the above reward, or in proportion for either of them, with all reasonable expences, if brought home, paid by PETER STILLEY, and JACOB SMITH, of JOHN.

March 18, 1798.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, on the first day of June next, if fair, or the first fair day after, at the farm now in the occupation of ZACHARIAH BALDWIN,

Annapolis, March 4th, 1798.

UNDER the patronage of three gentlemen of the first eminence in the law having lately engaged in that laborious and necessary work, a revision of the laws of Maryland, I would be thankful to any gentleman for any extracts or notes he may have made, which may tend to facilitate this undertaking.

D. T. BLAKE.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of JOHN ALLEN THOMAS, late of St. Mary's county, deceased, are desired to make immediate payment, and those having claims against said estate are requested to bring them in, legally authenticated, to Mr. JOHN WELSH, at Leonard town, or to the subscriber, at Annapolis. JAMES THOMAS, Executor. April 6, 1797.

The celebrated running horse

WHISTLE JACKET,

WILL stand the ensuing season to cover mares, at Mount Air, (near Piscataway, in Maryland,) at sixteen dollars, and a dollar to the groom, the money to be sent with the mares, or before they are taken away. The season to commence the fifteenth of March and will end the fifteenth of July. Good pasturage for mares at half a dollar per week, and those that want their mares fed with grain will give orders, which will be complied with at a moderate price, and the greatest care taken of them, but will not be liable for accidents or escapes.

EDWARD EDBLEN.

March 5, 1798.

WHISTLE JACKET is elegantly formed, full sixteen hands high, strong bony and active, distinguished as a remarkable fine foal-getter; his sire, Diomed, supposed to be one of the best running horses in America, was a thorough bred son of col. Fenwick's imported Old Flimnap, which horse covered at twenty guinea a mare; Lucy Locker, the dam of Whistle Jacket, was got by Belle Air, (bred by the hon. col. Taylor's son of Moreton's Traveller, and Selima, her dam, Matchless, by Othello, her grand dam; Young Cate, by Childers, her great grand dam, Old Creeping Cate, by the Dancing Master, a noted son of the Devonshire Childers, her great great grand dam was the Spanish mare imported by col. Churchill. True copy. JOHN THORNTON. Berry Plain, February 8, 1797.
