

In CHANCERY, April 14, 1798.

John Hobbs,

vs. William C. Hobbs, Upton, Rhysa, Basil, Mary, Harriet, and Eliza, John Hobbs, and Eliza, John Hobbs, administrator of Nicholas Hobbs, deceased.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain to the complainant a conveyance of a tract or parcel of land, lying in Frederick county, called RIBOELY'S GOOD WILT, containing 302 1/2 acres of land, more or less, which the complainant heretofore, on the 27th day of February, 1788, conveyed to Nicholas Hobbs to secure him from the payment of a certain debt in the bill mentioned; the bill states, that Brice Hobbs, one of the defendants, resides out of the state; it is thereupon, on motion of the complainant, ordered and adjudged, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted, once in each of three successive weeks, before the fourth day of May next, in the Maryland Gazette, to the intent that the said absent defendant may have notice of the present application, and may be warned to appear in this court on or before the 21st day of August next, to shew cause (if any he hath) why a decree should not pass as prayed.

Tell. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

In CHANCERY, April 12, 1798.

ON application to the chancellor, by petition in writing of WILLIAM KING, of Prince-George's county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said William King is, and at the time of passing the act was, a citizen of the United States, and of this state, and the said William King, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor the assent in writing of 10 many of his creditors as have due to them, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the said William King, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three times successively in the Maryland Gazette before the fourth day of May next, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery-office, at twelve o'clock, on the 22d day of May next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said William King's then and there taking the oath prescribed for delivering up his property.

FAYETTE

IS in high order, and will stand this season at NEWINGTON ROPE WALK, near the city of Annapolis, and cover at six dollars a mare, and 7/5 to the groom, provided the money is paid when the mare first takes the horse, or ten dollars, and 7/5 to the groom, if the money is not paid when the mare goes to the horse.

Good pasturage may be had at 3/9 per week, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.

FAYETTE is distinguished as a remarkable fine foal getter, his size and elegant figure is well known; his fire the elegant imported horse Venetian.

The money and mares will be received and attended to by JOSEPH TAYLOR. 5W April 16, 1798.

Sixty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 16th of February, 1797, a negro man name DERRY, country born, about five feet ten inches high, twenty-seven years of age, and of dark complexion. Having had easy access to a desk, he stole therefrom, perhaps, about 30 dollars. A little to the right, on the top of his head, he has a bald spot about the size of a dollar; to hide said spot, he commonly wears a handkerchief. This fellow was probably taken up last March, at Pittsylvania court-house, Virginia, and produced a pass, setting forth he was set free in Guilford county, wherein he was called by the name of JOHN BIAN, but made his escape with said pass. Whoever secures said fellow, if found out of the state, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and expences paid; and if found and secured, to the east of the Patowmack, the reward of one hundred dollars, by WILLIAM MEBANE. Hillsborough, N. Carolina, March 31, 1798.

In COUNCIL, Annapolis, April 9, 1798.

County Clerks take notice,

AGREEABLY to an act, entitled, An act to secure the collection of the duties imposed on marriage licences, passed at the last session of assembly, blank marriage licences are deposited with the treasurers of the western and eastern shores, to be distributed amongst the county clerks throughout the state, who, on or before the first day of May next, must apply for the same, under the penalty of one hundred dollars.

By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Governor and Council.

To be SOLD, on credit,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, situated on the Chesapeake Bay, on the north side of Severn river, containing between three and four hundred acres; this land lies within about eighteen miles from the city of Baltimore, and five from the city of Annapolis, it abounds with timber of every kind, a large proportion of which is calculated for ships; the soil is fertile and level, and well adapted for grazing and farming, having a quantity of salt marsh; it abounds with fish, oysters, and wild fowl, in their proper seasons. This tract of land is situated on the Chesapeake Bay, and a navigable creek on the other side, from its situation it can be enclosed with one hundred and fifty pannels of fence; the improvements are, a dwelling-house and two apple orchards. From the advantageous situation of this property it must be an object to persons inclinable to purchase. For terms of sale apply to LEMUEL WARFIELD, Baltimore, or to the subscriber on the Head of Severn, Anne Arundel county. p15 of LANCELOT WARFIELD. April 7, 1798

NOTICE.

ALL persons having demands against the estates of THOMAS FOWLER, of John, NINIAN RIGGS, and JOSEPH WILLIAMS, blacksmith, all of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are once more, and for the last time, desired to bring them in to the subscribers by the 15th day of May next, that they may be paid, and those any way indebted are requested to make immediate payment, as no longer indulgence can possibly be given, as final accounts may be passed by the time above-mentioned.

THOMAS BICKNELL, Administrator of Ninian Riggs and Joseph Williams.

BELSIZE,

A fine bay colt, rising five years old, fifteen hands high,

STANDS this season at Mr. Sparrow's farm on West river, and covers at six dollars a mare, and 7/5 to the groom, provided the money is paid when the mare is first covered, or ten dollars and 7/5 to the groom if the money is not sent with the mare. Excellent pasturage at 3/9 per week, under a good fence, but will not be answerable for escapes or any other accidents.

BELSIZE was got by the high bred imported horse Pymaster, his dam by Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esq's, well known horse Badger, his grand dam by col. Lloyd's Traveller, his great grand dam by col. Tasker's imported horse Othello, his great great grand dam by the famous imported horse Old Spark, out of the high bred imported mare Queen Mab.

The mares and money will be received and attended to by the overseer on the farm.

Also covers on the said farm,

DON PEDRO,

A Jack-Ass, (got by Royal Gift) at five dollars—money sent with the mare, or ten dollars credit, and 3/9 to the groom. West river, March 20, 1798.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, on the Head of South river, negro NELL, a bright mulatto slave, about thirty-eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high, with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work; she is a very good spinner, and, in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house; her cloaths are uncertain, as she took with her more than one suit; she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I get her again. WILLIAM HALL, 3d. February 8, 1798.

For SALE,

A FEW families of NEGROES, consisting of four families, the first, two women and four children, all boys, two fit for service; the second, one ditto, four ditto, two boys fit for service; the third, one woman and two children, both boys; the fourth, a young man, his wife and child; they have all had the small-pox except a few small ones. They are as likely negroes as any in America. The women that have got husbands may be purchased in the same neighbourhood. GEORGE SMITH. Calvert county, Lyon's creek, Dec. 2, 1797.

In CHANCERY, April 3, 1798.

ON application to the chancellor, by petition in writing, of WILLIAM CHEW, of Calvert county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said William Chew is, and at the time of passing the said act was, a citizen of the United States, and of this state, and the said William Chew, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor the assent in writing of 10 many of his creditors as have due to them, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act; it is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the said William Chew, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette during the present month, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery-office, at one o'clock, on the tenth day of May next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said William Chew's then and there taking the oath prescribed for delivering up his property.
