Manland, St. Mary's county, March 12, 1798.
CAME to my plantation near Chaptico, a small bay HORSE, ten or twelve years old, twelve and an half hands high, branded on the near buttock with a crooked mark something like the letter V, a white spot on his off hind foot, a natural pacer. The owner is requested to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.
ELIAS GATTEN.

CAME to my plantation in Charles county, near Port-Tobacco, some time in November last, a bundle COW and YEARLING, the cow hath a crop in her right ear, the yearling no perceivable mark.
 The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take her away.
HUGH MURRAY.

STOLEN from the subscriber, living about two miles from Mount Pleasant ferry, and the same distance from Mrs. Rawlings's tavern, on the 26th of December, 1797, an iron gray HORSE, about fourteen hands and an half high, he is shod all fours, has a split in one of his houghs, and a remarkable short head, his brand is unknown, he is a strong well made horse, blows very much when he gallops; by what information I have I am apt to believe he is about Patuxent ferry, or in that neighbourhood, or Elk-Ridge Landing. Any person that takes up the said horse, and brings him to me, shall receive SIX DOL-LARS, paid by THOMAS LANE, Mount Airy.

The celebrated running horse WHISTLE JACKET,

WILL stand the ensuing season to cover mares, at Mount Air, (near Piscataway, in Maryland,) at sixteen dollars, and a dollar to the groom, the money to be sent with the mares, or before they are taken away. The season to commence the fifteenth of March and will end the fifteenth of July. Good pasture for mares at half a dollar per week, and those that want their mares fed with grain will give orders, which will be complied with at a moderate price, and the greatest care taken of them, but will not be liable for accidents or escapes.
EDWARD EDELEN.

March 5, 1798.
WHISTLE JACKET is elegantly formed, full sixteen hands high, strong, bony and active, distinguished as a remarkable fine foal-getter; his sire, Diomed, supposed to be one of the best running horses in America, was a thorough bred son of col. Fenwick's imported Old Flimnap, which horse covered at twenty guineas a mare; Lucy Locket, the dam of Whistle Jacket, was got by Belle-Air, (bred by the hon. col.
 Taylor) a son of Moreton's Traveller, and Selima, her dam, Matchless, by Othello, her grand-dam, Young Cate, by Childers, her great-grand-dam, Old Creeping Cate, by the Dancing Master, a noted son of the Devonshire Childers, her great-great-grand-dam was the Spanish mare imported by col. Churchill.

 Arundel county, on the Head of South river, eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high, with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work, she is a very good spinner, and, in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house, her cloaths are uncertain, as she took with her more than one suit; she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I get her again.

 of land called REED'S FARM, lying in Prince-George's county, about one quarter of a mile distant a small parcel adjoining, and to be sold with it) will contain nearly 500 acres of land, eminent in quality, levelness, and all the advantages of good neighbourhood, such as genteel society, convenient town and mill, different places of public worship, navigation abounding with fish, oysters and wild fowl, nearness of situation to two capital distilleries, and having a celebrated spring of its own; it lies in an oblong, but is very little longer than broad; it is remarkably adapted to the culture of tobacco, Indian corn, and every kind of small grain; is capable of a considerable quantity of meadow ground, and has, with care, firewood enough. The buildings are only two large and excellent barns, but it affords an high, elegant, and almost central situation for habitable improvements, commanding an extensive and delightfully variegated view down the Patuxent. The terms of sale are as follow: a credit of four years, one fourth part of the purchase money to be paid in one year, with interest thereon, from the day of sale, the remainder in three years. The purchaser giving four separate bonds, one conditioned for the payment of the aforesaid one fourth part, with interest, and each of the rest for the pay-good security for them all. The interest on the whole remainder, or three bonds must be paid annually, and every term or condition of the sale punctually and faithfully complied with, or the whole credit to be absolutely forfeited, and every and each of the bonds to be liable immediately after the least failure or want

Sixty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 16th of February, 1797, a negro man name DERRY, country born, about five feet ten inches high, twenty-seven years of age, and of dark complexion. Having had easy access to a desk, he stole therefrom, perhaps, about 30 dollars. A little to the right, on the top of his head, he has a bald spot about the size of a dollar; to hide said spot, he commonly wears a handkerchief.
 This fellow was probably taken up last March, at Pittsylvania court-house, Virginia, and produced a pass, setting forth he was set free in Guilford county, wherein he was called by the name of JOHN BIRD, but made his escape with said pass. Whoever secures said fellow, if found out of the state, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and expences paid; and if found and secured, to the east of the Patowmack, the reward of one hundred dollars, by
