Annapolis, May, 1798.

In CHANCERY, May 10, 1798.

ON application to the chancellor, by petition in writing, of CHARLES SHANKS, of St. Mary's county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said Charles Shanks is, and the time of passing the said act was, a citizen of the United States, and of this state, and the said Charles Shanks, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the said Charles Shanks, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette before the tenth day of June next, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery-office, at eleven o'clock, on the 22d day of June next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said Charles Shanks then and there taking the oath prescribed for delivering up his property.

Test., SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

CAME to the subscriber's, living on the road that leads from Annapolis to Frederick-town, about twenty miles from Annapolis, on Monday the seventh day of this month, two Gray HORSES, one a dark sorrel, about nine years old, sixteen hands high, trots, paces, racks, and canters, has no perceivable brand, the off hind foot is white, he is shod all round. The other a white horse, fourteen hands high, fourteen years old, paces, trots, and canters, has some saddle marks on the ridge of his back, and no other perceivable mark or brand, shod all round. The owner or owners may have them again on proving property and paying charges.

F. M. De Lalandelle,

INFORMS his friends and the public, that he has purchased the stock in trade of WILLIAM ALEXANDER, in Annapolis, consisting of DRY and WET GOODS and GROCERIES, to which he has made considerable additions, and waited only for the spring arrivals to complete an extensive assortment, he hopes to give every satisfaction to all those who will honour him with their custom. He has also for sale,

A mulatto man, about 42 years old, who is an excellent hand at any plantation work, is a very good rough carpenter, undertands making tobacco hog-horns, may also do very well to tend a grist-mill for country custom. Also,

A negro lad, about 18, who can do any kind of plantation work, has been used to take care of horses. They are sold for no fault, but merely for want of employment.

Edward J. Pryfe,

Saddler and Harness-maker,
Church-street.

AFTER returning his sincere thanks for the generous patronage of his friends, and soliciting a continuance of their favours, begs leave to inform them and the public in general, that he still continues to carry on the above business in all its various branches, and that he is now supplied with the best materials for that purpose. He hath now in employ some of the best workmen on the continent, and promises that all those who honour him with their commands, may rely on having their work executed in the best and newest manner. Orders from the country will be thankfully received and duly attended to.

N. B. Two apprentices wanted to the above business.
Annapolis, May 10, 1798.

Reed's Farm for Sale.

The subscriber will SELL, at PUBLIC AUCTION, on the last Monday in May next, if fair, if not the first fair day, on the premises,

THAT beautiful, valuable, and well known tract of land called REED'S FARM, lying in Prince-George's county, about one quarter of a mile distant from the town of Nottingham. This farm (including a small parcel adjoining, and to be sold with it) will contain nearly 500 acres of land, eminent in quantity, levelness, and all the advantages of good regions, such as genteel society, convenient town and mill, different places of public worship, navigation abounding with fish, oysters and wild fowl, nearness of situation to two capital distilleries, and having a celebrated spring of its own; it is in an oblong, but is very little longer than broad; it is remarkably adapted to the culture of tobacco, Indian corn, and every kind of tinsl grain; is capable of a considerable quantity of meadow grounds, and has, with care, fire-wood enough. The buildings are only two large and excellent barns, but it affords an high, elegant, and almost central situation for habitable ten roomed, commanding an extensive and delightfully variegated view down the Patuxent. The terms of sale are as follow: a credit of four years, one-fourth part of the purchase money to be paid in one year, with interest thereon, from the day of sale, the remainder in three years. The purchaser giving four separate bonds, one conditioned for the payment of the aforesaid one fourth part, with interest, and each of the rest for the payment of one third of the remainder, on interest, with good security for them all. The interest on the whole remainder, or three bonds must be paid annually, and every term or condition of the sale punctually and faithfully complied with, or the whole credit to be absolutely forfeited, and every and each of the bonds to be liable immediately after the least failure or want of punctuality. This beautiful farm may be viewed by application either to major BOWIE or major COX, living near it. JOHN F. BOWIE.

Piscataway, April 10, 1798.

THE PARISH of ALL HALLOWS, in Anne-Arundel county, being now vacant the Vestry will receive applications from any episcopal minister between this and Whitunday next.
