ISIDORE HARDEY, P. M.

By virtue of a decree of the honourable the high court of chancery of Maryland, will be SOLD, at PUBLIC SALE, on Saturday the 3d of November next, if fair, if not the first fair day, on the premises,

A TRACT of LAND, called POVERTY DISCOVERED, late the property of JAMES BEACHWOOD, lying on the road leading from Baltimore to Frederick-town, twenty miles from the former. The terms of sale are, the purchaser or purchasers of the whole, or any part, shall, at his, her, or their election, either pay down the money to the trustee immediately after the sale, or bring the same into this court, or pay it to the trustee immediately after the sale, shall have been ratified by the chancery.
HENRY HOWARD, Trustee.
 September 22, 1798.

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Frederick-town, in Frederick county, a negro woman slave named CANDIS, supposed to be carried away by a negro man who goes by the name of WILLIAM STEWART, who has a pass with him certifying that he and his wife, by the name of Elizabeth, are free, but his said wife Elizabeth is left behind in Frederick county; the negro slave Candis is a pretty luffy full faced wench, about five feet five inches high; had on and took with her a coarse muslin gown of a yellowish colour, dyed with arronetta, also a green petticoat of Joan's spinning, a new coarse felt hat, jacket and petticoat of Bath coating, and other cloaths unknown to me, and it is supposed the will pass with said fellow as his wife, by the name of Elizabeth, as free under the said pass; the said fellow William is about six feet high, a likely well made fellow, talks fast when spoken to; his clothing was a half worn blue broad cloth coat, of nabrig shirt and trousers, half worn wool hat, with tinsel band and buckle on said hat, his other cloaths unknown; they stole and carried off with them a roan mare, about twelve years old, (said fellow says he is a carpenter). Whoever takes up and secures said wench, so that I get her again, shall receive if ten miles from home ten dollars, if twenty miles twenty dollars, if thirty miles thirty dollars, and if out of the state the above reward, including what the law allows, paid by JAMES CROW CHENEY.

N. B. I will give a generous reward for apprehending and securing said fellow, so that he be brought to justice.
J. C. C.
 Frederick county, October 6, 1798.

NOTICE.

The subscriber intends removing to Baltimore this fall, and in consequence of which OFFERS, at PUBLIC SALE for READY CASH, on the third Monday in November next,
