Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away, on Monday last, from the subscriber, living near Queen-Anne, in Anne-Arundel county, a country born negro man by the name of BEN, who calls himself BEN ANDERSON, a tall slim made fellow, about 6 feet high, 25 years of age, has short wool brushed up in front, a gap in his teeth, which he cannot hide when he speaks, and is bow legged; it is probable he will change his dress, as he has a variety of cloaths with him, and that he will obtain a pass as a free man, having plenty of money. All persons are forewarned from harboring or carrying him off. The above reward will be given to any person who will take up and secure the said fellow in any goal, so that I get him again.

DAVID STEUART.

November 12, 1798.

THE subscriber forewarns all persons from dealing with any of his slaves in any manner or way whatever without leave in writing from himself, or some one of his family; this notice he hopes will be attended to, as he is determined to put the law in force against any offender.

THOMAS HARWOOD, of Annapolis.

THAT valuable tract of land called SMITH'S DELIGHT, containing 150 acres, the property of SAMUEL MAYNARD, jun. lying in Anne-Arundel county, within about two miles of the Chesapeake Bay, well watered, about twenty acres of it valuable meadow ground; the greatest part of the residue cleared and fit for cultivation. The terms on which the above property is sold are, that the purchaser shall give approved bond, with security, to the trustee, for the payment of the purchase money, with interest, within six months from the day of sale.

SAMUEL MAYNARD, jun. D. T.

September 25, 1798.

To be SOLD, on credit,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, situated on the Chesapeake Bay, on the north side of Severn river, containing between three and four hundred acres; this land lies within about eighteen miles from the city of Baltimore, and five from the city of Annapolis, it abounds with timber of every kind, a large proportion of which is calculated for ships; the soil is fertile and level, and well adapted for grazing and farming, having a quantity of salt marsh; it abounds with fish, oysters, and wild fowl, in their proper seasons. This tract of land is situated on the Chesapeake Bay, and a navigable creek on the other side, from its situation it can be enclosed with one hundred and fifty pannels of fence; the improvements are, a dwelling-house and two apple orchards. From the advantageous situation of this property it must be an object to persons inclinable to purchase. For terms of sale apply to LEMUEL WARFIELD, Baltimore, or to the subscriber on the Head of Severn, Anne-Arundel county.

IN COUNCIL.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the general assembly of Maryland did, by an act passed as November session, seventeen hundred and ninety, entitled, "An act directing the time, places and manner of holding elections for representatives of this state in the congress of the United States, and for appointing electors on the part of this state for choosing a president and vice-president of the United States, and for the regulation of the said elections, and also to repeal the act of assembly therein mentioned," direct the governor and council, after having received the returns, papers and instruments containing the number of votes for each candidate for representatives of this state in the congress of the United States, should enumerate and ascertain the number of votes for each and every candidate and person chosen as representatives, and by proclamation signed by the governor, and dispersed through the state, declare the names of the persons duly elected as representatives—we, in pursuance of the directions of the said act, do by this our proclamation declare, that by the returns made to us, it appears that George Dent, John Chew Thomas, William Craik, George Baer, Samuel Smith, Gabriel Christie, Joshua Seney and John Dennis, Esquires, are duly elected representatives of this state in the congress of the United States.

Given in council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Maryland, the eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

JOHN HENRY.

By the Governor,

NINIAN PINKNEY, clerk

of the governor and council.

ORDERED, That the foregoing proclamation be published in the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; the Eastern, George-town, Frederick town, and one of the Baltimore papers, once in each week, for the space of four weeks successively.
