In CHANCERY, February 12, 1799.
JACOB CLEMENTS, an insolvent of Frederick county, makes application, as a trader, by petition to the chancellor in writing, praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors; there is annexed to his petition a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as by the said act is required; the chancellor is satisfied, by competent testimony, that he is at this time, and was at the time of passing that act, a citizen of this state, and of the United States; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that he appear before the chancellor, in the chancery office, on the tenth day of September next, for the purpose of taking the oath by the said act required, in presence of his creditors, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks, before the tenth day of March next, in the Maryland Gazette, he give notice to his creditors to attend on the said tenth day of September, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to lodge with the chancellor, within six months from the time of the last publication, (if they shall think fit) their dissent to his being admitted to the benefit of the said act.
Tell. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

An ACT limiting the time within which claims against the United States, for credits on the books of the treasury, may be presented for allowance.
BE it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That all credits on the books of the treasury of the United States, for transactions during the late war, which, according to the course of the treasury, have hitherto been discharged by issuing certificates of registered debt, shall be for ever barred and precluded from settlement or allowance, unless claimed by the proper creditors, or their legal representatives, on or before the first day of March, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine. (And the secretary of the treasury is hereby required to cause this act to be published in one or more of the public papers of each state.
Signed, JONATHAN DAYTON, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THEODORE SEDGWICK, President of the Senate, pro-tempore.
Approved, July 9, 1798.
JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States.

NOTICE.
ALL persons having claims against the estate of THOMAS GASSAWAY, or Mrs. ELIZABETH GASSAWAY, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, are desired to make them known, legally authenticated, and those indebted are requested to make payment without delay, to G. DEVALLE, Administrator de bonis non of THOMAS GASSAWAY, and Administrator of ELIZABETH GASSAWAY.
