In CHANCERY, February 9, 1799.
ON application to the chancellor, by petition in writing, of STEWART WILLIAMS, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain them, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said Stewart Williams is, and at the time of passing the said act was, a citizen of the United States, and of this state, and the said Stewart Williams, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the passing of the said act: it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the said Stewart Williams, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three times before the 16th of March next, giving notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery office on the 29th day of March next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said Williams then and there taking the oath by the act prescribed for delivering up his property.
Teff. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

In CHANCERY, February 12, 1799.
JACOB CLEMENTS, an insolvent of Frederick County, makes application, as a trader, by petition to the chancellor in writing, praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors; there is annexed to his petition a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as by the said act is required; the chancellor is satisfied, by competent testimony, that he is at this time, and was at the time of passing that act, a citizen of this state, and of the United States; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that he appear before the chancellor, in the chancery office, on the tenth day of September next, for the purpose of taking the oath by the said act required, in presence of his creditors, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks, before the tenth day of March next, in the Maryland Gazette, he give notice to his creditors to attend on the said tenth day of September, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to lodge with the chancellor, within six months from the time of the last publication, (if they shall think fit) their dissent to his being admitted to the benefit of the said act.
Teff. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

An ACT limiting the time within which claims against the United States, for credits on the books of the treasury, may be presented for allowance.
BE it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That all credits on the books of the treasury of the United States, for transactions during the late war, which, according to the course of the treasury, have hitherto been discharged by issuing certificates of registered debt, shall be for ever barred and precluded from settlement or allowance, unless claimed by the proper creditors, or their legal representatives, on or before the first day of March, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine. And the secretary of the treasury is hereby required to cause this act to be published in one or more of the public papers of each state.
Signed, JONATHAN DAYTON, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THEODORE SEDGWICK, President of the Senate, pro tempore.
Approved, July 9, 1798.
JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States.

NOTICE.
ALL persons having claims against the estate of THOMAS GASSAWAY, or Mrs. ELIZABETH GASSAWAY, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, are desired to make them known, legally authenticated, and those indebted are requested to make payment without delay, to G. DUVALL, Administrator de bonis non of THOMAS GASSAWAY, and admittor of ELIZABETH GASSAWAY.
