A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears by the deposition of William Crossman and representation of Henry Hall Dorsey, Esquire, of Anne Arundel county, that a certain John Tuft, of the said county, on the second day of January last, beat, in a cruel manner, the said William Crossman, and that the said Tuft still threatens the aforesaid Crossman, and refuses to be taken by the officers of government, or to submit to the laws, so that the said Crossman is duly in danger of his life; and whereas it is obviously the duty of the executive to guard as much as may be against the commission of such enormities, and to bring such offenders against the laws and peace of society to justice, I have therefore thought proper, by and with the advice of the council, to issue this my proclamation, authorizing and enjoining all sheriffs, and other officers of the peace, to apprehend and convey before some one of the judges or justices within this state the said John Tuft, in order that he may be dealt with according to law; and I do hereby exhort and require the good people of this state to be aiding and assisting the said officers in the execution of their duty.
