

To the Inhabitants of Charles county.

It is with pain and regret that I find myself compelled to announce to my friends and fellow-citizens of Charles county, that the continued series of illness that I have experienced for several years past, and particularly the last, renders a change of situation, and particularly the last, renders a change of situation, absolutely and essentially necessary. Being thus circumstanced, I have resolved to settle at Annapolis, where in hopes of better health, I shall continue to prosecute my profession, with this determination, to attend the court here as usual.

Permit me to offer my respectful acknowledgments, for the liberal and generous patronage and support that I have uniformly received at your hands, both professionally and politically, and to assure you in the language of truth and sincerity, that I shall not be wanting in grateful remembrance of your past kindness, but that I shall always feel a lively interest in your happiness and prosperity.

Thomas Buchanan.

Port-Tobacco, April 16, 1799.

On the 11th day of June next, will be offered for sale on the premises, at Port-Tobacco, by the subscribers,

The Lot and Houses,

LATELY occupied by the late Mr. Matthew Blair, comprising the best stand and arrangements for the accommodation of a merchant, of any in that place. The improvements are a large frame house 46 feet long by 34 feet in breadth, under which is a dry airy cellar, built of stone, and windows secured with iron slatrons—the house is divided into a large convenient store room, three lodging rooms well finished, two of them having fire-places; on the south and west sides is a range of piazzas supported by brick pillars; at the end of the main building are two wings of 24 feet by 18 each, one used as a counting house, &c. and the other as a kitchen—a stable frame 24 feet by 14, with hay-loft, &c.

The lot is nearly square, and extensive, affording ample ground for a garden, and the whole enclosed with locust posts, and painted palings, which with the houses are in good repair.

One third of the purchase money will be expected down, and the residue in one and two yearly payments, for which bond with security, if required, must be given; when paid, deeds will be executed.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 22d day of April, a dark mulatto man by the name of BAR, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, about 21 or 22 years of age, a straight handsome fellow, with a good countenance, good teeth, and a fine suit of wool, which he has generally worn plaited; had on and took with him one kersey over jacket, one pair striped overalls of elastic cloth, two German linen shirts; with sundry other cloaths. He is a smart fellow, plays well on the fiddle, and I apprehend has obtained a pass, and will endeavour to pass as a free man. I apprehend that he will endeavour to go by water, as it is the most likely means of making his escape. All matters of vessels are forewarned from employing the said negro at their peril. Whoever takes up said negro, and confines him in any goal so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and if brought home all reasonable expences paid; by

By the CORPORATION of the CITY of ANNAPOLIS,
April 20, 1799.

ORDERED, That the by-law, entitled, A By-law to prevent the introduction of the small-pox into the city of Annapolis, or the precincts thereof, be published three weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

By order,
A. GOLDER, Clk.

A By-law to prevent the introduction of the small-pox into the city of Annapolis, or the precincts thereof.

BE it established and ordained, by the mayor, recorder, aldermen, and common council of the city of Annapolis, and the authority of the same, That whatever inhabitant of the said city, or the precincts thereof, shall introduce or bring the small-pox into this city, or the precincts thereof, by inoculation, or shall take or receive into his or her house or family any person whatever, not being an inhabitant of the said city, or the precincts thereof, who either is at the time, or comes to town to be infected with the small-pox, in order to nurse or tend such person in that distemper, knowing such person to be then infected, or that such person came to town with design to be infected, with such distemper, such inhabitant to introducing or bringing the small-pox into this city, or the precincts thereof, by inoculation, or taking or receiving at any time any such person, not an inhabitant as aforesaid, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of three pounds current money, to be recovered by indictment or confession to the use of the corporation.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That every inhabitant of this city, or the precincts thereof, who shall offend as aforesaid, shall, for every twenty-four hours that any such person as aforesaid, not an inhabitant as aforesaid, shall continue in the house or family of such inhabitant, forfeit and pay the further sum of three pounds current money aforesaid, to be recovered as aforesaid, to the use aforesaid.

Provided always, That this by law, nor any thing herein contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the taking or receiving of such person who, coming to this city, or the precincts thereof, about his necessary business, shall have been or shall be usually infected with the said distemper, and taken so ill as that it may be unsafe for such person to retire from the city, or the precincts thereof.

In CHANCERY, April 22, 1799.

WHEREAS much inconvenience hath resulted from the omission of trustees of insolvent debtors to apply for orders directing the terms of sale, and limiting a time within which claims are to be exhibited, the chancellor thinks proper to pass the following general order:

ORDERED, That any trustee, by this court appointed for the benefit of an insolvent debtor, may proceed to sell the property of the said insolvent debtor unincumbered by mortgage, trust, or otherwise, at public auction, after giving at least fourteen days notice of the time, place, manner, and terms of sale, by advertisement inserted in some convenient news-paper, or set up at convenient public places.

Where the price of the property sold shall not exceed fifty dollars, the purchaser or purchasers shall pay ready money.

Where the price shall exceed that sum, and be not more than 250 dollars, the purchaser or purchasers shall give bond to the trustee as such, with security, for the purchase money, with interest, within four months from the time of sale. Where the price shall exceed 250 dollars the bond passed as aforesaid shall be for paying as aforesaid, within one year from the sale. When the property of an insolvent debtor shall be incumbered by a mortgage, trust, or otherwise, the trustee shall not proceed to sell until a special order shall be obtained, to be passed on application of the party or parties concerned, according to the circumstances of the case. Ordered further, that in any case where a special order for the purpose hath not been passed, the first day of January next be hereby limited and appointed, before which day any creditor of an insolvent debtor shall bring in and declare his claim to the trustee by this court appointed for the benefit of the creditors of such insolvent; provided such trustee shall give notice of his appointment and of such limitation, by advertisement inserted in a news paper nearest the place where the insolvent resided at the time of his application for relief to the general assembly, at least three weeks before the last day of August next; and to prevent any mistake of the meaning of this order, it is directed that the advertisement be as follows:

"A—J—, 1799.

"This is to give notice to the creditors of _____, an insolvent debtor, that the subscriber hath been by the chancellor appointed trustee for their benefit, and that the chancellor hath limited and appointed the first day of January next, before which day they are to bring in and declare their claims to me."

The printers of the Maryland Gazette, the Baltimore, Telegraph, the Rights of Man, the Georgetown news-paper, and the Easton news-paper, are requested to insert this order in their respective papers, and continue it three weeks, and as much longer as they shall think proper.

By the CORPORATION of the CITY of ANNAPOLIS,
April 1, 1799.

RESOLVED, That Philip Barton Key and John Gwinn, Esquires, be appointed to apply to, and receive from, all persons indebted to this corporation the sum or sums of money due to the said corporation by bond or note, and on the receipt thereof, to give discharges for the same; and should any of the said debtors refuse or neglect to pay at least one third of the sum due by them, or either of them, on or before the first day of August next, it shall be the duty of the said Philip Barton Key and John Gwinn, Esquires, and they are hereby empowered and directed to bring suits for the recovery of the whole sum that may be due, and the treasurer of the corporation is hereby authorized and required, when applied to by the said Philip Barton Key and John Gwinn, Esquires, or either of them, to deliver up to them, or either of them, all bonds and notes due this corporation for the purposes aforesaid.

By order,

A. GOLDER, Clk.

Take Notice,

ALL persons indebted to the CORPORATION of the CITY of ANNAPOLIS, on bond, bill or note, are requested to pay the whole interest, and one third of the principal sum, to the subscribers, or either of them, on or before the first day of August next, or suits will be instituted without discrimination, and without delay.

P. B. KEY,
JOHN GWINN.

Anne-Arundel county, sc. WHEREAS GILBERT HAMILTON SMITH, one of the collectors of the tax for Anne-Arundel county, hath this day returned to the commissioners of the tax for said county the following additional list of lands in said county, on which there is no personal property to pay the said taxes, to wit:

- Names of land. Taxes due. Names of persons.
- Hopkin's Fancy and lot at Pig Point, 3 12 10, Stephen West.
- Part Davall's Range, 3 16 8, Thomas Contee.
- Clark's Inheritance, 7 8 7, Solomon Groves.
- Part of Addition, 10 11 2, Lock Chew.

Notice is hereby given, that unless the county charges as aforesaid are paid within thirty days after the publication of this notice, that the said lands, or such parts thereof as will be sufficient to pay the tax and costs thereon, will be sold to the highest bidder, agreeably to the directions of the act of assembly, entitled, An act for the more effectual collection of the county charges in the several counties of this State.

By order,

NICH. HARWOOD, Cl. com. tax, A. A. C.
April 18, 1799.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, on the Head of South river, negro NELL, a bright mulatto slave, about thirty-eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high, with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work, she is a very good spinner, and, in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house; her cloaths are upstart, as she took with her more than one suit, she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I get her again.
