

trial. In the introduction of his speech, having used an expression which seemed to impeach a former judgment of the bench, he was interrupted by the court, who conceived such an insinuation highly disrespectful. Mr. Dallas explained, and assured their honours, that in what he was about to remark, he should scrupulously avoid every thing that could be construed into a disrespect of court; upon which he was allowed to proceed.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The United States, vs. John Friess.
MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

Mr. Dallas supported the motion of Mr. Lewis on three grounds: First, because John Rhoad, one of the jury, had made use of words expressive of an improper bias, importing that the prisoner, and all others concerned in the insurrection, ought to be hung, and that otherwise he could not live with safety at his own habitation. This was proved by the deposition of three persons, two of them to one fact, and the third to another opportunity, at which he used a similar expression.

Secondly, Because the marshal had returned the pannel from such parts of the district as he thought proper, and without any special instructions from the court, and had returned 88 persons on that pannel instead of 60, the proper number:

Third, Because the trial ought to have been had in the county where the crime was committed, the two first were insisted on, the latter merely used to support the argument of the second. Because it had been previously decided against by the court.

Mr. Lewis introduced a variety of law authorities to support the motion, which was rebutted by Mr. Rawle. Mr. Sitgreaves spoke in opposition to the arguments of Mr. Dallas.

The deposition of Mr. Rhoad was introduced and sworn to before the court, relating the substance of the conversation in very different expressions from what the other deponents swore.

The examination of witnesses on the above motion concluded this morning at 12 o'clock. Mr. Lewis then rose, and continued speaking when this paper was put to press.

The captains of the Havanna vessels lately arrived, generally agree in stating that the yellow fever does not exit on shore at the Havanna, and only on board two vessels in that port, one of which is from New-York.

The law enjoining quarantine on all vessels arriving from the West-Indies, &c. commenced its operation this day.

BALTIMORE, May 17.
MELANCHOLY.

On Wednesday evening a poor disconsolate woman, seemingly delirious, with a beautiful female infant, about 5 months old, was observed on Valck's wharf, by persons passing that way; they had not time to approach her until she plunged with her infant into the water; by their united efforts, they, however, saved both from drowning, and brought her to the house of God-fried Hartung, in Cambden-street, where every thing possible was done to restore her to resignation, but all in vain;—giving her infant in solemn charge to Mrs. Hartung, after complaining of sickness and retiring to rest, she found means of going to the attic story, and about nine o'clock yesterday morning threw herself from a window about 60 feet high; and broke her thigh, her arm and breast bone, she lingered about an hour and an half, and then expired.

She is said to be the wife of a man named Boyce, who failed from this port about eight months since, and the reason assigned for the above melancholy accident is, the report of his loss at sea. Mrs. Hartung, at present, has the child under her protection. Humanity here calls aloud for the assistance of all well disposed persons, and hopes are entertained, that amongst established societies in this city, something may be done towards the support of the hapless innocent, thrown on the world, deprived of parents, and trusting only to the mercy of those, whom the untimely fate of the mother has caused to be a protector.

May 18.

Another detachment of marines enlisted in this city, within these few weeks past, by lieutenant Philip Edwards, left town yesterday morning for Philadelphia. This body of men does equal credit to the attention of the lieutenant, as that before enlisted for this service. The rendezvous is still continued near Gray's gardens, where the martial sons of Columbia, whose pulses beat high for their country's wrongs, have an opportunity of enlisting in her cause.

A QUANTITY of choice SHAD and HER-RINGS, in barrels, for SALE, by WILLIAM W. BREWER, at Mr. Wharf's.
May 23, 1799.

Sale by auction.

One hundred lots of ground in the centre of the city of Baltimore.

THE subscribers propose selling at auction, upon the premises, on Friday the 28th day of June next, at 10 o'clock, one hundred lots of ground, on the east side of Jones's Falls, fronting on President and other new streets, lately laid off on and contiguous to that beautiful navigation now completing at the mouth of the said falls, where a handsome new bridge is erected on Pratt-street, leading into the above property.

Jones's Falls takes its rise in rich limestone land, about ten miles from the city, and passing rapidly through a fine but hilly country, (supplying a great number of water-works in its course,) runs through the middle of the city, in a fine, fresh, lively, constant stream, into the harbour; a circumstance of peculiar advantage in our climate, in point both of utility and healthfulness, it being upwards of one hundred feet wide at Pratt-street bridge, and gradually increases to the width of one hundred and fifty feet where it empties into the harbour.

A reference to the plot, which may be seen at Yates and Campbell's auction, room after the 10th day of June, will clearly shew the many advantages of the above property, which is situated in one of the most healthy parts of Baltimore, and remarkable for the purity and softness of spring water.

Some of the lots will be sold in fee-simple, on a liberal credit, and others on lease for 99 years, renewable for ever, the particulars of which will be made known at the time of sale.

SUNDRY LANDS belonging to the estate of the said deceased, consisting of eight or ten thousand acres, lying in Charles county, and situate chiefly on the Mattawoman creek, within a very few miles of the Patowmack river; as those lands are composed of a variety of tracts or parcels of different contents and descriptions, it is not in the power of the trustees particularly to designate them in an advertisement, but it can be said with certainty that they are well adapted to planting and farming, abound in good water, and are well stocked with timber and wood, besides a number of them having the advantage of fisheries equal to any in Maryland. The sale will commence at a place on the Mattawoman creek, well known by the name of Brawner's Mill, at 12 o'clock, on the day above mentioned, and will be continued from day to day, until it is completed, at such places as may then be made known by the trustees. Purchasers will be required to give bond, with good security, to the trustees for the amount of the purchase money, the one-half thereof payable, with interest, within one year, and the residue, with interest, within two years from the time of sale. Possession will be given on the first of January next, and deeds executed to the respective purchasers when the whole of the money is paid, and not before. The said lands will be sold in such tracts or parcels as may appear to the trustees best to answer the design of the sale, and every information respecting them given at the time of sale that may come to the knowledge of the trustees.
