

Agreeably to the last will and testament of THOMAS LINTHICUM, late of Anne Arundel county, will be OFFERED to PUBLIC SALE, on Friday the 7th of June, at his late dwelling, ALL the PERSONAL PROPERTY of the deceased, consisting of a house and furniture, a small quantity of Indian corn, a horse, one feather bed, a complete set of joiners and turners tools, and a number of other articles too tedious to mention. ASAHEL LINTHICUM, Executor.

May 15, 1799.

By virtue of a decree of the chancery court, the subscriber will SELL, at PUBLIC AUCTION, on Tuesday the 11th day of June next, a part of the real estate of FRANK LEEKE, deceased, (heretofore advertised for sale,) to wit:

A LARGE BRICK HOUSE, the late dwelling of FRANK LEEKE, in Upper-Marlborough, having a passage and four rooms below, a store-house, kitchen, smoke-house, dairy, stables, &c. sufficient for the accommodation of a large family. There is belonging to the lots on which the said house stands, a large garden and yard, and adjoining thereto a valuable piece of land for pasture, &c. containing about ten acres, which will be sold with or separate from the house.

Also a lot of ground opposite to the said dwelling-house, and between it and the tavern; at present occupied by Mr Greenwell, distinguished on the plot of the town of Upper-Marlborough by the number 100. Also a lot of ground near the creek, in the said town, distinguished on the plot of the said town by the number 30. These lots will be sold separate. The sale to commence at 4 o'clock P. M. on the premises.

The purchasers to give bond, with good security, for the payment of the purchase money within six months from the time of sale; and upon the approbation, confirmation and ratification, by the chancellor, of the sale, and upon the receipt of the whole purchase money, the subscriber is directed to convey to the purchaser, and his heirs, the property to him sold, which was in the deceased Frank Leeke, and had descended to his heir.

The above property, or any part of it, may be purchased on that day, on the same terms, by contract publicly made.

WILLIAM KILTY, Trustee.

May 20, 1799.

Several negroes belonging to the estate of Mrs. Anne Leeke will be disposed of on the same day, at public or private sale.

W. KILTY.

The subscribers being appointed trustees for the purpose of selling and conveying so much of the real estate of the late deceased major-general SMALLWOOD as may be necessary to discharge his debts, will OFFER for SALE, on Monday the 15th of July next, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter,

SUNDRY LANDS belonging to the estate of the said deceased, consisting of eight or ten thousand acres, lying in Charles county, and situate chiefly on the Mattawoman creek, within a very few miles of the Patowmack river; as those lands are composed of a variety of tracts or parcels of different contents and descriptions, it is not in the power of the trustees particularly to designate them in an advertisement, but it can be said with certainty that they are well adapted to planting and farming, abound in good water, and are well stocked with timber and wood, besides a number of them having the advantage of fisheries equal to any in Maryland. The sale will commence at a place on the Mattawoman creek, well known by the name of Brawner's Mill, at 12 o'clock, on the day above mentioned, and will be continued from day to day, until it is completed, at such places as may then be made known by the trustees. Purchasers will be required to give bond, with good security, to the trustees for the amount of the purchase money, the one half thereof payable, with interest, within one year, and the residue, with interest, within two years from the time of sale. Possession will be given on the first of January next, and deeds executed to the respective purchasers when the whole of the money is paid, and not before. The said lands will be sold in such tracts or parcels as may appear to the trustees best to answer the design of the sale, and every information respecting them given at the time of sale that may come to the knowledge of the trustees.

By his EXCELLENCY

BENJAMIN OGLE, Esquire,
GOVERNOR of MARYLAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me, that a dwelling house, the property of William Bradley Beanes, lying in Prince George's county, was consumed by fire, and that some malicious person or persons are supposed to have wilfully set fire to the same; I have therefore thought proper, by and with the advice and consent of the council, to issue this my proclamation, hereby offering a reward of One Hundred Dollars to any person who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators thereof, so that he, she or they, or any of them, be convicted thereof.

Given in council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Maryland, this sixth day of May, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety-nine.

BEN. OGLE.

Attest.

NINIAN PINKNEY, clerk of the governor and council.

ORDERED, That the foregoing proclamation be published in the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis, and the Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, every day for the space of five weeks.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY.

WHEREAS a certificate was issued by the State of Maryland on the 12th day of March, 1794, No. 1138, to JAMES HUTCHINGS, Esquire, for £. 50, with interest thereon, which certificate was lost in the life-time of the said James, and has never come to our possession since his death; we hereby give notice of our intention to prefer an application to the governor and council to have it renewed, agreeably to an act of assembly, passed at November session, 1792.

KITTY E. HUTCHINGS, } Executors of HARRIET HUTCHINGS, } Jas. Hutchings.

THE subscriber having sustained material injury on the plantation now occupied by him, known by the name of Houard's, and being the plantation whereon Mr. PETER MILLER formerly resided, forewarns all persons from travelling across the said plantation in any manner or way whatever, except as the roads there-through direct to the plantations at the back thereof. He also forewarns all persons from dealing with any of his slaves in any manner or way whatever, without leave in writing from himself, and that he will chastise every negro that he may find crossing the said plantation (other wise than as aforesaid) without respect to their owners. He further forewarns all persons from halting or landing their scows on the shores of said lake, and from pillaging and taking off wood from the same.

This notice he hopes will be attended to, as he is determined to put the law in force against any offender.
BARUCH FOWLER.

April 30, 1799.

To the Inhabitants of Charles county.

It is with pain and regret that I find myself compelled to announce to my friends and fellow citizens of Charles county, that the continued series of ill health that I have experienced for several years past, and particularly the last, renders a change of situation absolutely and essentially necessary. Being thus circumstanced, I have resolved to settle at Annapolis, where in hopes of better health, I shall continue to prosecute my profession, with this determination, to attend the court here as usual.

Permit me to offer my respectful acknowledgments, for the liberal and generous patronage and support that I have uniformly received at your hands, both professionally and politically, and to assure you in the language of truth and sincerity, that I shall not be wanting in grateful remembrance of your past kindness, but that I shall always feel a lively interest in your happiness and prosperity.

THOMAS BUCHANAN.

Port-Tobacco, April 16, 1799.

On the 11th day of June next, will be offered for sale on the premises, at Port-Tobacco, by the subscribers,

The Lot and Houses,

LATELY occupied by the late Mr. Matthew Blair, comprising the best site and arrangements for the accommodation of a merchant, of any in that place. The improvements are a large frame house 46 feet long by 34 feet in breadth, under which is a dry airy cellar, built of stone, and windows secured with iron stanchions—the house is divided into a large convenient store room, three lodging rooms well finished, two of them having fire places; on the south and west sides is a range of piazzas supported by brick pillars; at the end of the main building are two wings of 24 feet by 18 each, one used as a counting house, &c. and the other as a kitchen—a stable frame 24 feet by 14, with hay-loft, &c.

The lot is nearly square, and extensive, affording ample ground for a garden, and the whole enclosed with iron posts, and painted paings, which with the houses are in good repair.

One third of the purchase money will be expected down, and the residue in one and two yearly payments, for which bond with security, if required, must be given; when paid, deeds will be executed.

ROBERT FERGUSSON, } Executors of JOHN ROBERTSON, } M. Blair.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 22d day of April, a dark mulatto man by the name of BAR, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, about 21 or 22 years of age, a straight handsome fellow, with a good countenance, good teeth, and a fine suit of wool, which he has generally worn plaited; had on and took with him one kersey over jacket, one pair striped overalls of elastic cloth, two German linen shirts, with sundry other cloaths. He is a smart fellow, plays well on the fiddle, and I apprehend has obtained a pass, and will endeavour to pass as a free man. I apprehend that he will endeavour to go by water, as it is the most likely means of making his escape. All matters of vessels are forewarned from employing the said negro at their peril. Whoever takes up said negro, and confines him in any goal so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and if brought home all reasonable expences paid, by

CORNELIUS BARBER.

Near Chaptico, Saint-Mary's }
county, May 2, 1799. }

THE subscriber hereby gives public notice, that he will attend at Elk-Ridge Landing, on Monday the tenth day of June next; at Rawlings's tavern on Thursday the twenty-seventh, and on all other days throughout the said month at the office of inspection in the city of Annapolis, for the purpose of receiving entries of bills, and issuing of licences to those distillers who require them.

THOMAS HARWOOD, of Richd.
Collector of the revenue
Anne-Arundel county.

Annapolis, May 1, 1799.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county; on the Head of South river, negro NELL, a bright mulatto slave, about thirty-eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high, with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work, she is a very good spinner, and, in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house; her cloaths are uncertain, as she took with her more than one suit; she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I get her again.

February 8, 1798. WILLIAM HALL, 3d.

WANTED;

A FEW copies of the laws passed at November session, 1785; also one copy of the proceedings of the house of delegates of February session, and two of June session, 1777; one of October, 1778; one of March, 1779; and one of March, 1780; for which a liberal price will be given by the printers hereof.

ALL persons having claims against CHARLES A. STEUART, late of this county, deceased, are requested to make them known, and those indebted are requested to make payments, to WILLIAM STEUART, Administrator, Anne-Arundel county, May 1, 1799.
