Richard Darnall, Executor of Henry Darnall, against Benjamin Ward, John Ward, James Ward, Anne Ward, Mary Ward, and Henry Oneale.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a sale of the real estate left by Joseph Ward, late of Montgomery county, deceased, for the payment of a balance due on a judgment obtained against him in his lifetime; the bill states, that the said Joseph Ward devised his real estate, consisting of three tracts of land, lying in Montgomery county, called Beall's Design, Ward's Chance, and Comfort, to his three sons, Benjamin, Joseph, and John, that the said Joseph is since dead, and has left four children, to wit: John, James, Anne and Mary, who are infants, under the age of twenty-one years, to whom his title in the said lands descended, and that two of the said infants, to wit: Wary Ward and James Ward, for whom subpoenas have issued and have been returned, have since the filing of the bill removed to the State of Virginia, out of the reach of the process of this court; it is, on the complainant's motion, ordered, that he caused a copy of this order to be inserted at least three weeks before the sixth day of July next in the Maryland Gazette, to the intent that the guardian or guardians of the said nonresident defendants may be warned to appear here on or before the first Tuesday in October next to shew cause wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

THOMAS HARWOOD, an insolvent debtor, of Calvert county, makes application, as a trader, by petition to the chancellor in writing, praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors; there is annexed to his petition a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as by the said act is required; the chancellor is satisfied, by competent testimony, that he is at this time, and was at the time of passing that act, a citizen of the United States, and of this state; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that he appear before the chancellor, in the chancery-office, on the twenty-first day of December next, for the purpose of taking the oath by the said act required, in presence of his creditors, and that, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks before the twenty-first day of June next, in the Maryland Gazette, he give notice to his creditors to attend on the said twenty-first day of December, for the purpose recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to lodge with the chancellor, within six months from the time of the last publication, (if they shall think fit) their dissent to his being admitted to the benefit of the said act.

Sale by auction.

One hundred lots of ground in the centre of the city of Baltimore.

THE subscribers propose selling, at auction, upon the premises, on Friday the 28th day of June next, at 10 o'clock, one hundred lots of ground, on the east side of Jones's Falls, fronting on President and other new streets, lately laid off on and contiguous to that beautiful navigation now completing at the mouth of the said falls, where a handsome new bridge is erected on Pratt Street, leading into the above property.

Jones's Falls takes its rise in rich limestone land, about ten miles from the city, and passing rapidly through a fine but hilly country, (supplying a great number of water works in its course,) runs through the middle of the city, in a fine, fresh, lively, constant stream, into the harbour; a circumstance of peculiar advantage in our climate, in point both of utility and healthfulness, it being upwards of one hundred feet wide at Pratt Street bridge, and gradually increases to the width of one hundred and fifty feet where it empties into the harbour.

A reference to the plot, which may be seen at Yates and Campbell's auction room after the 10th day of June, will clearly shew the many advantages of the above property, which is situated in one of the most healthy parts of Baltimore, and remarkable for the purity and softness of spring water.

Some of the lots will be sold in fee-simple, on a liberal credit, and others on lease for 99 years, renewable for ever, the particulars of which will be made known at the time of sale.

THOMAS YATES.

The subscribers being appointed trustees for the purpose of selling and conveying to much of the real estate of the late deceased major-general SMALLWOOD as may be necessary to discharge his debts, will OFFER for SALE, on Monday the 15th of July next, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter,

SUNDRY LANDS belonging to the estate of the said deceased, consisting of eight or ten thousand acres, lying in Charles county, and situate chiefly on the Mattawoman creek, within a very few miles of the Patowmack river; as those lands are composed of a variety of tracts or parcels of different contents and descriptions, it is not in the power of the trustees particularly to designate them in an advertisement; but it can be said with certainty that they are well adapted to planting and farming, abound in good water, and are well stocked with timber and wood, besides a number of them having the advantage of fisheries equal to any in Maryland. The sale will commence at a place on the Mattawoman creek, well known by the name of Brawner's Mill, at 12 o'clock, on the day above mentioned, and will be continued from day to day, until it is completed, at such places as may then be made known by the trustees. Purchasers will be required to give bond, with good security, to the trustees for the amount of the purchase money, the one half thereof payable, with interest, within one year, and the residue, with interest, within two years from the time of sale. Possession will be given on the first of January next, and deeds executed to the respective purchasers when the whole of the money is paid, and not before. The said lands will be sold in such tracts or parcels as may appear to the trustees best to answer the design of the sale, and every information respecting them given at the time of sale that may come to the knowledge of the trustees.

JOHN CAMPBELL,
HENRY H. CHAPMAN.

In CHANCERY, May 30, 1799.

ON application to the chancellor, by petition, in writing, of BENJAMIN CAWOOD, of Charles county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the said Benjamin Cawood being known to the chancellor to be at this time, and at the time of passing the last act of assembly, a citizen of this state, and of the United States; and the said Benjamin Cawood, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor the assent in writing of so many of his creditors, as have due to them, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act; it is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the said Benjamin Cawood, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette, before the end of June next, give notice to his creditors to appear at the chancery-office, at eleven o'clock, on the twenty-second day of October next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said Benjamin Cawood's then and there taking the oath prescribed for delivering up his property.
