ABSALOM RIDGELY.
Annapolis, July 24, 1799.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, on the Head of South river, a mulatto man named ISAAC, about thirty years of age, about five feet ten or eleven inches high, has a down look, and is extremely knock kneed; took with him sundry articles of cloathing, among them a blue broad cloth coat, a red striped swandown waistcoat, and nankeen breeches. TEN DOLLARS will be paid for securing him in any gaol, so that he be had again, or the above reward for bringing him home.

EDWARD HALL.

July 21, 1799.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his fellow-citizens, that having taken out licence as auctioneer, and given security agreeably to law, he is now ready to receive goods and other articles for public sale, and that they may count upon his utmost endeavours to give them satisfaction.

He has for private sale a tract of land, containing 222 acres, about 20 miles from the city of Baltimore; this tract is well watered and timbered, on which is an excellent mill seat.

A quantity of prime shad and herrings for sale.
JAMES WHARFE.
N. B. He will also sell, or barter, a schooner well calculated for the bay trade or West-Indies, and may be fitted for sea at a small expence.
Annapolis, July 24, 1799.

COMMITTED to my custody, as a runaway, on the 20th instant, a negro man, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a swarthy complexion, who calls himself SOLOMON, and says he is the property of GERARD B. CAUSIN, Esquire, and was hired his present year to Moses Cawood, of Prince-George's county. His owner is desired to come, pay charges, and take him away, or he will be sold agreeably to law for his prison fees, &c.

THOMAS A. DYSON, Sheriff
Charles county.

June 25, 1799.

Six Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, near Mount Pleasant ferry, on Sunday the 9th of June, a negro woman named CLARRISSA, commonly called CLARE, about nineteen years of age, five feet six or seven inches high, luffy, round faced, and very black, understands house and plantation business; had on a white cotton petticoat, and white Welsh cotton jacket, other cloath unknown. She was purchased from the estate of ROBERT T. LISA, late of Prince-George's county, near Queen-Anne, about five or six years past, and probably may be in that neighbourhood with her relations, if not there it is not unlikely that she has passed as a free woman in company, and is one of Mr. Darnall's negroes that at present have their freedom, and are in the neighbourhood of Annapolis. Whoever secures the said negro, so that the owner gets her again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home all reasonable charges, paid by

ISAAC SIMMONS.

July 1799.

THE creditors of JOHN JOHNSTON, an insolvent debtor, are desired to attend at Leonardtown, on Tuesday the twentieth day of August next, with their claims, as I intend on that day to make a dividend of the money which was produced from the sale of his property.

ZACH FORREST, Sheriff
St. Mary's county, July 23, 1799.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near the head of Severn, in Anne-Arundel county, on Thursday the 27th of June last, a negro man of the name of TOM, generally called Captain Tom, being accustomed to sail in a wood flat for the subscriber to Annapolis; he is about five feet five or six inches high, stout made, has large cheek bones, and when he laughs shews his teeth, and generally has a large chew of tobacco between his under lip and teeth. Said fellow is about 25 years old, and has been accustomed to every kind of plantation work, and is an excellent sawyer at the whip-saw; he is rather slow in speech, unless intoxicated, and if spoke to sharp, has a down look; he had on his usual working cloaths when he went off, and took with him an old red casimer jacket, and white shirt with ruffles on it, and may have other cloaths which is unknown to the subscriber, as he has several relations in the neighbourhood. I do suspect he will make for Baltimore-town, and endeavour to get off by water. I will give 15 dollars if he is apprehended in Baltimore-town and confined in gaol, and if brought home to me twenty dollars, and if out of the state thirty dollars, and all reasonable expences for bringing him home, agreeable to law.

BASIL BROWN.

N. B. Masters of vessels, and others, are hereby requested and forewarned not to harbour or carry away said negro at their peril.

RAN away from the subscriber, in Anne-Arundel county, five miles from South river ferry, on Tuesday the 16th instant, a slim negro woman, of a black complexion, named BURNETTA, but commonly called NETT, she has thick lips and a sulky look if not pleased, and is an old offender, about five feet six or seven inches high, thirty-nine years of age; had on and took with her, two ticklenburg shifts, a petticoat of the same, a calico jacket and petticoat, a white cotton coat, a white linen ditto, a striped country cloth jacket and petticoat, and it is supposed she has a forged pass, and will endeavour to pass as a free woman, as a number have been set free in the neighbourhood the left. Whoever takes up and delivers the said negro woman to the subscriber, or secures her in any gaol, so that I get her again, shall be entitled to a REWARD OF THREE POUNDS, paid by

GASSAWAY RAWLINGS.

with the will annexed.

JUST PUBLISHED,
And to be sold at the Printing-Office,
Price, One Dollar and an Half,

The LAWS

MARYLAND,
Passed November Session, 1798.

RAN away, on Tuesday the fourth instant, from the estate of WILLIAM SANDERS, on South river, a negro man named DENBY, a stout black fellow, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, has a quick pert way of speaking; took with him sundry cloathing, among them a coat and breeches of dark striped elastic cloth, a white muslinet waistcoat, and an old pair of corded breeches, a new mill round hat, bound, and a pair of black shoes; it is expected he has made for Baltimore. A reward of TEN DOLLARS will be paid for securing him in the gaol of Baltimore, so that he be had again, or FIVE POUNDS if taken a greater distance.

WILLIAM BROGDEN.

Sept. 10, 1798.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, on the Head of South river, negro NELL, a bright mulatto slave, about thirty-eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high, with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work, she is a very good spinner, and, in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house; her cloaths are uncertain, as she took with her more than one suit; she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I get her again.
