

NO RISK!

To Merchants, Storekeepers and Tradesmen in general, &c.

You will oblige me by reading this advertisement throughout.

I RESPECTFULLY invite you either to the Treasury, Mr. Caton's tavern, in this city, or to the printing-office, to examine a specimen of ROWLETT'S TABLE OF DISCOUNTS, INTEREST, on every dollar from one to 2,000; on every fifty from 2,000 to 5,000; on every hundred from 5,000 to 50,000; from one day to 365 days inclusive, at five per cent, comprising, in the whole, upwards of one hundred and thirty-two thousand one hundred and fifty calculations of discount, all performed according to the equitable principles of the Banks, and as practised by individual merchants throughout the United States; being a PERFECT STANDARD ON THE SUBJECT: with notes, showing how to use the tables at five, seven and eight per cent, retaining either 360 or 365 days to the year, and the mode of calculation on cents; to which is added, the principles of computation of the various exchanges between each state respectively, and between these and London and Paris, at different rates of exchange.

THE WORK IS DEDICATED, BY PERMISSION, TO THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF THE BANK OF NORTH AMERICA, and has already received the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice President of the United States, and President of the Senate; of a large number of the SENATORS and MEMBERS of the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks UNANIMOUSLY:—a list of the whole is printed and attached to the Specimen Book.

The PREFACE to the Specimen explains, among other matters, the methods to be pursued to render the work perfectly accurate—and gentlemen who will reflect on those methods will agree in the fact. Every one will acknowledge the arduousness of the undertaking.

The expenses, independent of any compensation for my trouble, will require a sum BETWEEN THREE AND FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS, which is too much to hazard: all must depend, therefore, upon a general subscription; for unless FIFTEEN HUNDRED SUBSCRIBERS are obtained, it would certainly be imprudent to execute the work.

Subscribers can run no risk, as the book (which will be quarto, from 200 to 225 pages, or more—price two dollars) is not to be paid for until delivered rigorously conformable to my engagements expressed in the conditions affixed to the specimen, which consists of six detached pages of the work.

A TABLE of all the port towns in the United States, and some other useful information (not expressed in the title) will follow the computations of exchanges between this country and England and France; and provided, gentlemen, that a sufficient number of you come forward and subscribe, a further addition shall be made of the coins and money of account of the principal maritime trading places in RUSSIA, SWEDEN, DENMARK, NORWAY, PRUSSIA, POLAND, GERMANY, HOLLAND, FLANDERS, SPAIN, PORTUGAL, ITALY, in several of the WINDWARD and LEeward WEST-INDIA ISLANDS, and in many of the parts of the EAST-INDIES;—the whole reduced to dollars and cents; and the mode of computing the exchange with these places explained: also, a large sheet table of calculations of compound interest at 6 per cent, to which the rates for 5, 7, and 8 per cent, will apply: the tables used in banks for the determination of the value of gold; and the interest for each month from one to twelve months, which will make the work still more acceptable to PERSONS LIVING IN THE COUNTRY as well as in town; and upon the whole, I am confident, that this book will be found as generally useful and convenient as any matter of fact performance that ever entered a counting-house or store.

It is not sufficient that an individual (considering himself but ONE) shall conclude, instead of subscribing, to purchase the book when published, as some of the members of the house of representatives of the United States have done; for, however much I am obliged to them, the loss of ONE'S subscriptions may lose me the rest, and the book may never be published. I repeat, that nothing is to be paid in advance.

And am, very respectfully,
Gentlemen,
Your humble servant,
JOHN ROWLETT, Accountant
Bank of North America.

POSTSCRIPT. Gentlemen who have business at either of the Banks, will have an opportunity of subscribing there, as well as at the tavern, &c. before mentioned.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living on the north side of Severn river, in Anne Arundel county, on Thursday the 10th instant, a negro man named GEORGE WILLIAMS, of a yellow complexion, 32 or 34 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, has a round full face, stout made, and walks upright, is smooth spoken, but a great liar, he is fond of playing on the violin, commonly wears his hair plaited and queued; had on when he ran off a blue jacket, olivabrig shirt, short white country cloth breeches, and good shoes; he is of a saucy disposition, but if resolutely spoken to is a great coward. I bought him of Mr. Albright, who had him of Mr. Walker, near Patapsco ferry; he took an axe and wedges with him; I expect he will go to cut wood, and pretend he is free; he stole a batteau in Dividing creek; I suppose he will cross the bay and go on the eastern shore, or may be to Baltimore, from thence push for Pennsylvania. He went away with a negro man who calls himself JOSEPH JOICE, a free man, but he confesses to force of my people he was a slave and sold from the eastern shore to Georgia, and ran away from there to this country; he is above 6 feet high, stout made, of an uncommon strength, wanting two fore teeth, one above and one below, speaks very slow, and very lazy, dressed with a blue jacket, beaver hat, olivabrig shirt, white country cloth narrow trousers, very old shoes and stockings, his hair plaited and queued likewise, of a yellow complexion; if they do not push for Pennsylvania will cut wood some where, but they will be known directly, because they are both great rogues. Whoever takes up the said negro, and secures him in any goal, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, including what the law allows, and reasonable charges if brought home.

J. F. LEEBOO.

March 19, 1800.

CAME to the subscriber, some time in January last, a red and white hater with all. The owner is desired to come, prove property, pay charges, and take her away.

WILLIAM GLOVER.

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 10th of October last, a negro JACOB, 35 years of age, about 6 feet high, smooth face, high forehead, his wool growing in a peak leaves his temples bare, speaks low and rather hoarse, had on and took with him when he went away, a broadwale cotton coat, a blue coarse short coat with metal buttons, old breeches, olivabrig shirt, and a match coat blanket; his Sunday apparel; a purple cloth coat with lined buttons, unkeken breeches, mixed worsted stockings, and half boots; he professes to be a Methodist, and has been in the practice of preaching of nights. It is expected he is harbouring about the city of Annapolis, West river, South river, South river Neck, or Queen Anne, as he has a wife at Miss Murdoch's. Whoever takes up and secures said fellow in any goal, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, paid by THOMAS GIBBS, living near Queen Anne.

N. B. All masters of vessels and others are forbidden harbouring, employing, or carrying off said fellow at their peril.

And to be SOLD at this office,
Price one eighth of a dollar,

THE subscriber intending to decline the practice of physic in a short time, hopes, that those who are indebted to him for professional services will be prepared to pay off their respective balances by the 1st of September, at that time he shall place the bonds, notes and accounts, which may remain unpaid, in the hands of an attorney, who will be directed to issue suits for such balances as may be unsatisfied.
April 3, 1800. JAMES MURRAY.

FOR SALE,

A COACHEE and harness, with or without a pair of HORSES. Also a large handsome horse, fit for the saddle or draught. Inquire of the printer.
Annapolis, March 4, 1800.

HIGH FLYER,

Will stand to ever more this season at South River ferry, four miles from Annapolis, from the 15th of April to the 15th of July, at twenty dollars each, if credit is required, or fifteen dollars each, and one dollar to the groom, if the money is sent with the mares, or paid by the end of the season.

HIGH FLYER is sixteen hands high, a blood bay, with a star and one white foot, and is the largest full bred horse ever imported into this country. The owners of this horse's colts have been offered from 600 to 1000 dollars for them, both in Pennsylvania and Maryland. High Flyer was bred by Richard Tattenfall, got by his High Flyer, which went upwards of 7000 guineas, and was never beat. Thistle, the dam of High Flyer, was got by Syphons, she was the dam of Mr. Hutchinson's Thistle, which was a good runner, his grand-dam by Cade, she was the dam of Mr. Shattoe's Hunter Omnium, Herald, and Miss Barboth; his great-grand-dam by Partner, she was the dam of Toy, Madam, the dam of Twig, Drowsy, Torismond, Alcides, the dam of Young Cade; the dam of Omnium Filly; by Cade, the dam of Prioten and Villager, all capital runners, his great-great-grand-dam by M. chless, great-great-great-grand-dam by Bimmer, his great-great-great-grand-dam by Place's White Turk, and out of a Layton Barb mare.

LEEBOO, the first colt of High Flyer's get, that has started, out of a full bred mare, won three races in as many days last fall, ought to enhance this horse's stock. The most capital stud horses in England do not get one colt in ten good runners. The reason of High Flyer's standing this season at fifteen dollars each mare is the want of money in this state; if High Flyer was in England, and so capital a colt as Leeboo had made three such races, High Flyer would have stood at twenty guineas each mare. Good grass will be provided for mares at 30¢ per week, every attention paid them; but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.

JOHN CRAGGS.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber hereof hath obtained letters of administration from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, on the estate of NATHANIEL FOSTER, late of the county aforesaid, deceased; I do therefore request that all persons who have claims against the said estate to bring them in, legally authenticated, and those who are in any manner indebted to said estate to make payment to

SUSANN FOSTER, Administratrix.

CAME to Mr. HBEK JOHNSON'S plantation, before the middle of February, (10 miles from Port Tobacco, on the post road to Piscataway) a stray and trespasser, a bay HORSE, about 14 and an half hands high, shod all round, pates, trot, and canters, appears to have had a skull, no perceptible brand. The owner is requested to prove property, pay charges, and take it away.
