

both captains in the British service, as appears by their commissions found on them. Bowler fled with some Indian chiefs, and it is expected they have got to the Banana Islands, where it is thought he will not be so well received, as he has left in possession of the Spanish troops, his seny Babana's wife, with others of his valuable friends from thence. The good people of Georgia ought to be obliged to their neighbours of the Floridas for ridding them of these pests to society.

[This may have given rise to the report we published a few days back, of Bowler himself having been taken prisoner.]
