

Annapolis, August 21.

Extra of a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia to his friend in this city, dated Philadelphia, August 8, 1800.

"Sir,
"Having lately seen published a sketch of the proceedings at a public meeting in Maryland, at which the republican cause was benefited by your patriotism and talents; although I am not in the habits of a correspondence with you, yet in justice to your correct statement as it respects the supposed insurrection, in the northern counties of Pennsylvania, and having a warm attachment to that cause, which has for its object the happiness of the people,—I am induced to break through the barrier of unmeaning form and ceremony, and give to you facts that may be relied on; and of which, with my name, you are at liberty to make such use as you please. The first is that the insurgent northern counties, as they are termed, did not give such a majority to Mr. M'Kean, as left for Mr. Rois, a majority in the other counties of Pennsylvania as has been given by Messrs. Chase and Harper, and in leading to the proof it is necessary to have reference to the president's proclamation of March 1799, which declared the counties of Montgomery, Bucks and Northampton, in a state of insurrection; and then the state of the votes given in the above counties, as well as the aggregate vote of the state. Of the latter Mr. M'Kean had 37,244, and Mr. Rois 32,643; leaving a majority of 4601 for Mr. M'Kean as governor. Montgomery gave for Mr. M'Kean 2221, for Mr. Rois 1796; majority 425 for M'Kean. Bucks gave for Mr. M'Kean 2058; for Mr. Rois 2174; majority 116 for Mr. Rois. Northampton gave for Mr. M'Kean 3133, for Mr. Rois 529; majority 2602 for Mr. M'Kean, which makes a total majority of 3027 in those three counties for Mr. M'Kean, which deduct from the total majority in the first leaves a balance of 1574 votes in favour of Mr. M'Kean in Pennsylvania, exclusive of those three counties.

"As it respects the charges of insurrection in those counties, the only cause that could give rise to them was the riot that took place in Bethlehem in consequence of the marshal serving process: and this city has witnessed a similar outrage against the laws, and the delinquents were punished for misdemeanor. Yet no one supposed we were in a state of insurrection.—In short, being on a tour of duty to those counties, I aver there was no insurrection; and that it was also the opinion of numbers of the federalists. I am well aware that it may be said this is not a fact but an opinion; but from the nature and circumstances of the occurrences that took place, there cannot remain a doubt, in the mind of the unprejudiced, that there was not any necessity of marching an armed force to those counties, and that the civil power was competent to enforce the laws."

A DAILY PAPER.

Will be published in the City of Washington, on the first day of the next session of Congress, a daily paper, under the title of

The Washington Advertiser.

CONDITIONS:

I. IT will be published daily during the session of congress; and during the recess, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The most judicious arrangements will be made to forward it to subscribers with the utmost regularity and dispatch.

II. It will be printed on a half sheet of super-royal paper of good quality, with an elegant new type.

III. No industry and application of talents will be spared in the editorial and mechanical departments, to render it interesting to the judgment and agreeable to the eye.

IV. The price will be five dollars per annum, to be paid punctually on the first day of June annually; and as the editors pledge themselves to comply rigorously with the three preceding articles, they will exact as strict a compliance with the fourth.

The critical situation in which our country is placed, and the difficulty of steering the barque in which every thing dear to Americans is freighted, between the "Scylla and Charybdis" which threaten it, must at this time peculiarly engage the attention of our countrymen. Newspapers are necessarily sought for, if not as the most correct, at least as the most early source of information; and the Washington Advertiser, from being a diligent vehicle of the proceedings of congress and such official publications as government may deem it proper to make, and from having an active correspondent and proprietor in a sea port where foreign vessels are daily arriving, holds out advantages to the public, equal at least, to any other paper on the continent. On this ground, it looks up to a liberal community for support.

BROWN & SNOWDEN.

Subscriptions will be received by the printers hereof.

Eight Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 30th day of July, a negro woman named LUCY, 21 years of age, of a yellowish complexion, about 5 feet high; her clothing consists of a white woollen jacket and petticoat, one ditto cotton, country made, a Bath coating furtout, and country made blankets, her other cleathing unknown, as she had a variety; as her father lives in Annapolis it is probable she may be in or about that neighbourhood, if not she may have made for Baltimore. Whoever takes up said woman, and secures her in gaol, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home all reasonable charges paid, by living near Annapolis, Anne-Arundel county.

WILLIAM BREWER, sen.

All masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned carrying her off, or harbouring her, as I am determined to put the law in force.

August 4, 1800.

WHEREAS I heretofore gave notice, in the Maryland Gazette, to the creditors of JOHN BULLEN, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, to meet at Mr. CATON'S tavern, in the said city, on the 1st instant, at which time very few appeared, I do, therefore, hereby request all those who have claims against the estate to exhibit them to me before the 1st day of September next, as I am anxious to make a dividend of the assets in hand, which cannot be done until the whole amount of the claims against the estate be ascertained. It is earnestly hoped that all those to whom the estate is indebted will attend to this notice.

THOMAS JENINGS, Administrator.
