It is conjectured by some of the London editors, that a pacification between the French republic and the house of Austria, will have a powerful effect in restoring the general tranquillity of Europe.

Annapolis, September 11.

By the CORPORATION of the City of Annapolis, September 4th, 1800.

ORDERED, That 200 copies of the by-law to prevent persons from places infected with the prevailing contagious fever from coming to and remaining within the limits of this city, be immediately printed in hand-bills, and distributed, and that the same be inserted in the Maryland Gazette.

By order, A. GOLDBER, clk.

A BY-LAW to prevent persons from places infected with the prevailing contagious fever from coming to and remaining within the limits of this city.

Be it established and ordained, by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council, of the city of Annapolis, and the authority of the same, That no person or persons who shall or may come from or through the city of Baltimore, or the precincts thereof, or from the borough of Norfolk, in Virginia, shall, after the passage of this law, enter into this city, or the precincts thereof, until such person or persons obtain from one of the health committee, a permit in writing, to enter; and that such permit shall specify the name of the person, and the time he shall remain, not exceeding the space of ten hours.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That if any inhabitant or inhabitants of this city, or the precincts thereof, shall, after the passage of this law, receive any person or persons coming from any of the infected places aforesaid, without a permit as aforesaid, such inhabitant or inhabitants shall, for each person received as aforesaid, forfeit and pay the sum of three pounds six shillings and eightpence current money, and the like sum for every hour such person or persons shall remain in his, her or their house.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That if any inhabitant or inhabitants aforesaid shall permit any person or persons to remain in his, her or their house for the space of one hour after the expiration of the time specified in the permit, such inhabitant or inhabitants, for each person, shall forfeit and pay the sum of three pounds six shillings and eightpence current money, and the like sum for every hour such person or persons shall remain as aforesaid.

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit any person or persons who shall or may have been absent from the said places for the space of ten days, and in good health, to enter this city.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That instead of the health committee heretofore appointed, John Davidson, Allen Quynn, James Williams, John Randall, James Mackubin, Frederick Grammar, Jonathan Pinkney, William Alexander, Archibald Golder, Vachel Stevens, William Brown, jun. John Brice and Francis Mary de Lalandelle, be and they are hereby constituted and appointed a committee of health.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That all fines and forfeitures accruing under this act may be recovered by presentment or indictment, or before the mayor, recorder, or any one alderman, in a summary way, one half to be applied to the informer, the other half to the use of the corporation.

September 4, 1800: Read the first and second time and assented to.

By order,

A. GOLDBER, Clk.

Proclaimed. THOMAS W. HEWITT, Sheriff.

A continuation of Mr. Duvall's Address will appear after his return from the Eastern Shore general court.

To be LET,

THAT well known farm, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, opposite to Annapolis, called GREENBURY'S POINT, containing in the clear land about 350 acres, with the privilege of sowing 170 or 180 bushels of wheat immediately, and to have full possession the first day of January next. Any person inclining to rent may know the terms by applying to the subscriber, now in Annapolis.

WILLIAM S. BISHOP.

September 10, 1800.

THE subscriber hereby gives notice, that he intends to petition the next general assembly of Maryland, for an act of insolvency to release him from debts which he is entirely unable to pay.

LEVI BUTLER.

Charles county, September 1, 1800.

THE subscriber is extremely sorry that he is under the disagreeable necessity of giving this public notice to his creditors, that through a number of misfortunes, and losses in trade, finds himself unable to discharge his debts at this time; and being willing to give up his property for the use of his creditors, means to petition the general assembly of Maryland for relief.

JOHN GROVES.

Anne-Arundel county, August 27, 1800.

I MEAN to petition the next general assembly of Maryland to release me from debts I am unable to pay.

THOMAS KING.

September 6, 1800.

By virtue of a writ of feri facias, to me directed from the general court, will be SOLD, on Saturday the 25th day of October next, on the premises,

A TRACT or parcel of LAND, known by the name of BRANS AND BACON, containing five hundred and seventy-five acres, more or less; the above property is taken as the property of SAMUEL HAMBLETON, terre-tenant of JOHN HEPAURN, to satisfy a debt due NATHAN LEVY, for the use of JOHN DAWSON. The sale will commence at one o'clock, for ready MONEY only.

JOHN WELCH, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

September 10, 1800.

Agreeable to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of insolvent debtors, and agreeable to a schedule given in by WILLIAM FRENCH, an insolvent debtor, for the benefit of his creditors, will be SOLD, at the late dwelling-house of the said William French, on the 18th day of October next,

A TRACT or parcel of LAND, known by the name of WADE'S INCREASE, containing 75 acres, more or less, and one negro man named BRISTER, for ready CASH. The sale will commence at 12 o'clock.

JOHN WELCH, Trustee, agreeable to the aforesaid act of assembly.

September 10, 1800.

THE subscriber takes the liberty to inform his friends and customers in Annapolis, that he intends to follow his business of carving and gilding in oil and burnish gold (as he intends to stay here some time), old looking-glass and picture frames re-gilt and made equal to new; as this will be a great saving of risk and expence to the citizens in not having to send their goods to Baltimore, he therefore hopes for encouragement. Any orders left with Mr. Shaw will be thankfully received, and carefully attended to, by

The public's obedient servant,

GEORGE SMITH,

Who has for SALE,

A few looking-glass plates, and picture glass of a large size, and some fit for carriages; also some fine prints of WASHINGTON, engraved by Heath, of London, in elegant frames, portraits of Adams, Jefferson, McKean, and numbers of others. Apply to Mr. SHAW.

Annapolis, September 8, 1800.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of Charles county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of JOSEPH NEALE, late of said county, deceased; all persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, February next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Given under my hand this 12th day of August, 1800:

JOHN NEALE, Executor.

THE creditors of THOMAS WOODWARD, deceased, late of Prince-George's county, are hereby requested to meet at SAMUEL TYLER'S, on the third day of October, with their accounts legally authenticated, in order to receive a dividend of the assets in hand, and those indebted to the deceased's estate are requested to make payment, on or before the third day of October, to MARGARET WOODWARD, Admx.

September 6, 1800.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a number of inhabitants of Anne-Arundel county intend to prefer a petition to the next general assembly, praying for a law to authorize and appoint certain commissioners to straighten, amend, and establish the road leading from the north side of Severn ferry to Patapsco lower ferry.

September 8, 1800.

FROM a variety of misfortunes in trade and otherwise, the subscriber is reduced to the disagreeable necessity of petitioning the next general assembly of Maryland, for an act to release him from the payment of debts that he is unable to pay.

ALEXANDER S. SMOOT.
