

in England as an event unfavourable to a general pacification.

In the house of commons, the subsidiary loan to the emperor has called forth some very severe animadversions from those members who are opposed to the measure: they were received, as usual, without producing conviction; and the question of the loan was carried by a large majority.

While these things are doing, the Russian emperor Paul has notified the pretender that his residence in the Russian dominions will be dispensed with; and the unfortunate Louis XVIII. it is said, is about to retire to England, where a sentiment of sympathy may at least procure him the attachment of the prince of Orange, whose kingdom, like his own, is "not of this world."

By the latest advices from Europe we neither find nor hear any thing respecting our commissioners, only that they are still in France.

Annapolis, September 18.

At a meeting of the judges of the elections for the several districts for Anne-Arundel county, convened at Mrs. Urquhart's tavern, in said county, on the 8th day of September, in the year eighteen hundred, in pursuance of previous notice, for the purpose of deliberating upon the means of discharging the important duties to which they are called, and of fixing upon uniform rules for conducting the elections, were present,

JAMES DISNEY, chairman, William Stewart, Eric J. Worthington, Horatio Ridout, Richard Crownwell, Thomas Worthington, Richard Dorsey and Henry Nelson.

The judges proceeded to the appointment of a chairman, and James Disney, Esquire, was duly elected.

The judges then proceeded to inquire whether the bounds of the several election districts of said county have been ascertained and made public, and were fully satisfied that said bounds have heretofore been sufficiently made known.

The judges then proceeded to read and consider the law for regulating elections, and after some time employed in deliberating upon, and discussing the probable means of, preventing irregularities and preserving peace, and promoting the freedom and fairness of election, according to the directions contained in the law and the constitution and form of government, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the elections shall be held at the outer door or window of the house appropriated for the purpose in each district, and that no person whatever, except the clerks, shall be admitted within the apartments.

Resolved, That the several constables residing in the respective districts shall be and are hereby required to attend the judges of the election therein, to assist in the preservation of the peace.

Resolved, That every citizen whose qualifications to vote, according to the constitution, shall be unknown to the judges, and who shall be questioned concerning the same, either in respect to property, age, or residence, shall be obliged to prove the particular qualification in which he may be questioned, to the satisfaction of the judges.

Resolved, That every inhabitant of the district having settled within the limits of the United States since the third day of September, seventeen hundred and eighty-three, from foreign countries, and having moreover the qualifications of age, residence and property, required by the constitution, and offering to vote, shall be obliged to produce an official certificate of his naturalization according to the laws of this state, or the congress of the United States, as the case may require.

Resolved, That the state of the polls in any district shall not be declared before the close of the election.

Resolved, That the above proceedings and resolutions be published in the Maryland Gazette.

By order of the judges,
JAMES DISNEY, Chairman.

Positively will be SOLD, by order of the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, on Thursday the 9th day of October, at eleven o'clock, if fair, or the first fair day thereafter, at the late dwelling of WILLIAM CHAPMAN, deceased, for CASH,

TWO likely valuable young negro men, one woman and two small children, and one negro girl, 9 or 10 years old, and some household furniture, among which is a valuable bed. All those having claims against said Chapman's estate are once more requested to bring them in, legally authenticated, on or before the day of sale, otherwise they may be excluded by law, as the assets will be paid away, and those indebted are requested to make immediate payment, as longer indulgence cannot be given.

LEONARD SELLMAN, Who is authorized to settle said estate.

September 15, 1800.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be presented to the general assembly of Maryland, at their next session, praying an act to authorise the levy lying out of Charles county to assess a sum of money on said county, sufficient to make a good and convenient road over the Zachis Swamp, at a place called the Old Bridges.

THE subscriber hereby gives notice, that he intends to petition the next general assembly of Maryland for an act of insolvency, to release him from debts which he is entirely unable to pay.

JOHN WILMOT.

Annapolis, September 12, 1800.

NOTICE.

THE trustees of Anne-Arundel county poor will meet at the gaol, in the city of Annapolis, on the second Monday in October next, at 11 o'clock, A. M. to receive proposals and contracts with a person to supply the poor with clean Indian meal and pipe wood, for the ensuing year, to be delivered at the house. Persons wishing to agree to furnish those articles are requested to attend in person, or lodge their terms, under seal, with either of the trustees, previous to the day of meeting.

It may be necessary to observe, that payment will be received out of the next levy, and the trustees will consider themselves bound to prefer the lowest terms.
September 10, 1800.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, letters of administration on the personal estate of ABRAHAM CLAUDE, late of said county, deceased, all persons therefore who have claims against the deceased are requested to exhibit the same, and those who are in any manner indebted to the estate are desired to make payment, to ELIZABETH CLAUDE, Administratrix.

September 16, 1800.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to the general assembly of Maryland, at their next session, for a law authorising and requiring the levy court of Anne-Arundel county, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, a sum of money laid out and expended in opening and making the public road from the west end of the turnpike road laid out from Baltimore-town towards Frederick town, to intersect the east end of the road laid out from Frederick town towards Baltimore-town, near William Hobbs's.

Said sum of money has been advanced by Ellicott and company, and was directed to be levied under an act, entitled, "An act to establish the road from Baltimore-town towards Frederick town, by Ellicott's upper mills, as far as the Poplar Spring, as a public road, and for other purposes therein mentioned," but the same has not been legally done.

NOTICE.

I INTEND to petition the next general assembly of Maryland for an act of insolvency, to discharge me from debts which I am unable to pay.

WILLIAM ALLEIN.

Calvert county, September 10, 1800.

NOTICE.

THE Trustees of the poor of Anne-Arundel county intend to petition the legislature of Maryland, at the next session, to pass an act authorising a sum of money to be levied to rebuild the poor's house of said county.

September 17, 1800.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to petition the next general assembly of Maryland for an act to ratify and make good a certificate that was made by Elisha Brown, deputy surveyor to Baruch Fowler, surveyor of Anne-Arundel county, and late aforesaid, by virtue of a warrant of survey that was granted to Talbot Shipley, of said county, out of the land-office of the western shore of Maryland, on the eighteenth day of January, 1799, which was the oldest warrant granted from the land-office to affect the land that was included in the lines of the aforesaid certificate, but could not be received in the land-office, because the surveyor, Baruch Fowler, of said county, would not sign his name to it, and that refusing to do it without looking at, or examining whether it was done right or not.

RACHEL SHIPLEY, Administratrix.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to petition the next general assembly of Maryland for an act to sell part of the property of George Shipley, sen. who is insane, to discharge his debts.

RACHEL SHIPLEY, Trustee.

In CHANCERY, September 12, 1800.

ON application to the chancellor, by petition, in writing, of JAMES WILSON, of Prince-George's county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry intolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said James Wilson is, and at the time of passing the said act was, a citizen of the United States, and of this State, and the said James Wilson, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act; it is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the said James Wilson, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette, before the third day of October next, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery office, at eleven o'clock, on the ninth day of October next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said James Wilson's then and there taking the oath prescribed for delivering up his property.

SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Gen.

RAN away from the subscriber, on or about the 31st of August last, a negro woman, named SALL, who is a petitioner for freedom, and calls herself SAVOR; she is of a dark complexion, about five feet and an inch high, stout made, and when spoken to is rather pert; it is likely she is in Annapolis, or in the neighbourhood of South river Neck. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro, so that I get her again, shall receive a reward of FIVE DOLLARS, paid by

JAMES IGLEHART, On the Head of South river.

September 16, 1800.

By the CORPORATION of the City of Annapolis, September 4th, 1800.

ORDERED, That 200 copies of the by-law to prevent persons from places infected with the prevailing contagious fever from coming to and remaining within the limits of this city, be immediately printed in hand-bills, and distributed, and that the same be inserted in the Maryland Gazette.

By order, A. GOLDER, clk.

A BY-LAW to prevent persons from places infected with the prevailing contagious fever from coming to and remaining within the limits of this city.

BE it established and ordained, by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council, of the city of Annapolis, and the authority of the same, That no person or persons who shall or may come from or through the city of Baltimore, or the precincts thereof, or from the borough of Norfolk, in Virginia, shall, after the passage of this law, enter into this city, or the precincts thereof, until such person or persons obtain from one of the health committee, a permit in writing, to enter; and that such permit shall specify the name of the person, and the time he shall remain, not exceeding the space of ten hours.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That if any inhabitant or inhabitants of this city, or the precincts thereof, shall, after the passage of this law, receive any person or persons coming from any of the infected places aforesaid, without a permit as aforesaid, such inhabitant or inhabitants shall, for each person received as aforesaid, forfeit and pay the sum of three pounds six shillings and eightpence current money, and the like sum for every hour such person or persons shall remain in his, her or their house.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That if any inhabitant or inhabitants aforesaid shall permit any person or persons to remain in his, her or their house for the space of one hour after the expiration of the time specified in the permit, such inhabitant or inhabitants, for each person, shall forfeit and pay the sum of three pounds six shillings and eightpence current money, and the like sum for every hour such person or persons shall remain as aforesaid.

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit any person or persons who shall or may have been absent from the said places for the space of ten days, and in good health, to enter this city.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That instead of the health committee heretofore appointed, John Davidson, Allen Quynn, James Williams, John Randall, James Mackubin, Frederick Grammar, Jonathan Pinkney, William Alexander, Archibald Golder, Vachel Stevens, William Brown, jun. John Brice and Francis Mary de Lalandelle, be and they are hereby constituted and appointed a committee of health.

And be it established and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, That all fines and forfeitures accruing under this act may be recovered by presentment or indictment, or before the mayor, recorder, or any one alderman, in a summary way, one half to be applied to the informer, the other half to the use of the corporation.

September 4, 1800: Read the first and second time and assented to.

By order,

A. GOLDER, Clk.

Proclaimed. THOMAS W. HEWLETT, Sheriff.

To be LET,

THAT well known farm, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, opposite to Annapolis, called GREENBURY'S POINT, containing in the clear land about 350 acres, with the privilege of sowing 170 or 180 bushels of wheat immediately, and to have full possession the first day of January next. Any person inclining to rent may know the terms by applying to Mr. CLEMENTS, in Annapolis, or the subscriber, at Easton.

WILLIAM S. BISHOP.

September 10, 1800.

THE subscriber hereby gives notice, that he intends to petition the next general assembly of Maryland, for an act of insolvency to release him from debts which he is entirely unable to pay.

LEVI BUTLER.

Charles county, September 1, 1800.

THE subscriber is extremely sorry that he is under the disagreeable necessity of giving this public notice to his creditors, that through a number of misfortunes and losses in trade, finds himself unable to discharge his debts at this time, and being willing to give up his property for the use of his creditors, means to petition the general assembly of Maryland, for relief.

JOHN GROVES.

Anne-Arundel county, August 22, 1800.

I MBAN to petition the next general assembly of Maryland to release me from debts I am unable to pay.

THOMAS KING.

September 6, 1800.