

New Troy, Charles county, October 20, 1800.
By virtue of an order of the orphans court of said county, on Wednesday the 10th of December next, if fair, if not the first fair day, at this place, will be OFFERED for SALE, by PUBLIC VENDOR, for READY MONEY,

UPWARDS of thirty likely country born SLAVES, consisting of men, women, and children, four men and girls, one of the men is a carpenter, a large proportion of the rest are male labourers, very handy in the planting and farming business, and the women and girls are used to house work, also draught horses, and a few hogheads of cider, and some brandy, and about one hundred barrels of corn, for the purpose of paying debts due by NICHOLAS BLACKLOCK, deceased. And to be let on reasonable terms, a convenient store house, with a counting-room, at this place, being an exceeding good country stand for doing business in the mercantile line, within four miles of tide water. It is most earnestly requested that all those indebted to the estate of said deceased will pay off their respective accounts without delay, and those having claims against the same are likewise requested to bring them in, legally authenticated, on or before the first of December. The creditors of said deceased are informed, that Tuesday the 15th of December is appointed for them to attend at Troy, for the purpose of receiving their respective proportions of the money that may be raised from said sale, and otherwise, by BENJAMIN CAWOOD, } Executors.
JOHN SPALDING, }

THE subscriber finding that from the coits of a number of suits brought against him, and the pressing demands of a part of his creditors, that it will be entirely out of his power even to reduce the amount of his debts, thinks it would be doing more justice to his creditors and family at once to deliver up his property for the benefit of his creditors, and to petition the legislature to pass an act to release him from his debts, which he hereby gives notice he shall do, at their next session of assembly.

JAMES A. MAGRUDER.

Upper-Marlborough, October 10, 1800.

In CHANCERY, October 20, 1800.
JAMES MEWBURN, of Prince-George's county, an insolvent debtor, heretofore applied to the chancellor for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, to which he is entitled, in the manner by the said act prescribed; he applied as a merchant or trader, and the chancellor thereupon passed an order appointing a day for the meeting of the said Mewburn's creditors, and for giving them notice, if they should think proper, to give their dissent within a limited time for his obtaining the benefit of the said act; but the said Mewburn having since obtained and filed in this court the assent, in writing, of more than two thirds in value of his said creditors, and the declaration, in writing, of others of his creditors that they will not dissent to his obtaining the benefit of the said act; and more than three fourths in value of his creditors, exclusive of foreigners not residing within the United States, and not having agents or attorneys empowered to act in their behalf, having so assented or declared; it is adjudged and ordered, that the said Mewburn, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the next Maryland Gazette, shall give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery-office, at 11 o'clock, on the 29th instant, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said Mewburn's then and there taking the oath prescribed for delivering up his property, &c.
