BENJAMIN LANE.

In CHANCERY, November 3, 1800.
ORDERED, That any trustee by this court appointed for the benefit of the creditors of any insolvent debtor, relieved by the last act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, may proceed to sell any property of the said insolvent, unincumbered by mortgage, trust, or otherwise, at public auction, after giving at least ten days notice of the time, place, manner, and terms of sale, by advertisement inserted in some convenient news-paper, or set up at convenient public places.

Where the price of the property sold shall not exceed fifty dollars, the purchaser or purchasers shall pay ready money.

Where the said price shall exceed fifty dollars, and shall not be more than two hundred and fifty dollars, the purchaser or purchasers shall give bond, to the trustee as such, with security, for paying the purchase money, with interest, within four months from the time of sale.

Where the said price shall exceed two hundred and fifty dollars, the bond to be passed as aforesaid, with security, shall be for paying, as aforesaid, within one year from the time of sale.

Where the property of any such insolvent is incumbered by a mortgage, trust, or otherwise, the trustee shall not proceed to sell, until a special order shall be obtained, on the application of the party or parties concerned, according to the circumstances of the case.

Ordered further, That in any case where a special order for the purpose hath not been passed, the 25th day of April next be, and it is hereby the day limited, before which day any creditor of such insolvent shall bring in and declare his claim to the trustees, or trustees by the chancellor appointed for the benefit of such insolvent's creditors; provided such trustee shall give notice of his appointment, and of such limitation, by advertisement inserted in a news-paper nearest the place where the insolvent is situated at the time of his application for relief to the general assembly, at least once in each of three successive weeks before the last day of February next.

And to prevent any misconception or mistake of the true meaning of this order, it is directed that the advertisement be as follows:

1800 or 1801.

This is to give notice to the creditors of _____, an insolvent debtor of _____ county, that the subscriber (or subscribers) hath (or have) been by the chancellor appointed trustee for their benefit, and that the chancellor hath limited and appointed the 25th day of April next, before which day they are to bring in and declare their claims to me (or us) the subscriber (or subscribers).

The printers within the State of Maryland, in whose papers orders of this court are usually inserted, are requested to insert this order, and to continue it therein three weeks, gratis.
